Erick - I'm really glad we met this year, I think your sorta strange but you got a beautiful set of eyes. Hope I have you in a class next year cause Louie won't be here + you both have the same kind of eyes and then it will help me remember him, besides - I like dark eyes,
 I think they look sexy. Take care - Cinceray

Erick,

Well I guess I'm glad that I met you this year. I'm just kidding. I'm glad that I met you. You're nice if you're not driving me insane about "short" Randy &

Sadat Assassinated at Military Parade

Vice President Says Egypt Will Abide by All Treaties

By David S. Broder

Senility — a Ray of Hope for Afflicted

From the Washington Post, Oct. 6, 1981. The assassination of President Anwar Sadat, who died at the age of 58, was a shock to the world. The news came as a surprise to many who had seen him as a strong leader. The assassination was a tragedy for the Egyptian people and for the world. The Vice President of the United States, George H. W. Bush, said that the United States would abide by all treaties and agreements with Egypt.

Reaganomics to Affect Millions — as of Today

By DAVID THREADWELL, Times Staff Writer

WASHINGTON—Some people see it as the start of the "Reagan Revolution"—a day many Americans have considered the good event in some time, while others view it like Pearl Harbor Day.

It's Oct. 3, the start of the Federal government's new fiscal year. And

These are just some of the changes that will occur in the American way of life as President Reagan's economic program of really gets under way. Other changes affect transportation, education, health care, and

The year 1981-'82 was a year of extremes. Through the news we experienced the brutal and the horrible and the wondrous and the beautiful.

The assassination of Egyptian President Anwar Sadat convinced many that the world had gone mad, yet others knew that love could conquer all when Prince Charles and Lady Diana Spencer were wed.

While many questions were answered by the pictures of Saturn and its rings by Voyager II, many questions were raised by President Reagan's economic plan.

The swing of events, like the pendulum on a clock, placed pieces down into history. These made up our world.

The biggest puzzle of all are people. They look different;
 they act different; and they think differently. How interesting life is made because of these diversities. Just think how much time is spent trying to figure people out!

The community of Rowland Heights resembles a giant puzzle with hundreds of inter-locking pieces. As each new store or housing tract is opened, new pieces take their place in the already existing outline.

We wonder, though, if the puzzle will ever be really completed. Can the picture of any town ever be totally put together when there are so many things that change and re-arrange themselves and so many people that come and go?

We can only experience the changes that occur while we live here and must leave the future to the imagination.

ROWLAND HIGH SCHOOL,
SPRING 1981

The most important and waited for item on campus this year was the enlargement of the gym. The enlargement of the gym had been a long sought-after goal. The completion of the gym, which was supposed to be by the first of October, became a puzzle as October and November passed without its being done. It appeared that one needed item was not readily available. While the new gym will not solve all of Rowland's problems, it will provide needed space for assemblies, rallies, and concerts, while providing much needed PE facilities.

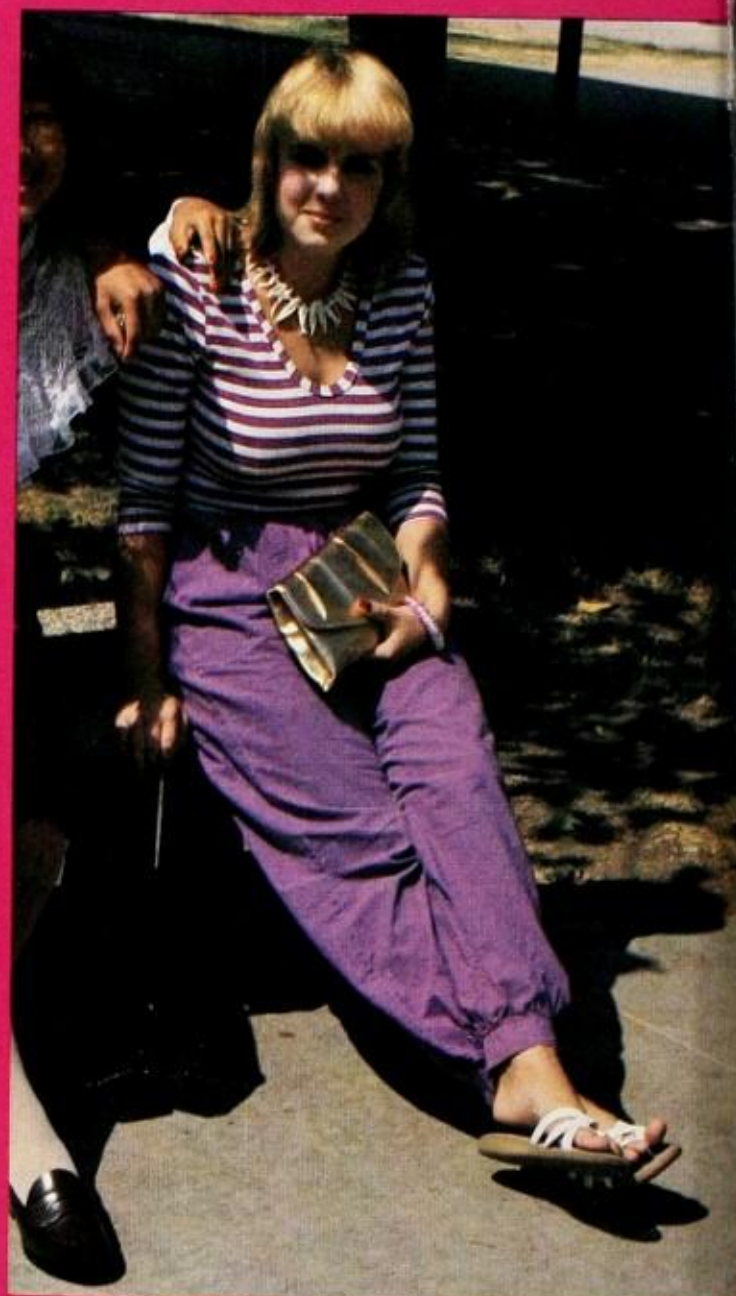

Trying to figure out what clothes were "in style" for Raiders this year was a very puzzling experience, to say the least. Everything from pedalpushers to mini skirts for girls and Izods (everywhere!) to ink-checked vans for guys, was deemed acceptable by the fashion conscious.

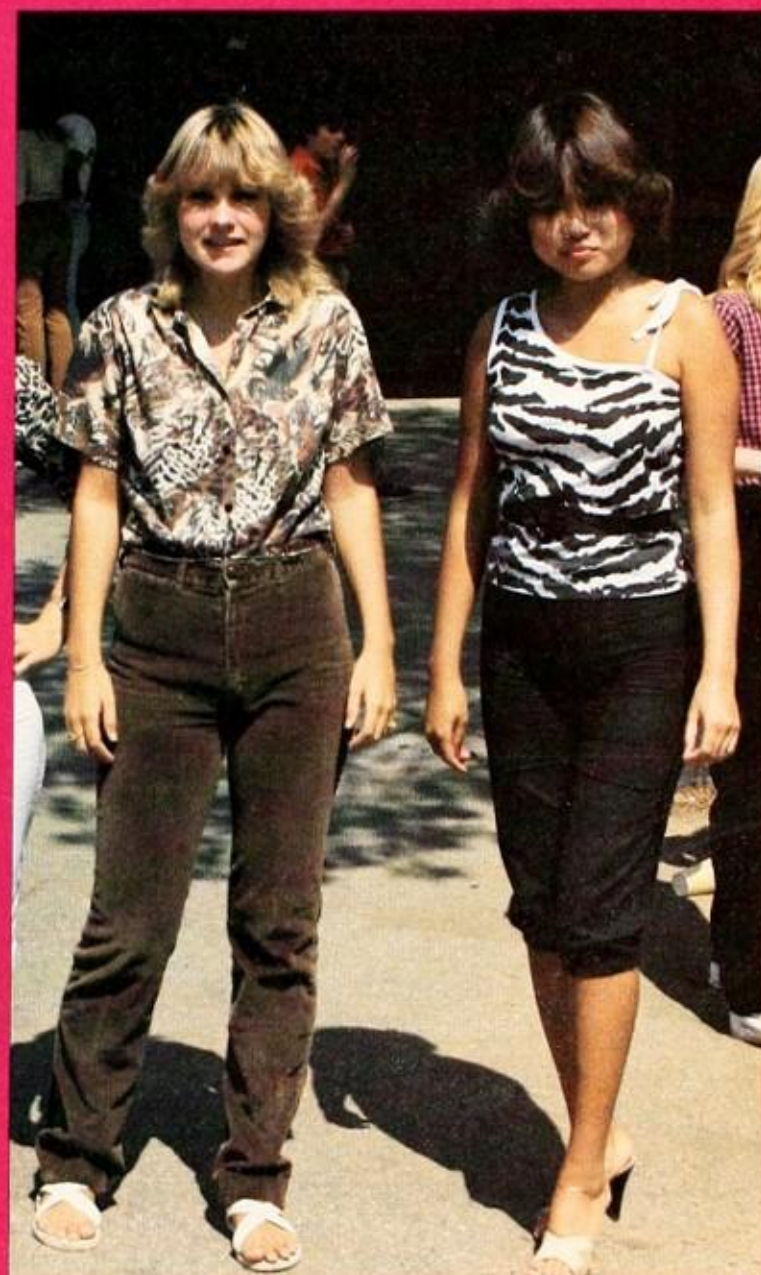

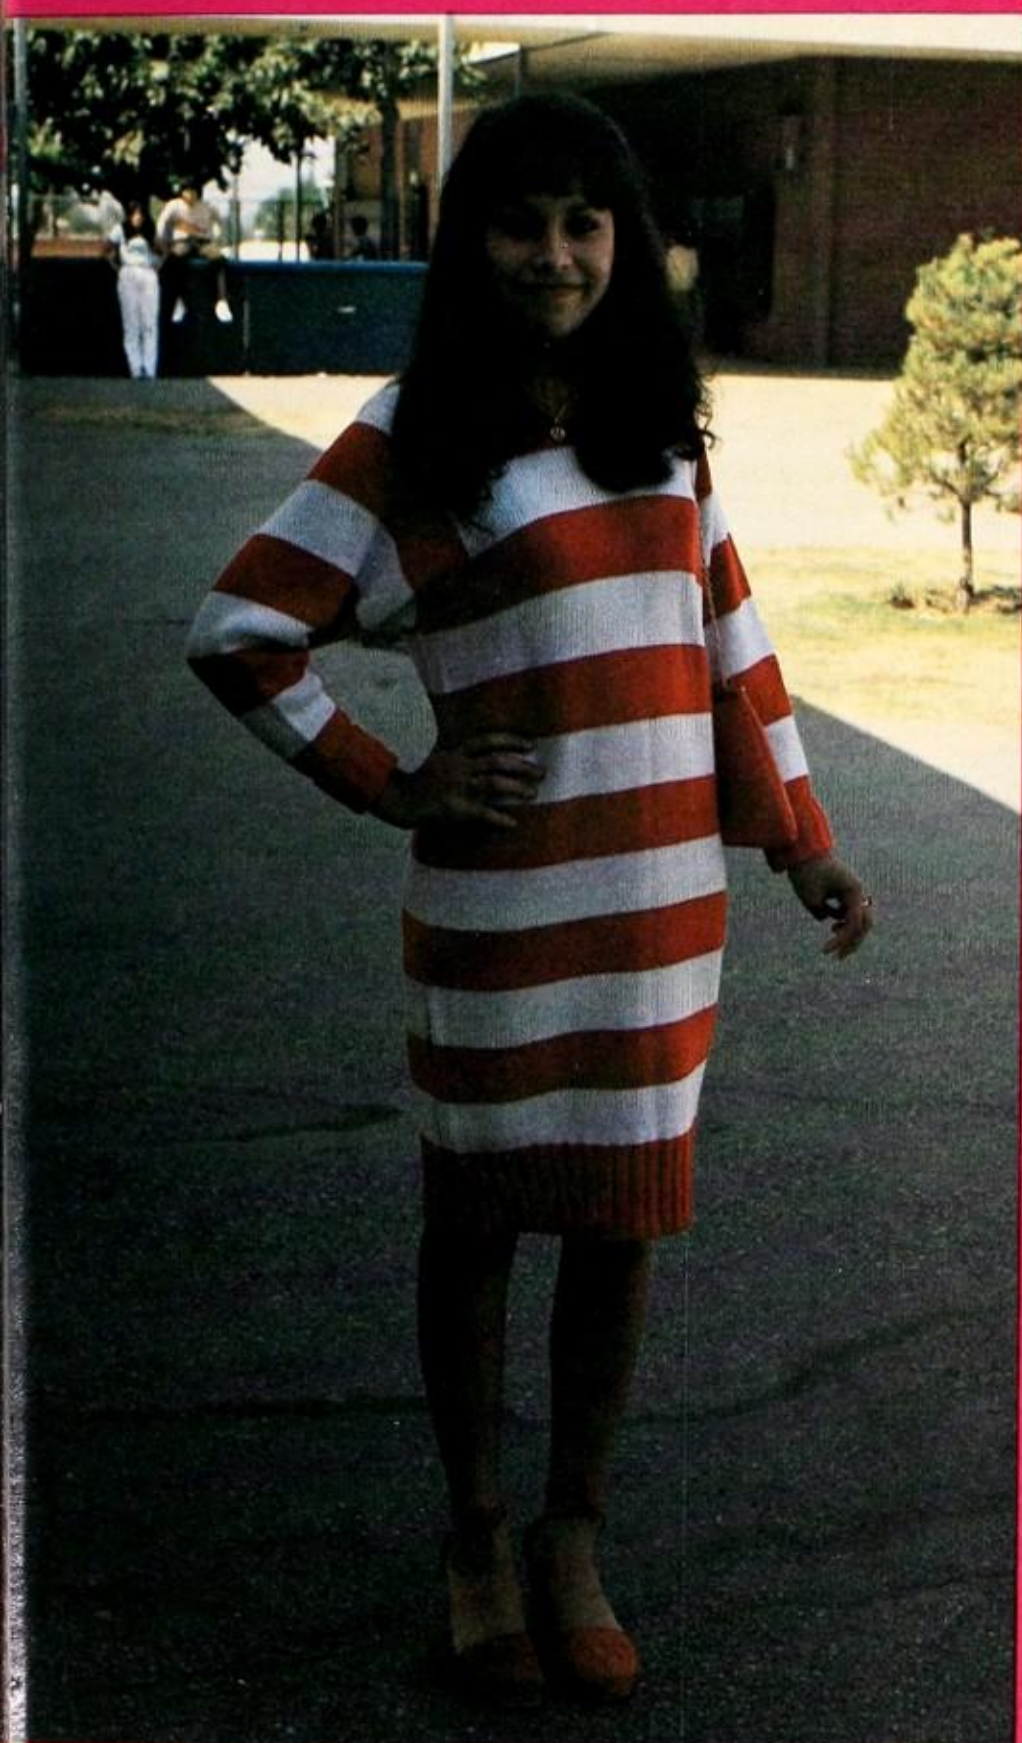

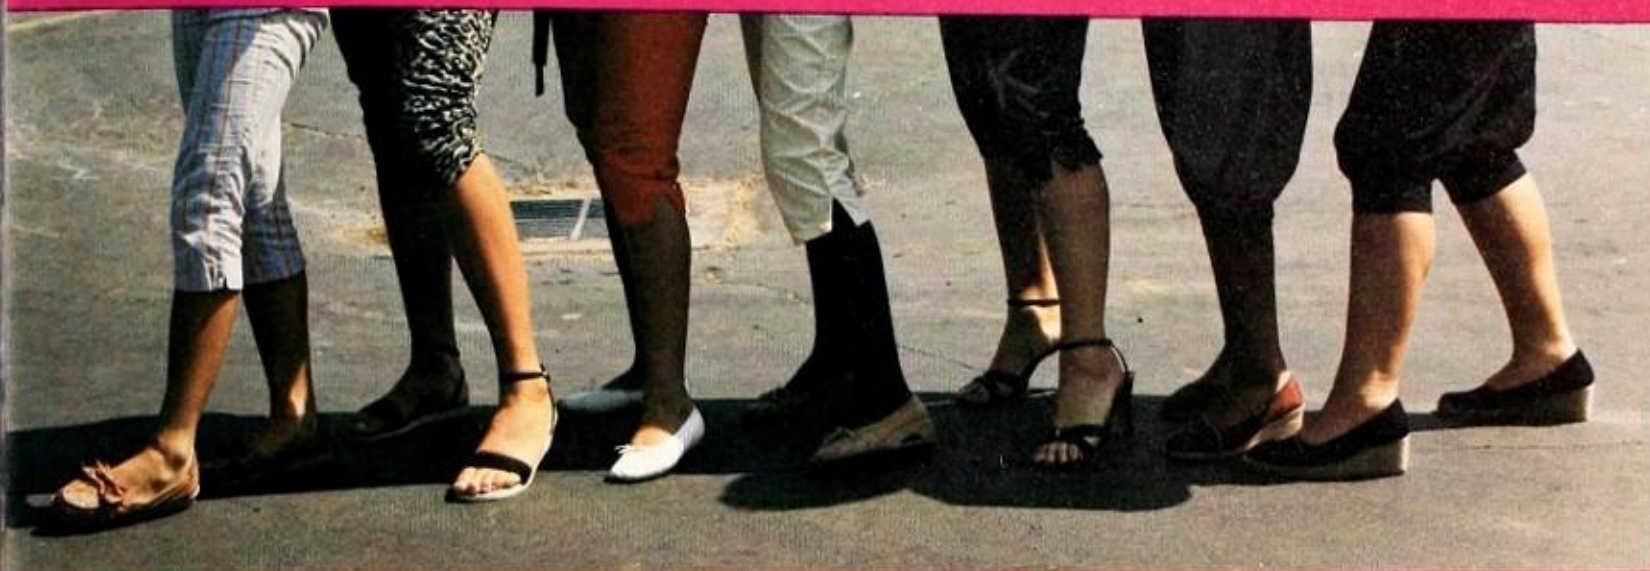

Of course, not everyone dressed to achieve a dramatic effect. Many girls continued to wear designer jeans, wool skirts and sweaters, or anything else they enjoyed in the past, updating their outfits with current accessories. Many boys stayed with OP's and Levis, leaving the experimenting to the few dashing rebels.

Those who decided to go all out and be different really colored the campus in unique ways. Red and black stripes were everywhere; metallic shoes radiated from under Khaki knickers; and jungle creatures and leaves could be found clustered on unsuspecting shirts.

The ultimate color splash, however, had to have been the spectrum of Izod, Polo, and Le Tigre shirts, which were the only fad items possessed by 90% of the Raider population.

All styles and colors taken into account, it seems fair to say that fashion ideas this year were very enigmatic indeed, but if the reason behind the trends are considered, the results aren't really that surprising. After all, what's so puzzling about wanting to express individuality through clothing? People have been doing it for years.

Nearly every morning at 7:00 A.M. Jose Salviati can be found bending over his drawing board, working on his project for an animation class he takes. Jose has worked on over 20 films and has completed four films by himself in this class. "I love to draw. I took the class in the 8th grade and have been in it ever since."

Jose has entered one film in a contest and won honorable mention. The film called "The Stripper" is about a banana, of course. He is currently working on a Los Angeles Bicentennial film, which he hopes to complete before the end of the year. He is planning to submit this film to every contest he can find. If the film is successful, he plans to continue with animation as a career.

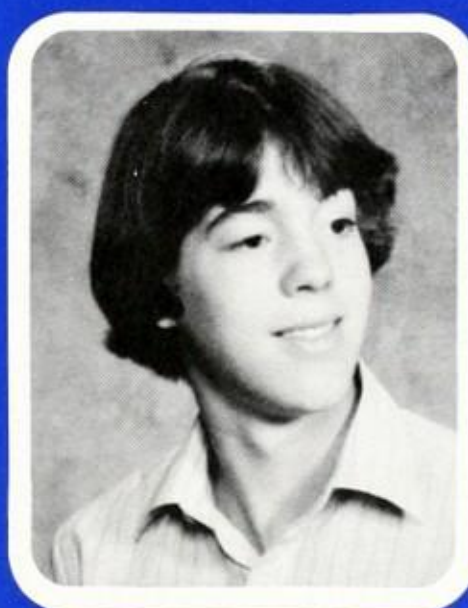

Jose is still a citizen of Argentina and must report in January, 1983, to serve one year in the Argentina army. After that he plans on returning to America. "Argentina is a nice place to visit. My relatives are there and the food is great, but the economy is terrible. There are no opportunities for me in Argentina."

Becoming a semi-finalist for the National Merit Scholarship came as quite a surprise to Kim Ball, a senior who is currently planning on a career in business. "I really didn't try that hard on the PSAT test." Now, however, she is planning on working very hard on passing the SAT and becoming a finalist in the competition.

Kim has found that even being a semi-finalist in the competition has opened many doors. Colleges have become interested in her, and she even attended a special day at USC for semi-finalists. She feels that her scores will enable her to be more selective of the college she will attend next year.

Kim has always kept busy with a variety of activities. She has worked on ASB for three years and feels that it is a very worthwhile activity to do. She is also on the Senior Council and takes an ROP class in banking. While she has very little time for activities after school. Kim does enjoy horseback riding. She has an Arabian gelding, but because of limited riding space, she has shipped the horse to Oregon to the ranch her parents have purchased.

Kim has enjoyed Rowland High School. While she has enjoyed getting involved in the activities, Kim also feels her teachers have set a very high standard that she has had to meet. When asked how she feels as a senior, she replied: "The best part of being a senior is knowing people and gaining self-assurance".

From the time Darryl Tidwell was little, he had dreamed of becoming a commercial airplane pilot. This all changed during his freshmen year at Rowland.

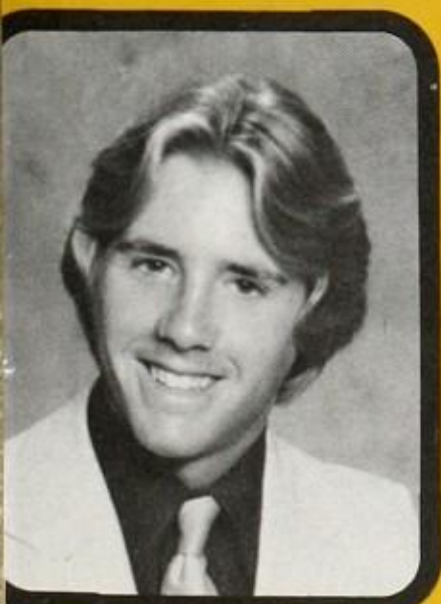

His interest in drama came about after a chance remark by Coach Brown after Darryl had read a passage in class one day. Coach Brown asked Darryl if he had drama and if not, thought he should give it a try. Darryl did and has loved every moment of it since.

After Coach Brown's remark, Darryl tried out for a part in Curious Savage. He won the role of Hannibal, a role that he calls his favorite. He has since performed in six school productions, playing parts from comedy to very serious. He also sang in the production of Oliver, but feels his voice is not adequate for singing. He is currently taking dancing lessons which he feels will make him a more rounded performer. He has not always received support from his sports-minded family, but he feels his dancing and acting are far more physically exacting than sports.

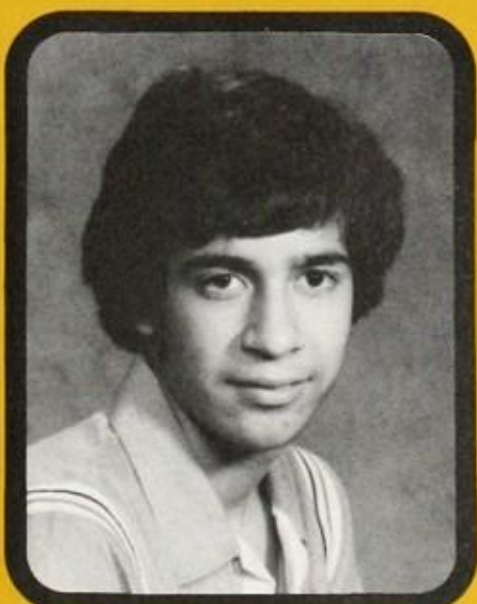

Darryl stated that school is what a student makes it, and he has found it to be a great experience. He carries a 3.2 GPA, with psychology and history being his favorite subjects. He is also president of the Thespians on campus and became vice-president of the state chapter his senior year. He plans on attending Whittier College, majoring in Theatre Arts. Eventually he wants to act in stage performances; however, he stated, "I'll take whatever I can get."

DO I PUZZLE OVER EMOTIONS?

You and I Together

A moving emotion
Flowing as a current - to and fro.
Misunderstood by others;
Not even we understand.

No one word can describe it,
Even love so insufficient-
We long to share together
Everything we have to give.

Different from all others are we,
Young and afraid.
No responsibilities wanted-
No responsibilities shared.

Can this emotion shared
Be explained in one meaningful word?
Yet we alone understand
When "I love you" is said.

Sheryl Van Hulzen

Balancing

Can you see me—am I here?
Can you feel me—am I near?
Was there a yesterday—
or was that a dream?

Can you help me please?
I've lost my way.
The balance is shifting;
I'm falling away.

Tomorrow may come
But it won't come for me
For today I'll be leaving
... Oh why can't you see?

Please won't you help me
I'm falling away
The balance is shifting
I'm so afraid.

Am I still here
Am I still near
The balance is shifting...
The balance gave way.

As I look into the mirror
I see sultry eyes
I see a gentle outline,

The face of an inexperienced
youth,
Being guided through life with many intense moments,
Which lead to many errors.

As I look into the mirror
I see anger
I see a suppressed smile

The face of pain and strife,
Trying to change the errors of the past and make the present run smoothly.

As I look into the mirror
I see beauty
I see shiny hair

I now see a willing smile
A face of color and brightness Rapidly changing . . .

Passages

The saying "Just another face in the crowd" cannot apply to Tom Mortimer. Tom, who measures 6'8", will always be "A face above the crowd".

Tom has always felt his height has been an advantage in sports. He played football for two years, playing on the varsity team when he was a Sophomore. He quit playing football, however, stating:

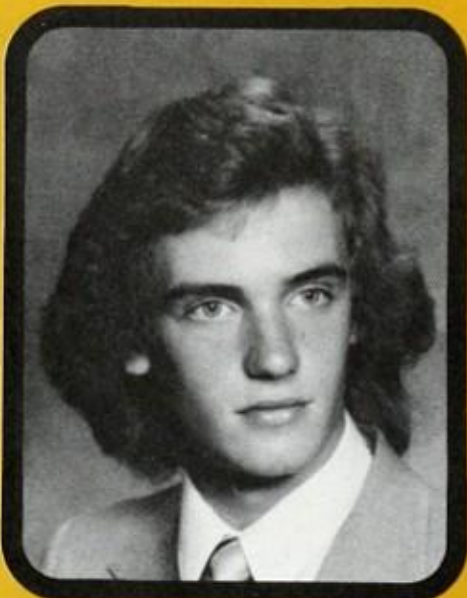

"It's too dangerous." His interest in basketball began in the 7th grade, and he has played on the varsity team for three years. Tom is not only very tall, but very agile also, an asset necessary for basketball. Because of his ability, he has been approached by several colleges that are interested in him.

When asked if his height ever hinders him, he said, "Yes." Driving new, smaller cars is one; being stared at while standing in line is another; and having to wait six months to get a pair of Levis that fit is yet another.

Tom feels very strongly about school. School comes first and other activities second. "A great deal of credit goes to the teachers at Rowland for changing my attitude towards school, thus, changing my life. They made school important to me." His main goal is to obtain a degree in Business Management and go into the family business. He did state, however, that if the opportunity arose for him to play some professional basketball, he would.

Drawing has always been an important part of Richard Ballhagen's life. "I have drawn as long as I can remember. "Richard is one of Mr. Anderson's outstanding students.

While cartooning was once Richard's favorite form of art, he now leans towards pen and ink, pencil sketches, and pastels. At the present time he is working in pastels. While he paints a wide variety of subjects, he said that he has always found the human form interesting to reproduce in his work.

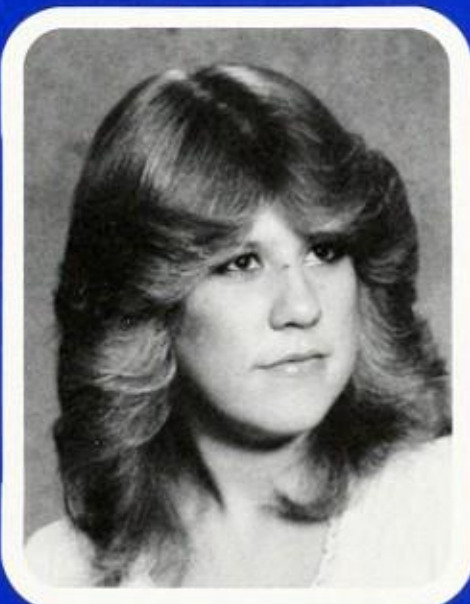

Richard has been recognized for his artistic abilities several times. He has received Certificate of Achievements in his sophomore and junior years, and last year he won the McDonald Award and the Certificate of Achievement for his work. He has entered his work in various contests in the area and received an Honorable Mention for his painting of an old house. In this painting he used pen and ink and pastels. The house was done in light orange with a bit of yellow with detail in ink.

Richard has found painting to be a very rewarding experience. "Many times I am able to work through my problems by painting . . ." He also has very high praise for his art teacher, Mr. Anderson. He stated that Mr. Anderson has expanded his knowledge of art and made him more aware of what he is doing. —"He has taught me to be an artist."

While Richard is unsure if he will be able to make his living as an artist, he stated, "I will definitely use it as a hobby."

Soo Shin has found the ability to speak several languages a rewarding asset to have. Her command of the German language provided her opportunity to study in Germany last summer.

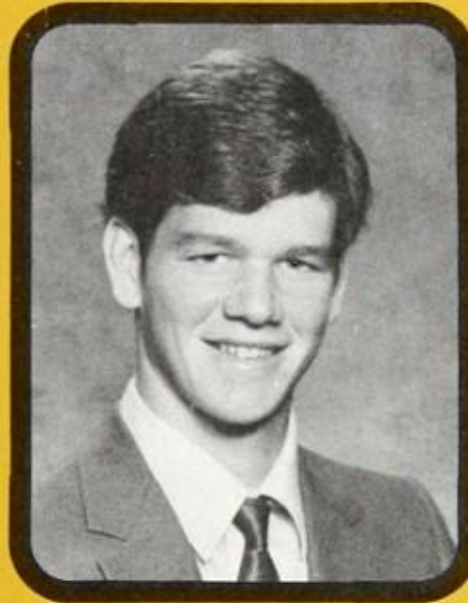

Soo Shin was born in Seoul, Korea, long after the Korean War had ended. She was eleven years old when her family immigrated to America. She said the differences between the United States and Korea are vast. "We eat more here and live more comfortably." She also stated that most Koreans feel that Korea has no future. "There is always the fear of war in Korea, such as in the 1950's."

Soo Shin spent a month in Germany as a guest of the German government. She won the chance to go over hundreds of other students. The finalists were chosen after writing an essay in German. "The competition was fierce."

While there, Soo stayed with a German family, studied at a German school, and toured various places. The highlight of her trip was a visit to East Berlin, where, she stated, "The vast difference between East and West was clearly visible."

Soo hopes to go into Computer Science as a career. She then plans on returning to Korea to teach for a while, but she will return. "America is now my home."

SENIOR REC. NIGHT . . .

1. Flying paper airplanes-at their age? 2. Jeanne Payne-She's got the beat! 3. The Four Muskateers-Kiho Choi, Rick Hernandez, Jim Williams, and Tuey Thompson. 4. Donna Bybee will knock over anyone to get where she's going.

"Life (that little period that exists between birth and death) is a puzzle-ment," said the King of Siam. It is compounded of segments known as time that rush quickly by and disappear somewhere - no one knows where. And all that is left of time-past is lodged safely in my mind.

As I sit at my desk waiting for time to pass, I realize how quickly the last four years have gone. I reflect on the growth that has occurred within my classmates and myself. I've gained abundant amounts of knowledge and self assurance since the first day of high school. I recall how afraid I was at the beginning. The vastness of the school and its atmosphere overwhelmed and yet excited me at the same time.

As time passed, adjustment came. I was still excited, but not overwhelmed. My Sophomore and Junior years passed by in a blur, leaving few standout memories, but much growth.

My senior year was by far the most memorable segment of time, but passed the most quickly. How sad - the last rally, the last football game, the last dance, and the last hurried lunch on the mall.

As I glance at the clock on the wall, I see that the hands have moved again. I get up, fasten my gown, walk to the mirror, and adjust my cap. I take one last look, for once again time has passed, and another segment has fallen into place. I say a last goodbye, knowing that time past will live forever in the recesses of my mind.

MANY UNEXPECTED CHANGES . . .

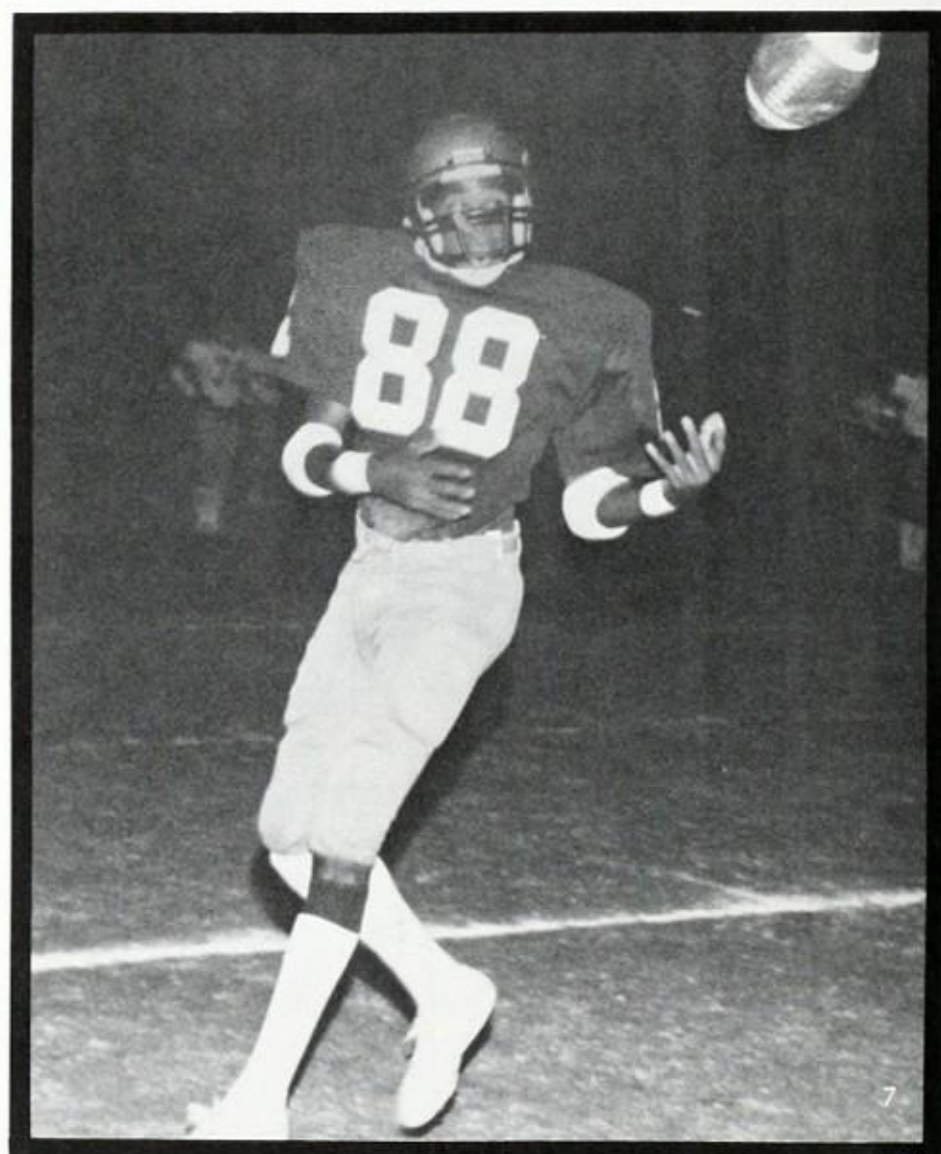

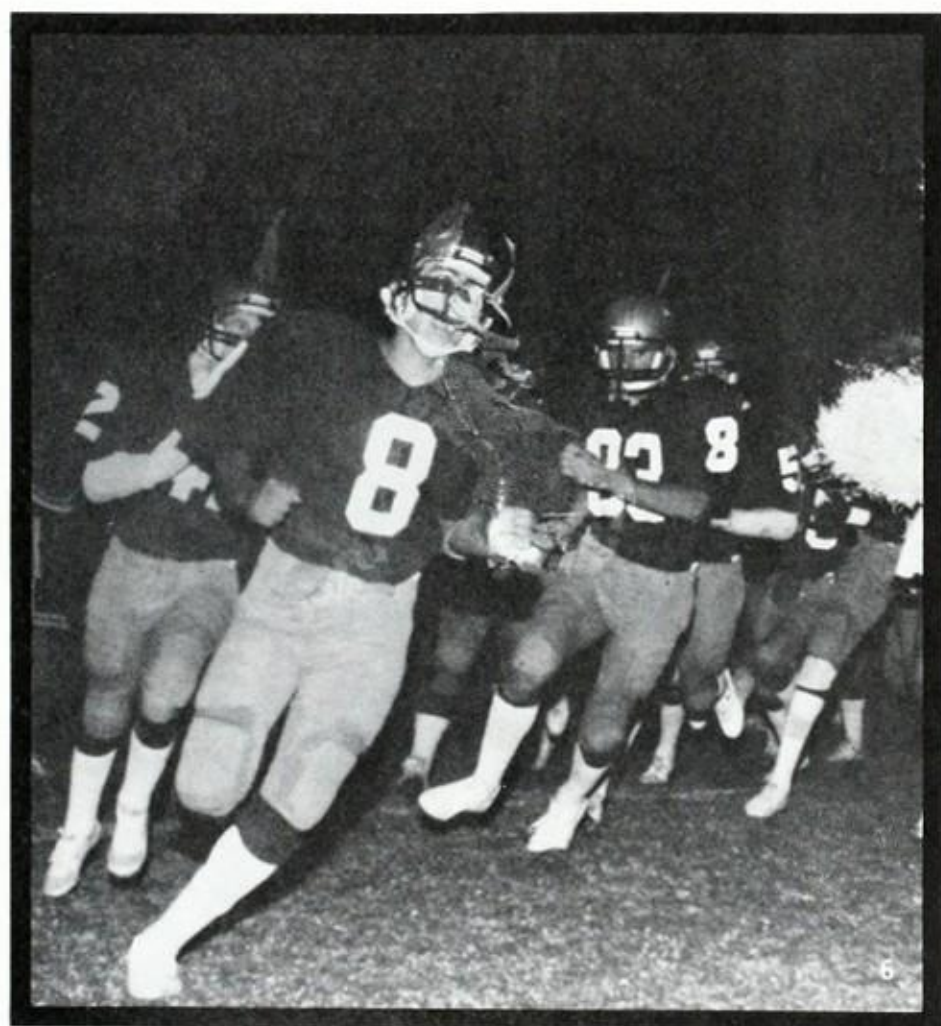

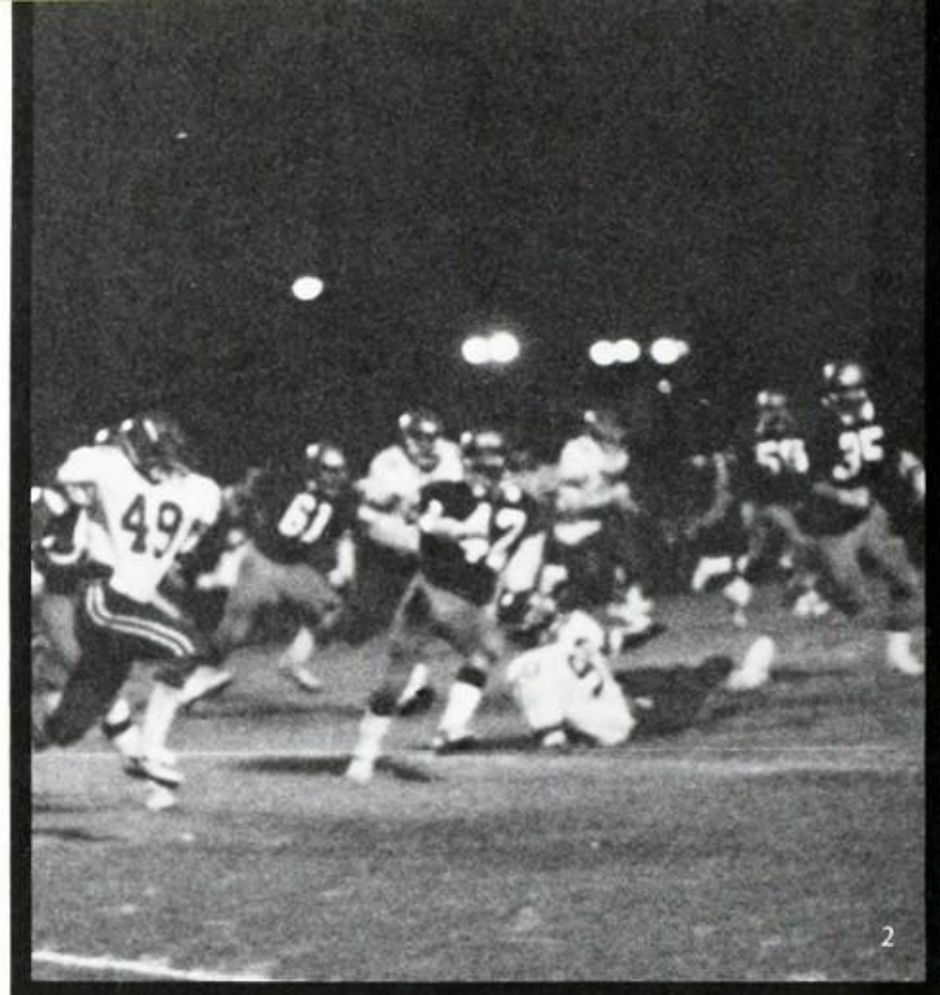

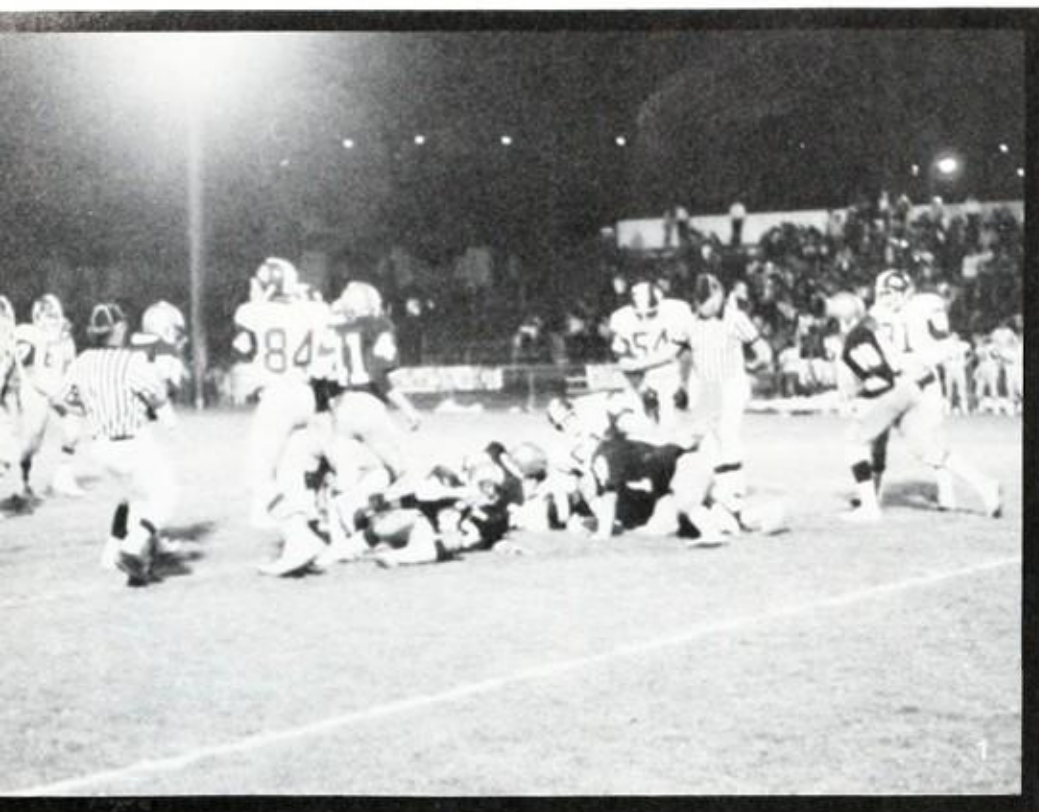

This year's football season brought many unexpected changes. While the returning coaching staff led the team through the first part of the season, the last three games were led by a new coaching staff. Coach Killingsworth was requested to resign due to several irregularities in following CIF rules and regulations. To express indignation over the requested resignation, coaches Bet-tar, Olay and Drake also resigned. Brad Manning, however, felt that the team deserved better treatment and elected to stay on and coach the remainder of the season. Coach Manning stated that even though the team lost all league games, they still had class. Their handling of problems both on and off the field was praise worthy. They played with a "Never Say Die" attitude and held on to the Raider Spirit in the face of great odds. "It was a pleasure to work with this team, because their team spirit and pride is what athletics is all about."

NO HOME COURT . . .

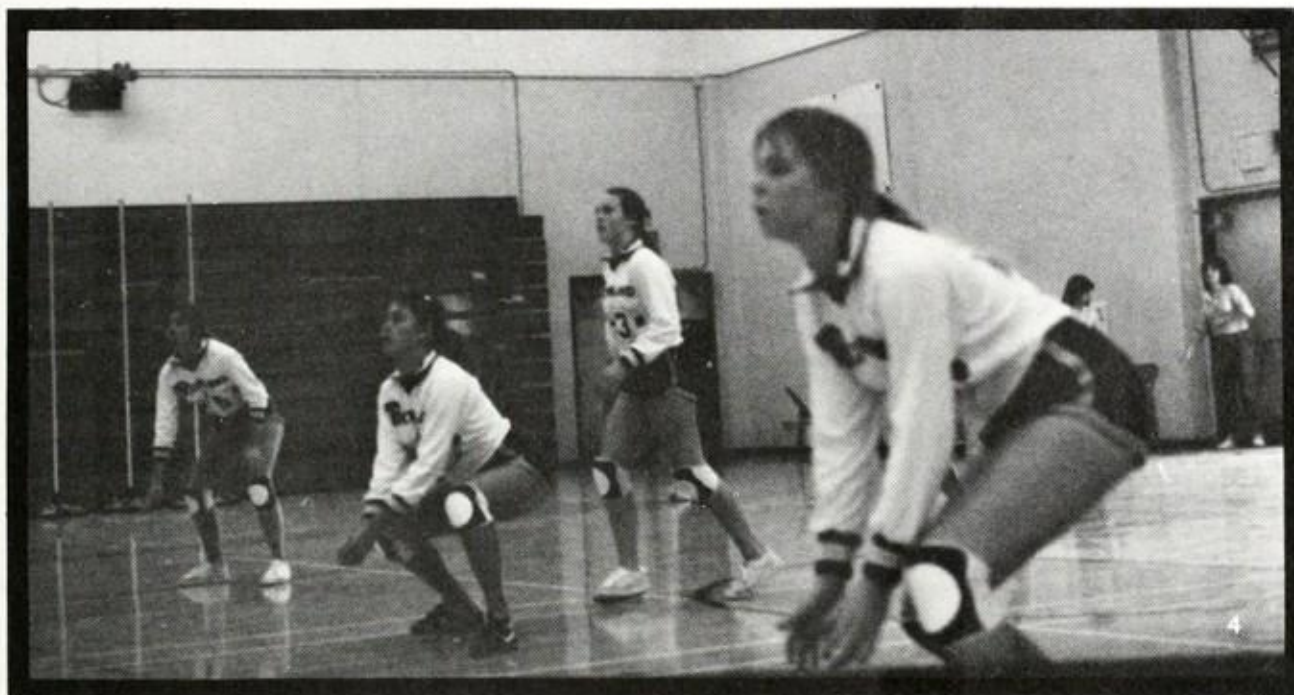

Because there was no home court during volleyball season, the volleyball team had to practice on the Quad and play the entire season away. However, they overcame these hardships and made it to the playoffs. Prior to the regular season the team played in the El Camino and La Puente tournaments. They made the consolation finals in the La Puente Tournament. During the league season their record was 8 wins and 7 losses. They placed third in CIF playoffs, but lost three straight to Louisville, the CIF Champions. Barrie Ebenkamp was named to the All League 1st. team, while Cindy Morrell and Debra Gruner were named to All League 2nd. team. Most Valuable Player award went to Cindy Morrell and Barrie Ebenkamp. The Coaches award went to Linda Barajas, and Connie Peregretti was named Most Improved. Coach Stewart stated: "With only two seniors on the team this year, next year should be great."

To Eric, I feel that you are a really sweet guy. I hope to see you next year and we become much closer. I really enjoy your company because you make me laugh. Anyway have a Bitchen Summer.

Love Always
Kenzie

Although they tried and tried to win a match this year, the Girls Varsity Tennis Team came up short everytime. They played a competitive game and were strong in some areas, but no matter how hard they tried, they couldn't seem to win a match. The most disappointing loss was to Walnut, a team they would like most to beat. "We would like to bump them off their throne," commented Jeanne Koerner, the coach. Mrs. Koerner enjoyed the team for no matter the situation, the girls retained their good spirits. The Most Valuable players on the team this year were Wendy Portillo and Stacy Marquez, and the Most Improved players were Diane Bencomo and Lily Lemos. All was not bleak in tennis; however, for the Girls Jr. Varsity team placed third in the league. Congratulations.

The most exciting game for the Rowland Varsity Waterpolo team was a game they played against Los Altos and lost. They lost in a sudden death overtime 12-13. This loss placed the team in 3rd place for the Sierra League Championship. The team effort in this game, however, was the best ever. Coach Hale said, "This team had the best attitude of any team I've ever coached. They also improved the most." He noted further, "This team's overall attitude as a whole was never let down-never quit." Outstanding players on the team were: Jim Riutta, Most Valuable Player; Tom Young, Most Improved; Gary Grey, Most Inspirational; and Darren Blankenship, Most Dedicated. The JV Waterpolo team finished the year with 14 wins and 4 losses, tying for league champs with Wilson. Tom Losonsky was named the Most Valuable Player on the JV team.

SIERRA LEAGUE CHAMPS . . .

This year's Boys Cross Country team proved to be one of the most outstanding teams in the history of Rowland High School. It won more awards and had more people placed on honor teams than any previous year; the most important was being Sierra League Champions. Steve Perez, an outstanding runner, was named to the All-Valley 1st Team and received the All-Valley Leather Luger Award. Alberto Espinoza, Kenny Gallardo and Dennis Whitewere named to the All-Valley 2nd Team. The Girls Varsity Team also did an outstanding job this year. They finished second in the league. Cindy Hays and Erin Eicher were named to the All-Valley 1st Team, while Desiree Flores, Karen Gorman and Renee Nakayama were named to the All-Valley 2nd Team. Jim Brown who coaches both the boys and the girls teams led a very talented group of athletes this year. He stated: "I am just overly pleased with the complete team success and the overall attitude of the boys and girls."

COVINA IS HIGHPOINT . . .

The highpoint of this year's Varsity Basketball season was capturing the championship at the Covina Tournament in mid-season. Prior to the tournament the team had been playing average ball, but something came together at Covina, and the team performed almost faultlessly. The most outstanding game was the 49-47 victory over Los Altos. The last part of the season, however, proved disastrous, as the team lost their last four games. Their overall league record was 2 wins and 8 losses. Coach Stevenson said the comradery that was shown between team members was outstanding. "Even though we didn't win as many games as we wanted, the players were always a pleasure to be around." Even though their record was poor, there were several outstanding performers on the team. Most Outstanding Player award this year went to Tom Mortimer, who also captured the Most Valuable Player award at the Covina Tournament. Eddie Dominquez and Todd Gudger also received awards at the Covina Tournament. Most Improved player awards this year went to Todd Gudger and Richard Martinez.

The good balanced team effort by the players of the Girls Varsity Basketball team propelled them into the CIF playoffs for the second year in a row. Diana Zigars, the varsity coach, stated: "It has been an outstanding season. We have achieved all the goals that we set for ourselves at the beginning of the season." One of those goals was to obtain a berth in the CIF. This goal was accomplished when the team tied for second in the league with a league record of 8 wins and 2 losses. The losses were to Walnut and Wilson. In the first round of CIF playoffs the girls were pitted against Bolsa Grande. This game almost brought the house down when Rowland edged Bolsa out by 1 point. This win placed Rowland in the second round of the playoffs. All of the girls contributed to a fine season, but the results would not have been as good without the efforts of the two girls who were chosen Most Valuable Players. These girls are Virginia Gonzales and Susan Geariety.

Mike Hernandez puts onto the green.

BY ONE STROKE . . .

Losing last year's league championship by one stroke made the golf team more determined than ever to win the league this year. Mr. Revis, the coach, stated: "There will be a very close race with Los Altos for the league championship this year." The team possesses many outstanding players. In the 1981 season the team won many awards and recognitions. Eris Meeks was league champion, placed 3rd in CIF, and placed 10th in the state overall. Aaron Meeks was league runner-up and placed 22nd in CIF. Rob Fernquist and Ken Ikari placed on the all league 2nd team. The most improved golfer on the team is Troy Leaming, while Mike Hernandez was the Most Valuable JV player last year. This year the team feels their additional experience will enable them to duplicate and improve on last year's successes.

OUTSTANDING PERFORMERS . . .

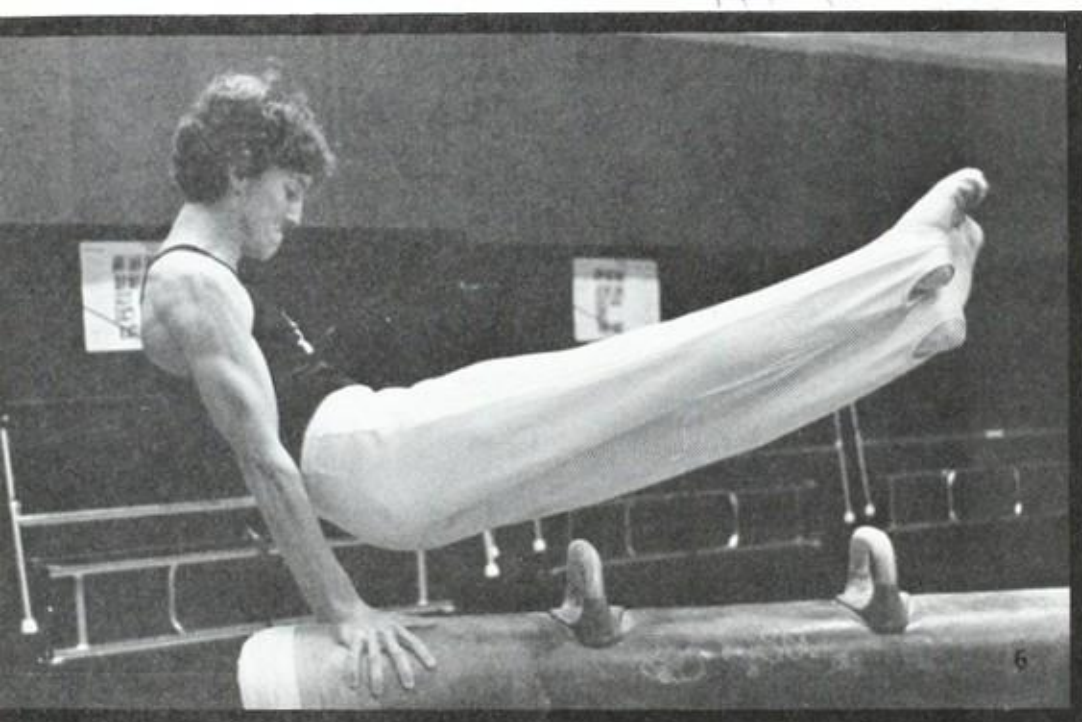

1-3. Andy Barta gets up onto the bar, preparing for a difficult maneuver, goes into a hand stand, and finally stoops into an Inlocated Giant. 4. Lowell Stanbaugh, an artist on the rings, does an L Cross. 7. Phil Silva does an L Lever on the parallel bars.

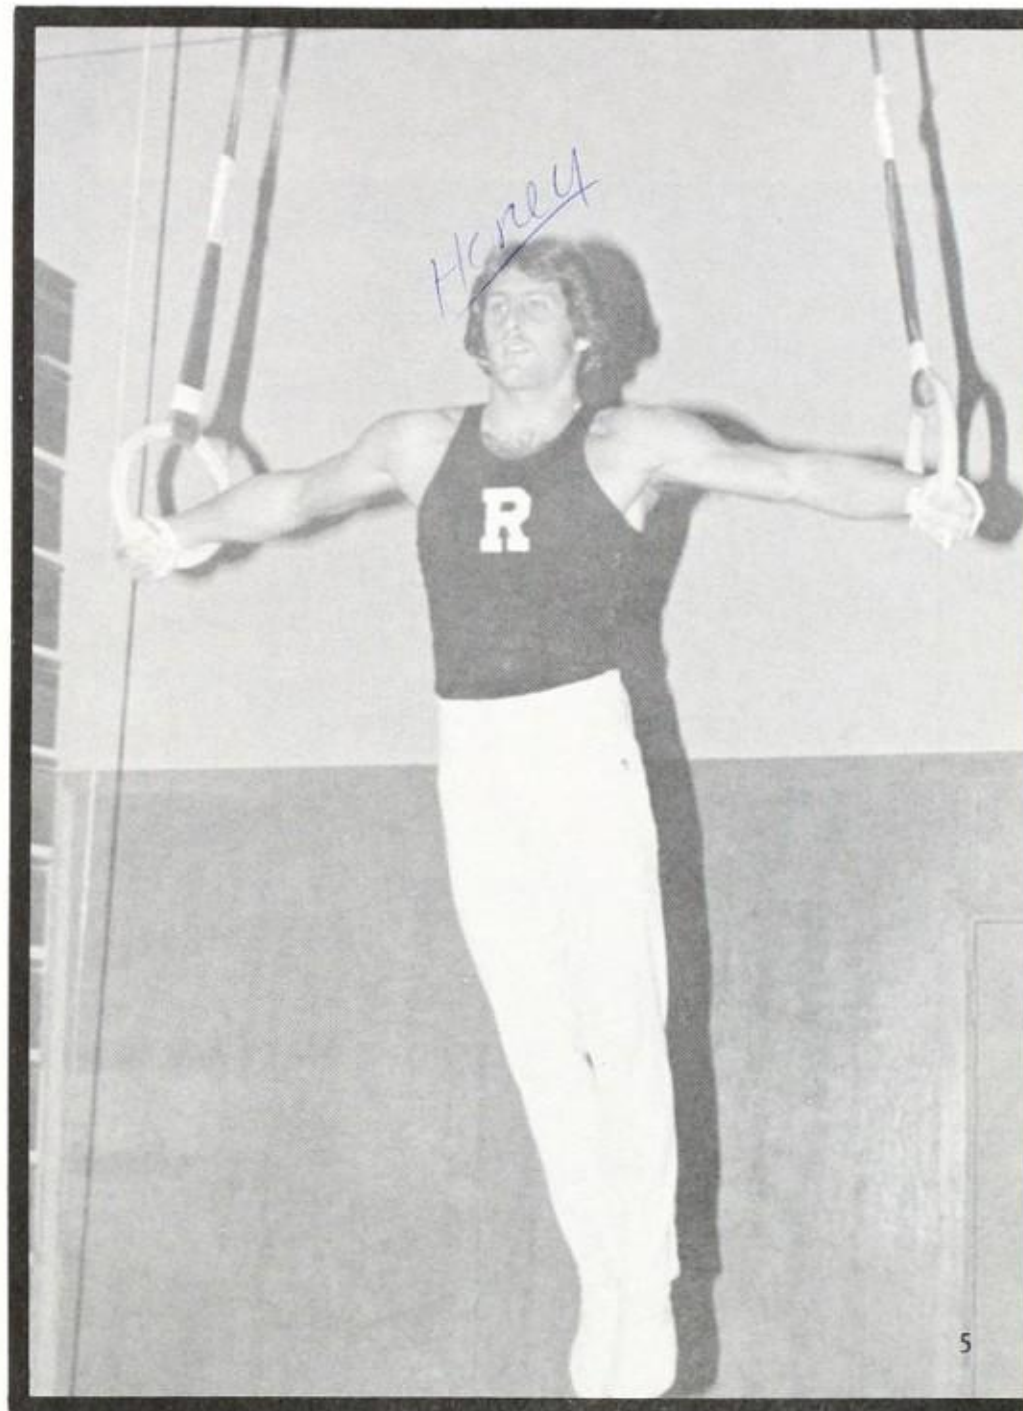

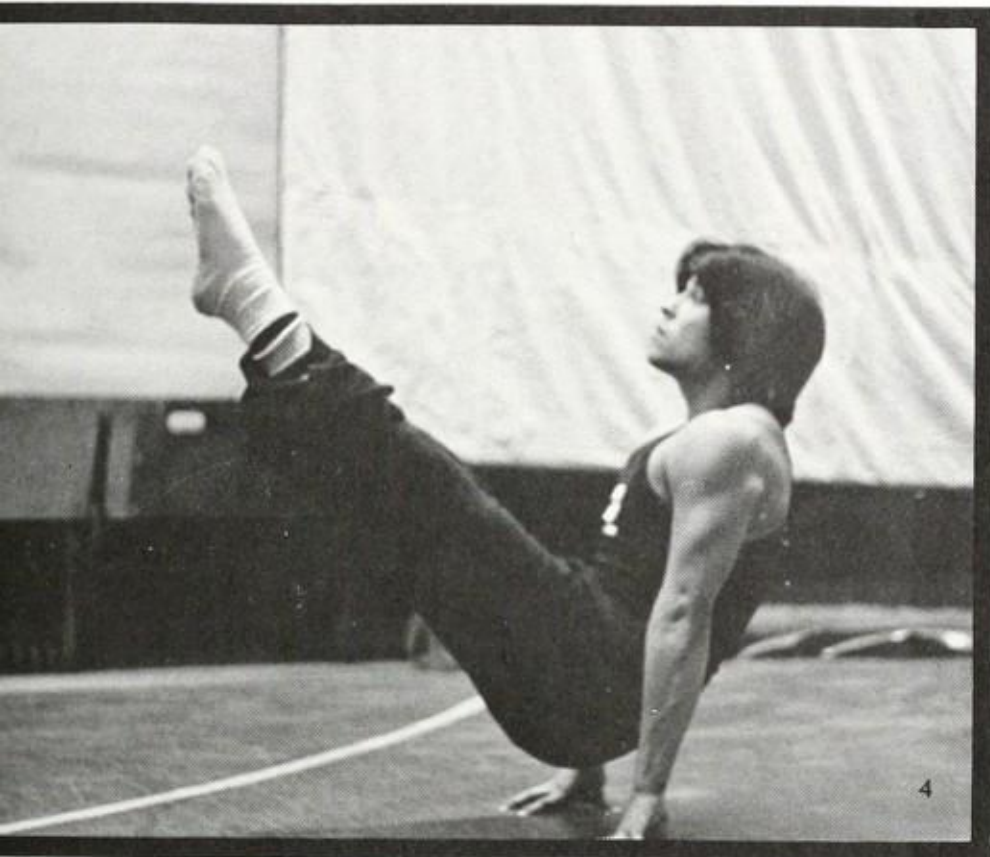

HINATA

Style and grace are two words that aptly describe Rowlands Gymnastic team. The team again, as in the last year, kept up their tradition of being strong contenders in both the Sierra League and the CIF. The team had seven returning competitors who did well this year: On the horse, Ken Mayhue; on the rings, Lowell Stanbaugh, John Rowland and Mike Mattes; on the parallel bars, Paul Peloso and Phil Silva; and on the horizontal bar, Andy Barta. This team brought many medals home to Rowland this year because of their outstanding individual performances.

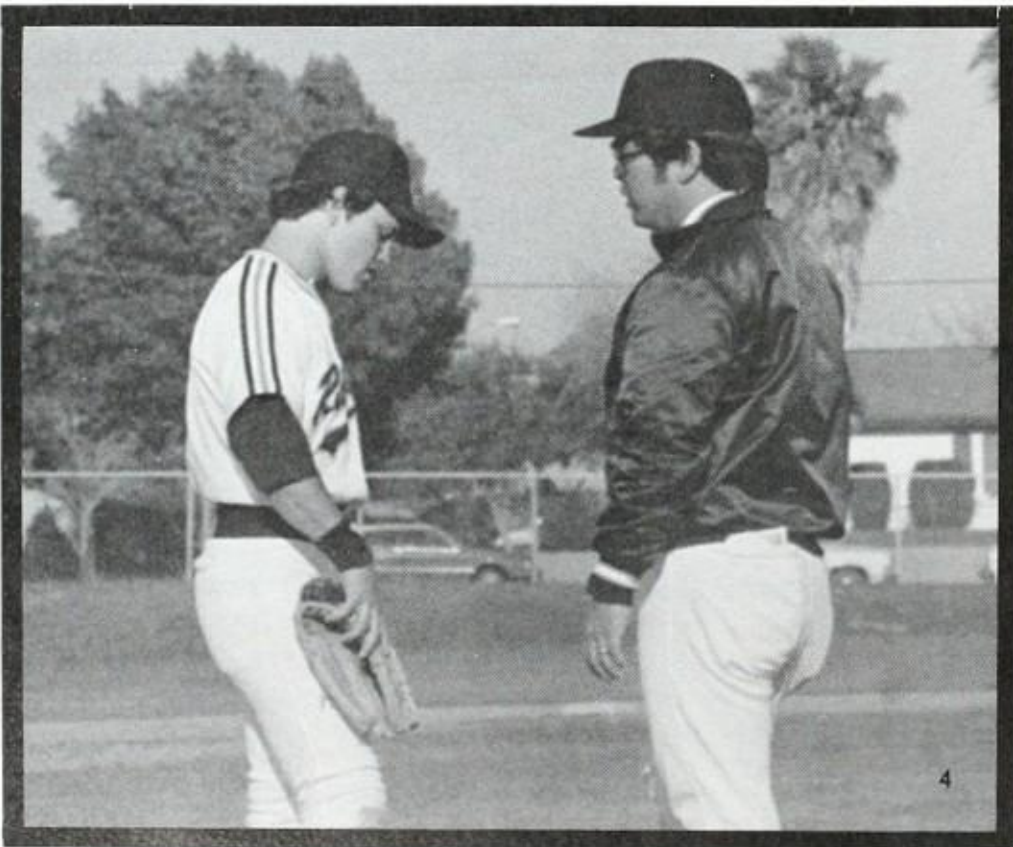

STYLE & GRACE . . .

1. Gymnastics JV Team: Row 1: Scott Ringwald, Lori Marshall, Helen Wilson, Marlene Miramon, Nita Curren, Linda Bryers and Theresa Cacuiccioto. Row 2: Bob Munger, Jim Metz, Kevin Sanchez, Greg Barnhart, Ed Bullen, Ruben Cedeno, Robert Bennett, Marcus Ariaz and Robby Silva. 2. A Scale isn't as easy as Suzy Haitzuka makes it seem. 3. John Rowland has mastered the L Lever on the rings. 4. Marcus Ariaz holds a V Lever for the count. 5. Mike Mattes performs an Iron Cross faultlessly. 6-8. Ken Mayhue, a master on the horse, performs a Loop and then goes into a Hop Scissor during his routine.

The best ever baseball team took the field for Rowland this year. Led by Andy Casana, Micah Embry, Craig Tippings, John Piazza, and Keith Sheppard, the team was a sure-thing to finish among the top three in league play. Part of the reason for the strength of the team had to have been the fact that only three players were lost to graduation last year. Because the team members were used to playing together, they functioned better as a team.

BEST EVER . . .

"RETURNING PLAYERS . . ."

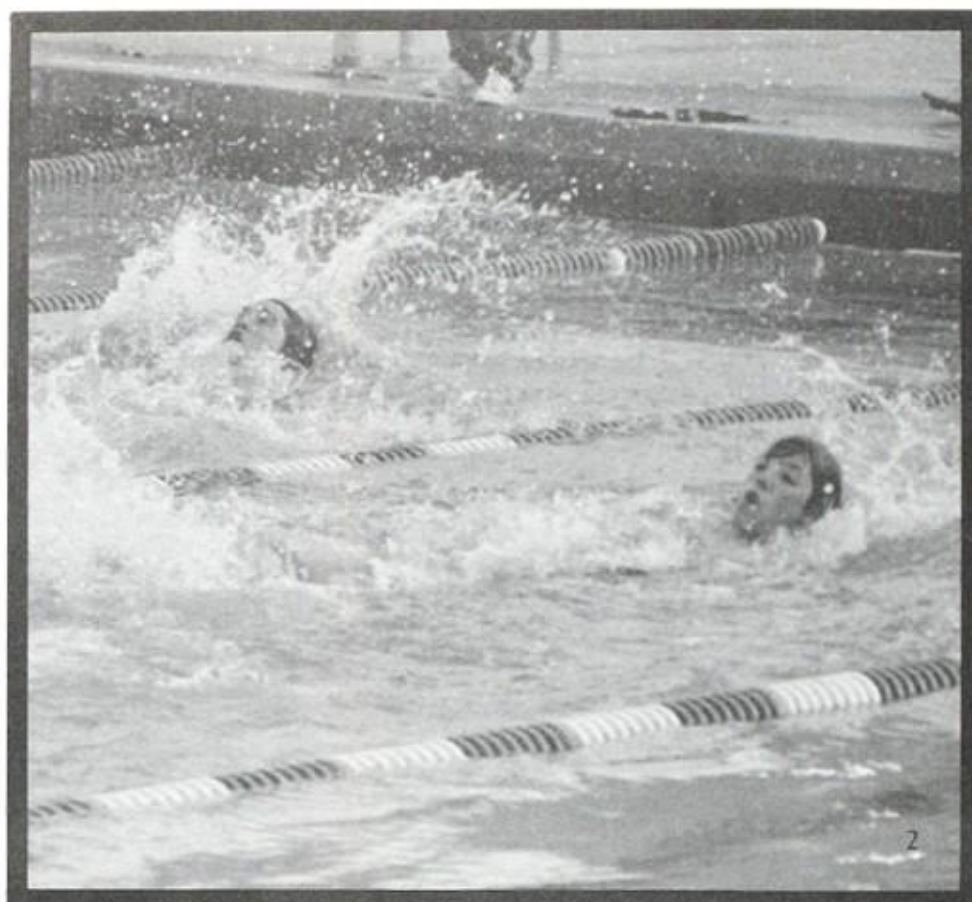

1. Debbie Gruner gets ready to swing. 2. Cindy Morrell makes the throw to first. 3. Erlinda Delgado pitches and the umpire called, "Strike 3!" 4. Jamie Carroll makes the out at first. 5. Coach Zigars must be pleased with her team. 6. Blowing Bubbles is an art to Karen Johnson. 7. JV Team: Row 1: Leslie Leon, Kim Husting, Yvette Aguilera and Jeanette Delgado. Row 2: Darlene Nelson, Kristina Quiroz, Marichu Magno, Tseday Abera, Theresa Coffey. Row 3: Linda Parmelee, Liz Holt, Debbie Smith, Shelly Hill, Lavender Kongaika. 8. Varsity: Row 1: Karen Johnson, Jamie Carroll, Connie Alvarez, Dawn Skinner. Row 2: Sandy Klapp, Cindy Morrell, Debbie Gruner, Erlinda Delgado, Alicia Gillis. Row 3: Cindy Parker, Sharon Chaney, Toni Scotto, Sheri Williams, Coach Diana Zigars.

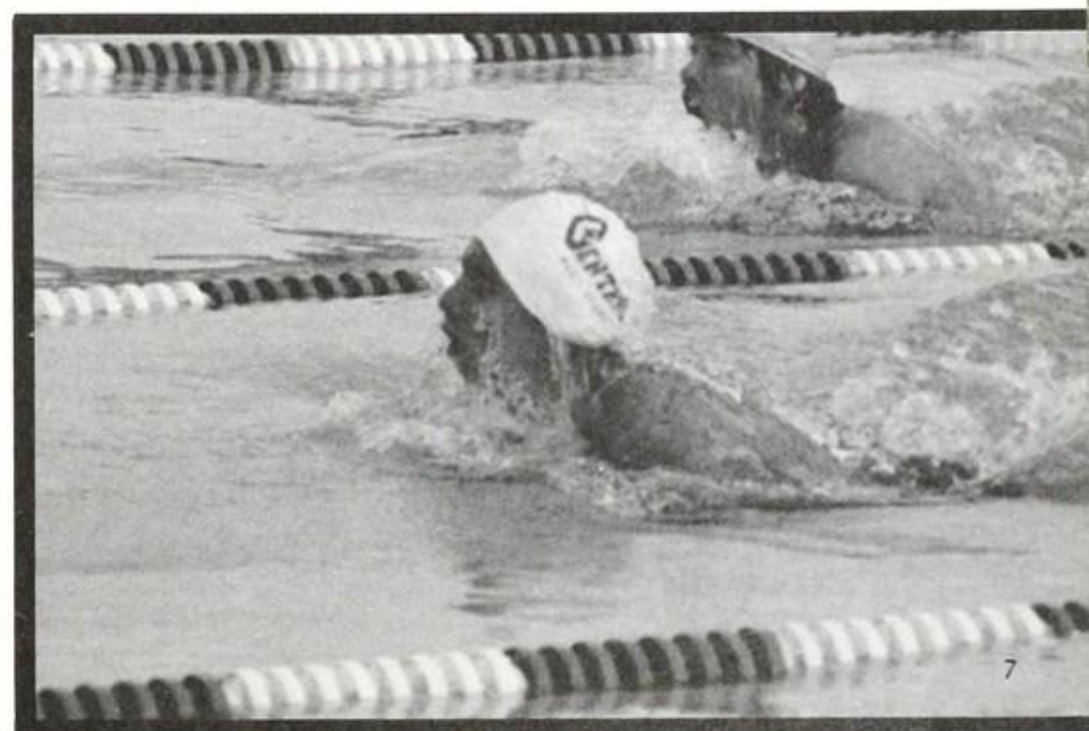

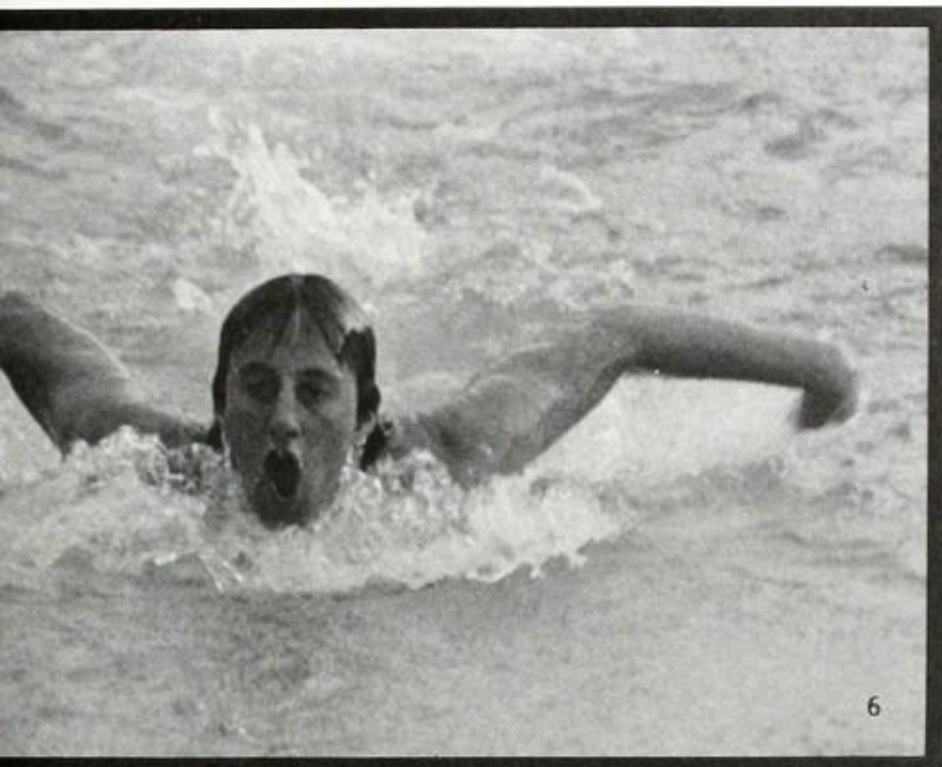

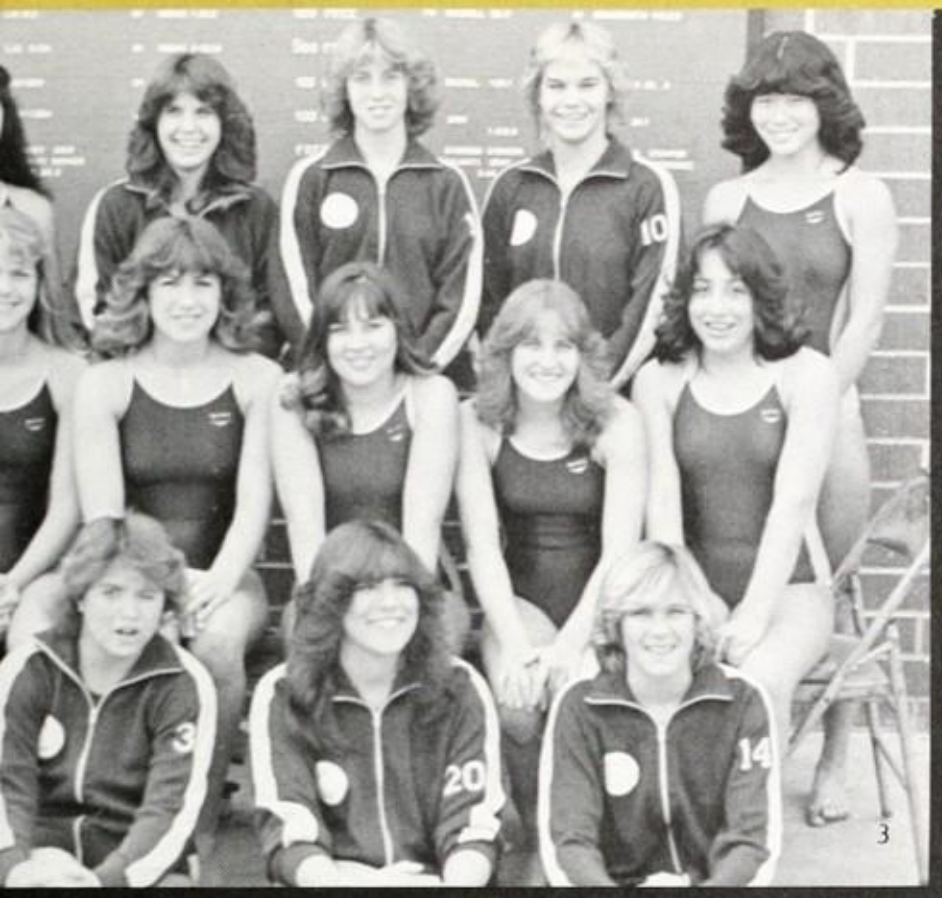

This year all returning players make up the Varsity Team. Prior to league play Coach Zigars stated: "Because of the teams experience we foresee our season as being very competitive with league placement being either 1st or 2nd." The team has a host of very adaptive players; among them are 3rd base, Sandy Klapp; short stop, Debbie Gruner; pitcher, and 2nd base, Erlinda Delgado; outfield, Sheri Williams; and 1st base and pitcher, Jamie Carroll. Sandy Klapp, Debbie Gruner, and Erlinda Delgado were all league players last year. Also this year the team has some new comer stand-outs. These are freshmen pitcher Connie Alvarez and junior infielder Dawn Stunner.

HIGH HOPES . . .

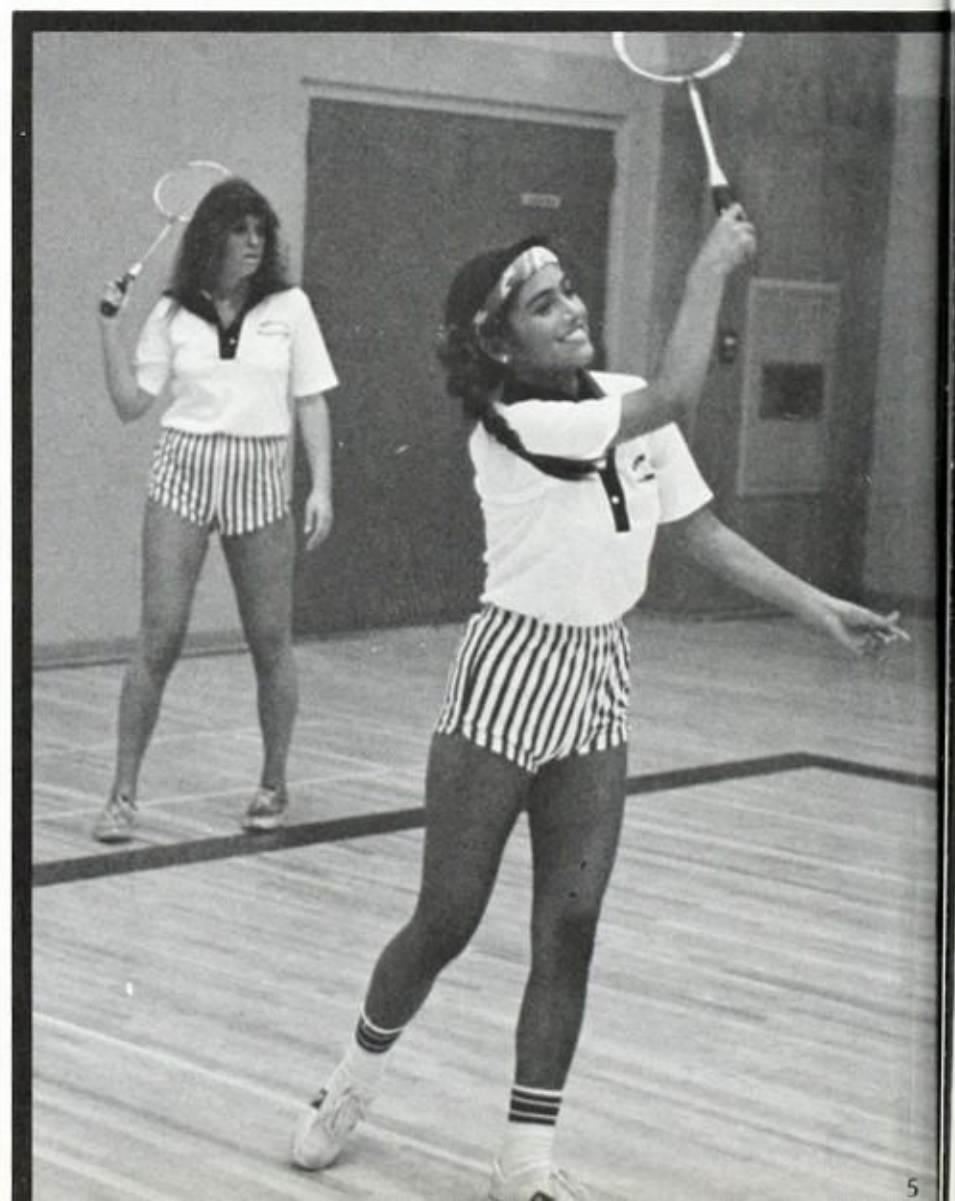

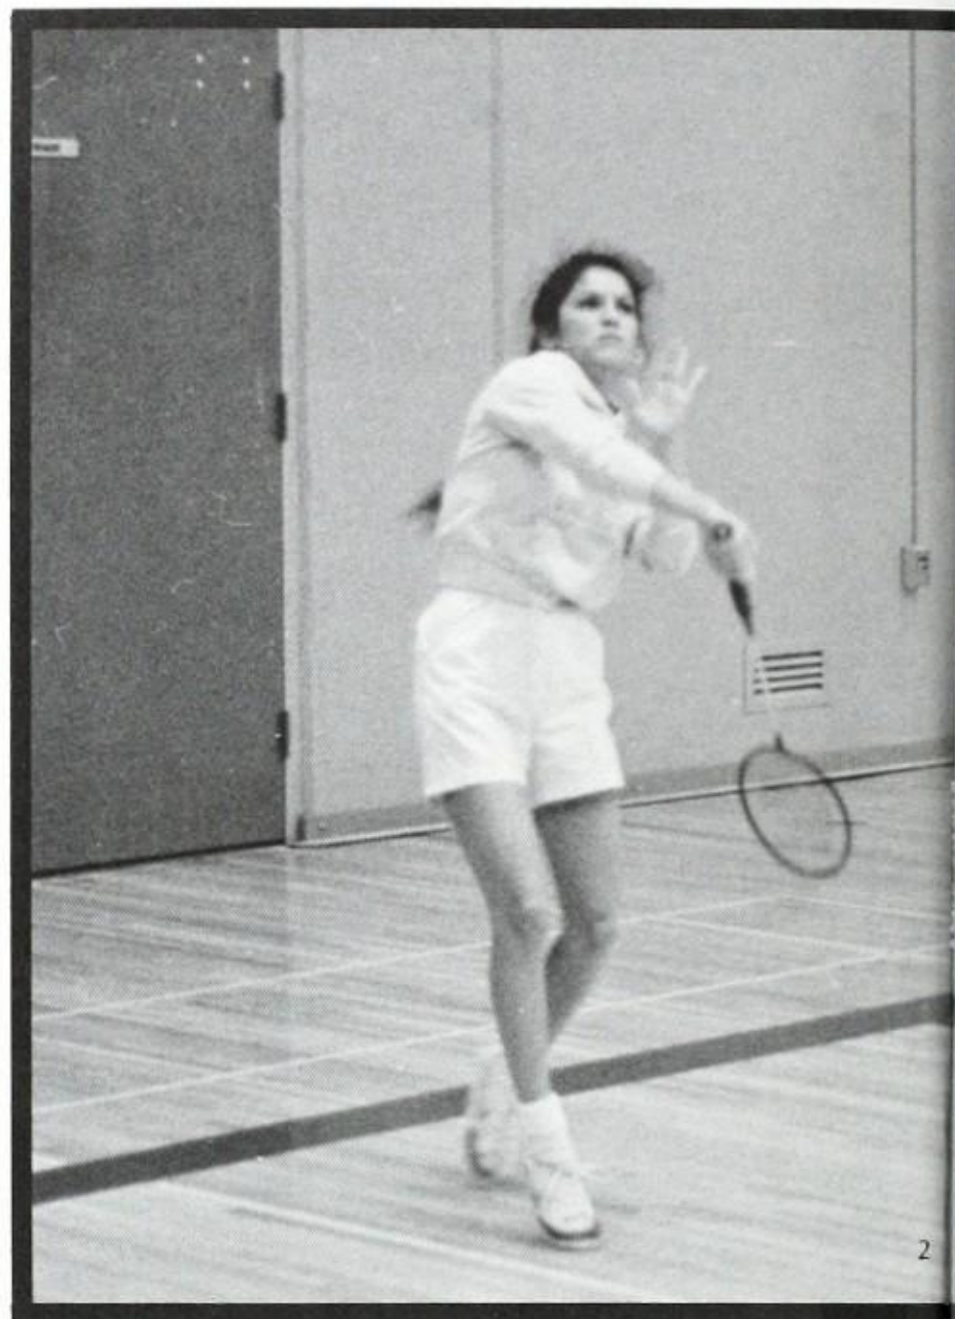

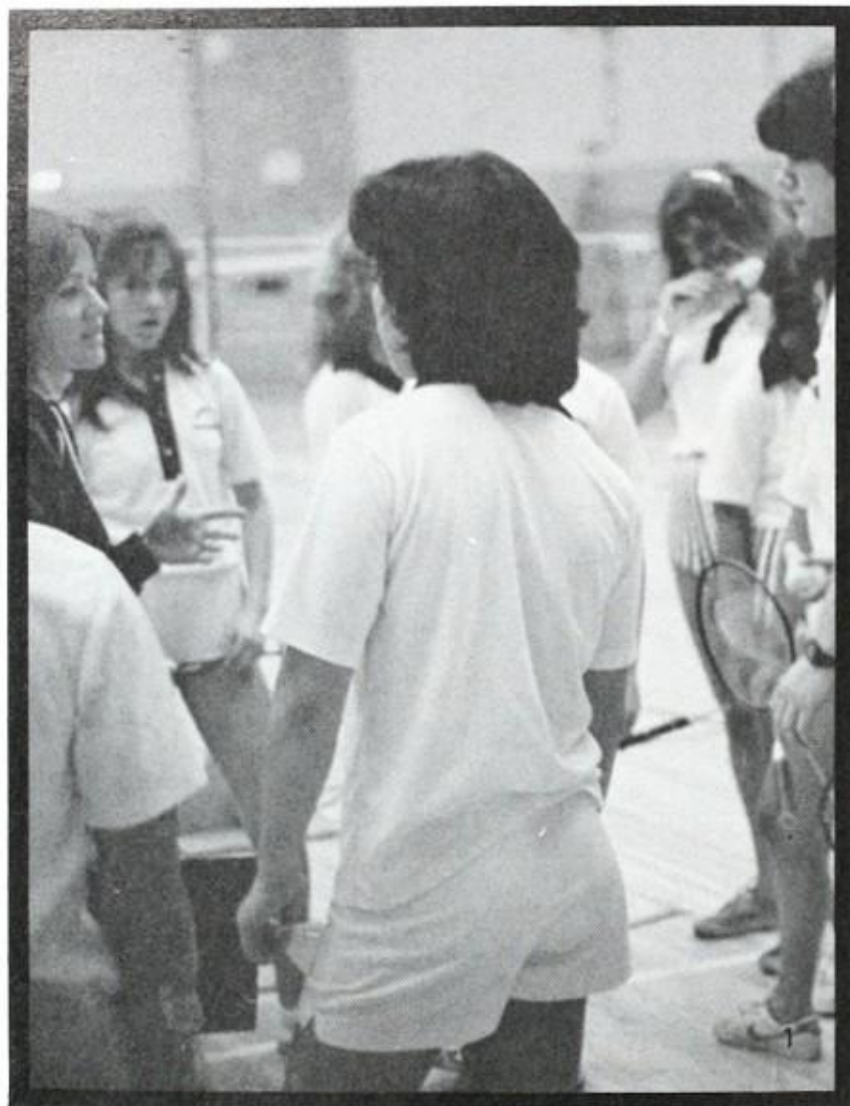

1. Clair Kawagishi looks tired but keeps trying. 2. Tommy Losonski gets ready to pull ahead. 3. Girls Varsity Swim Team: Row 1: Sonya Stamper, Maria Salviati and Dorothy Brinkwork. Row 2: Monica Courtney, Caroline Willard, Audrey Bucanac, Jennifer Owens and Michelle Rodriguez. Row 3: Jackie York, Joy Beers, Sharon White, Debbie Teichmann and Claire Kawagishi. 4. Boys Varsity Swim Team: Row 1: Scott Turner, Chris Alvarez, and Shawn Blakesley. Row 2: Darren Blankenship, Tom Losonsky, Chuck Chuchiara and Jim Burkhart. Row 3: Scott Morewood, Leonard Canchola, Gary Grey, Todd Smith and Frank Sparks. Row 4: Coach Hale, John Cunningham, Sean Harren, Jose Salviati and Tim Ruiz. 5. Boys JV Swim Team: Row 1: Ed Ordonez, and Lee Eller. Row 2: Frank Sparks, Scott Turner, Chris Alvarez, and Kirk Hersick. Row 3: Coach Hale, Frank Moore, Rick Estrellado, Chuck Cuchiara and Tom Marchetti. 6. Darren Blankenship, "Is the breast stroke that tiring?" 7. Jose Salviati gives his best til the end. 8. What style! What form! Who is that man?! 9. Girls JV Swim Team: Row 1: Janet Drysen, Dawn Manley, and Cheri Galvez. Row 2: Cindy Waltman, Adrienne Estrada, Mandy Gardner and Sabriya Bayati. Row 3: Donna Stroger, Shanna Bezuhly, Kelly Cuchiara, Carol Flores and Kelly Reardon.

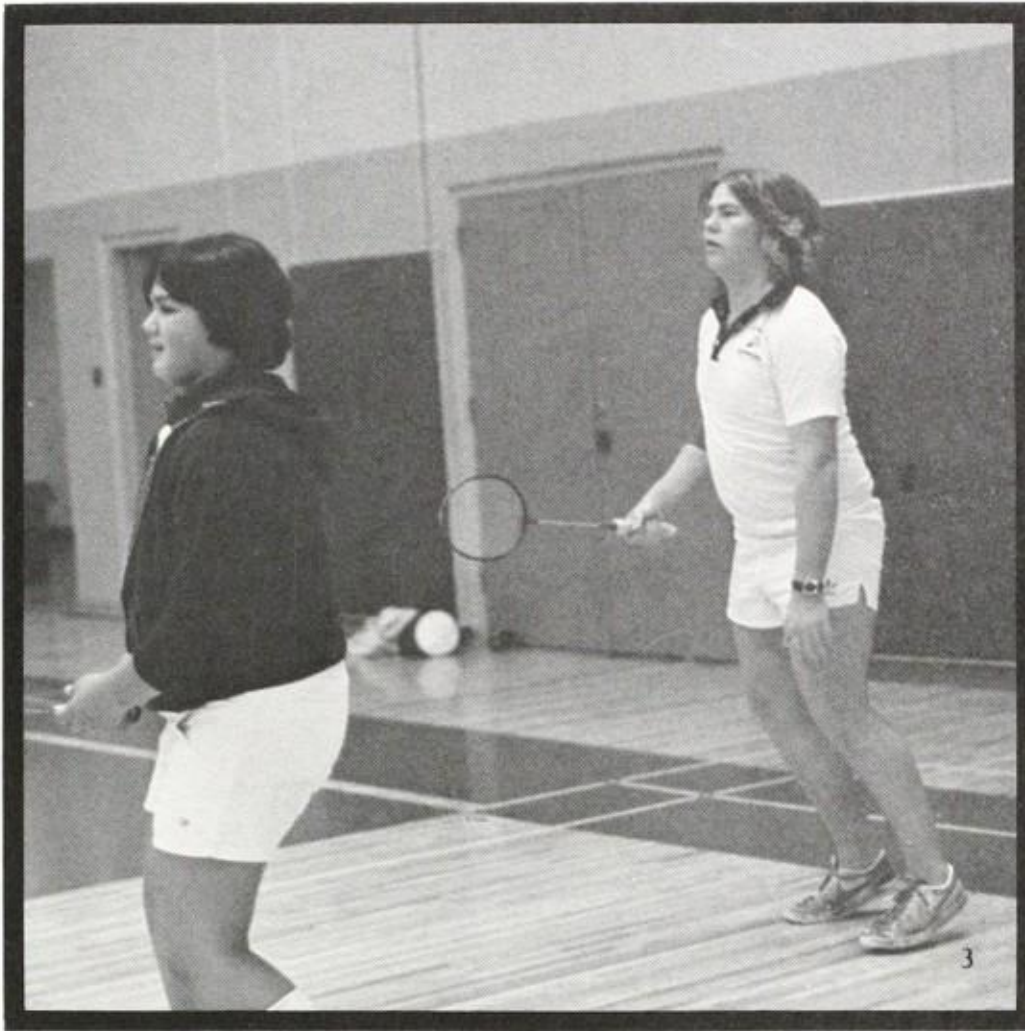

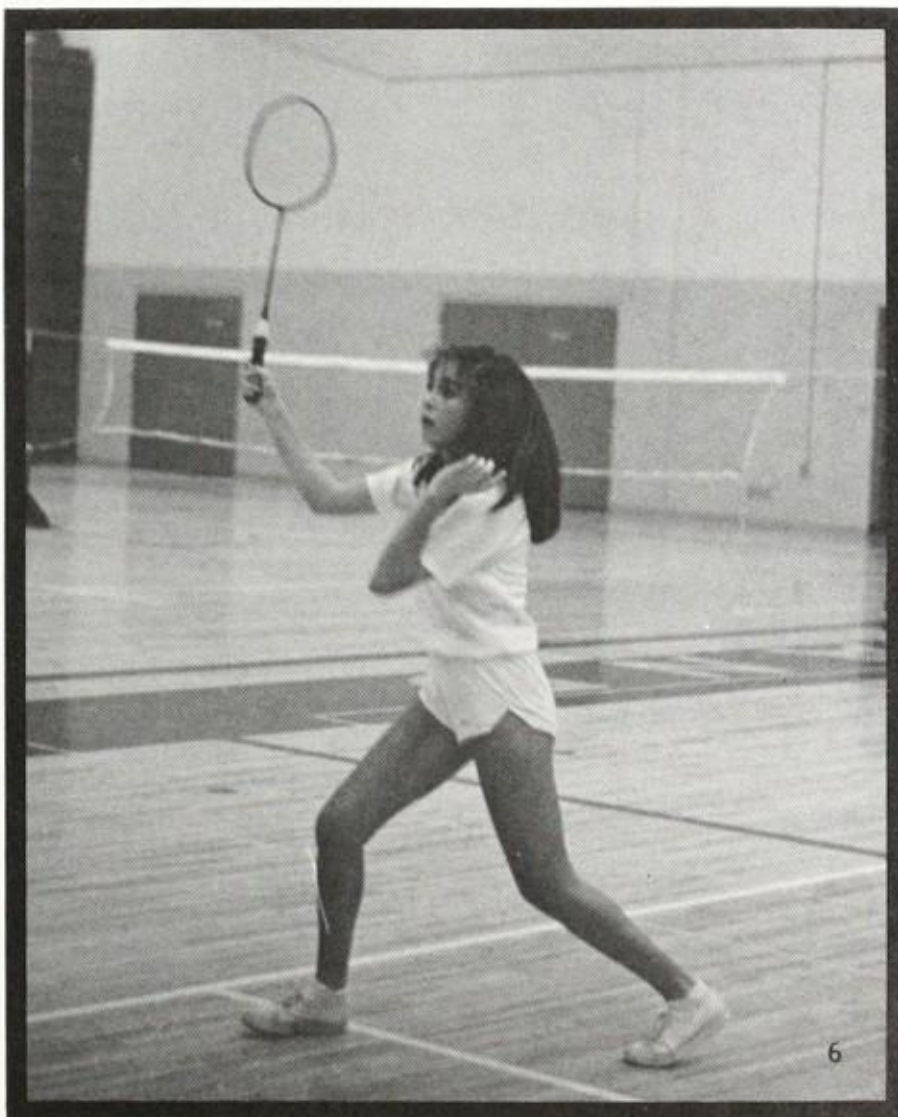

Swimming still remains one of the toughest sports in league to win. Coach Hale states: "Varsity will be hard pressed to win a meet this year." The team, though, held high hopes for the season, as the team as a whole possessed more depth and the best swimmers had faster times over-all than in previous years. Outstanding swimmers on the boys team are Gary Gray, who is a shoo-in for CIF finals, and Jose Salvati, who is a possible CIF contender. The girls varsity swim team, who was shooting for a 2nd or 3rd in league competition, was a much stronger team this year. They also possessed more depth, partly because of the twelve returning swimmers, 5 of which had received letters last year. Outstanding swimmers on the girls team were Jennifer Owens, Monica Courtney, Debbie Tiechman, Sonya Stamper, Sandy Salinas and Clair Kawagishi.

HIGHER STANDINGS . . .

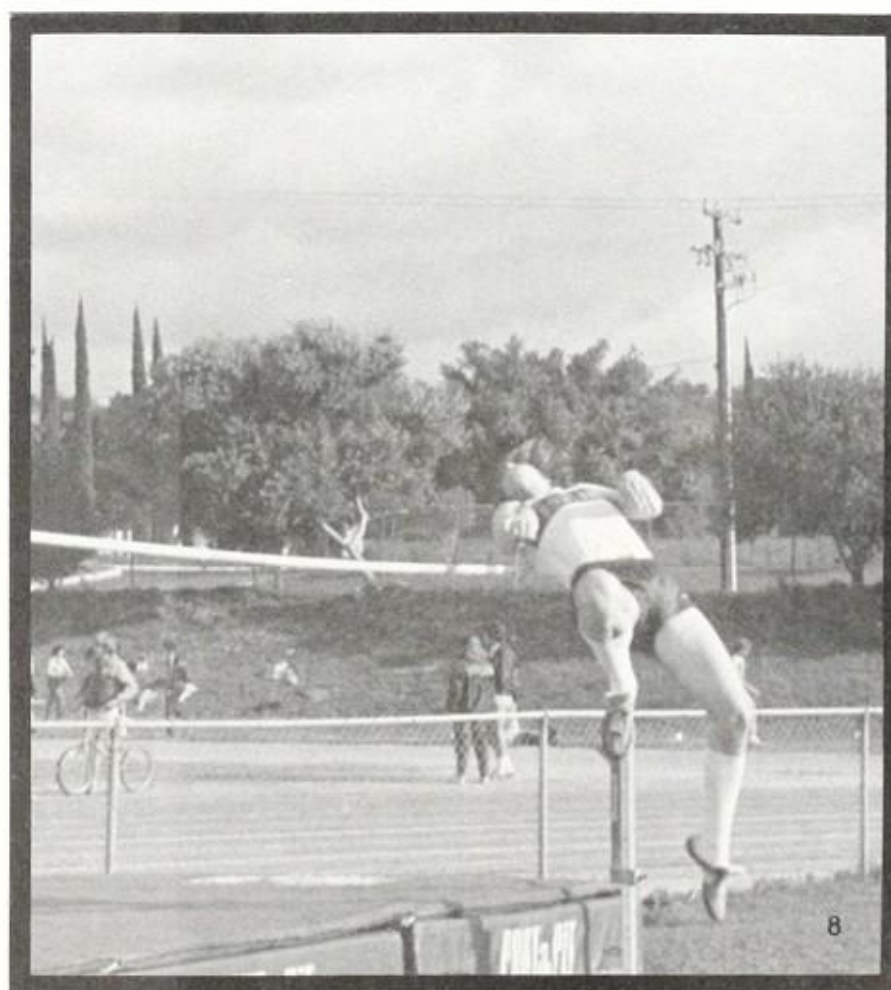

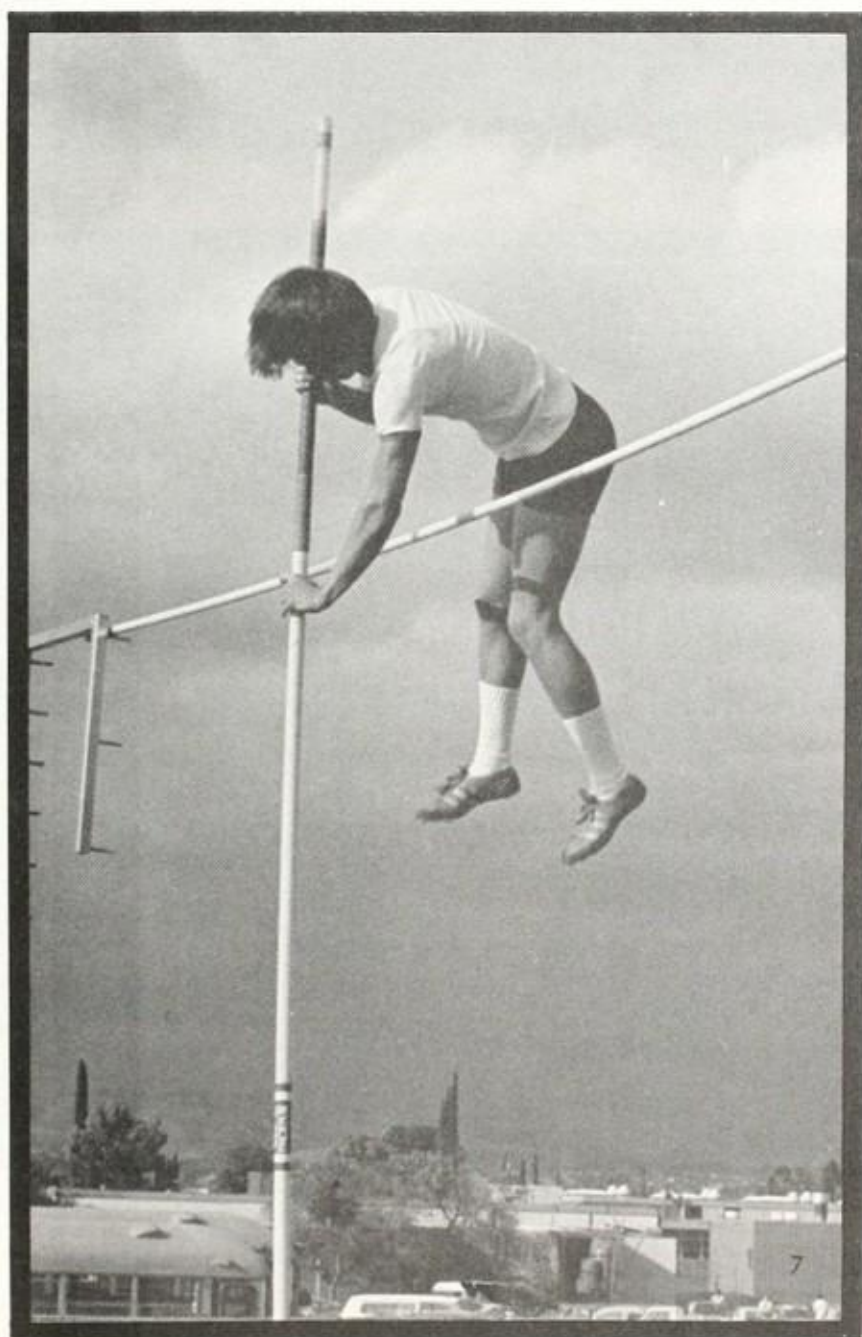

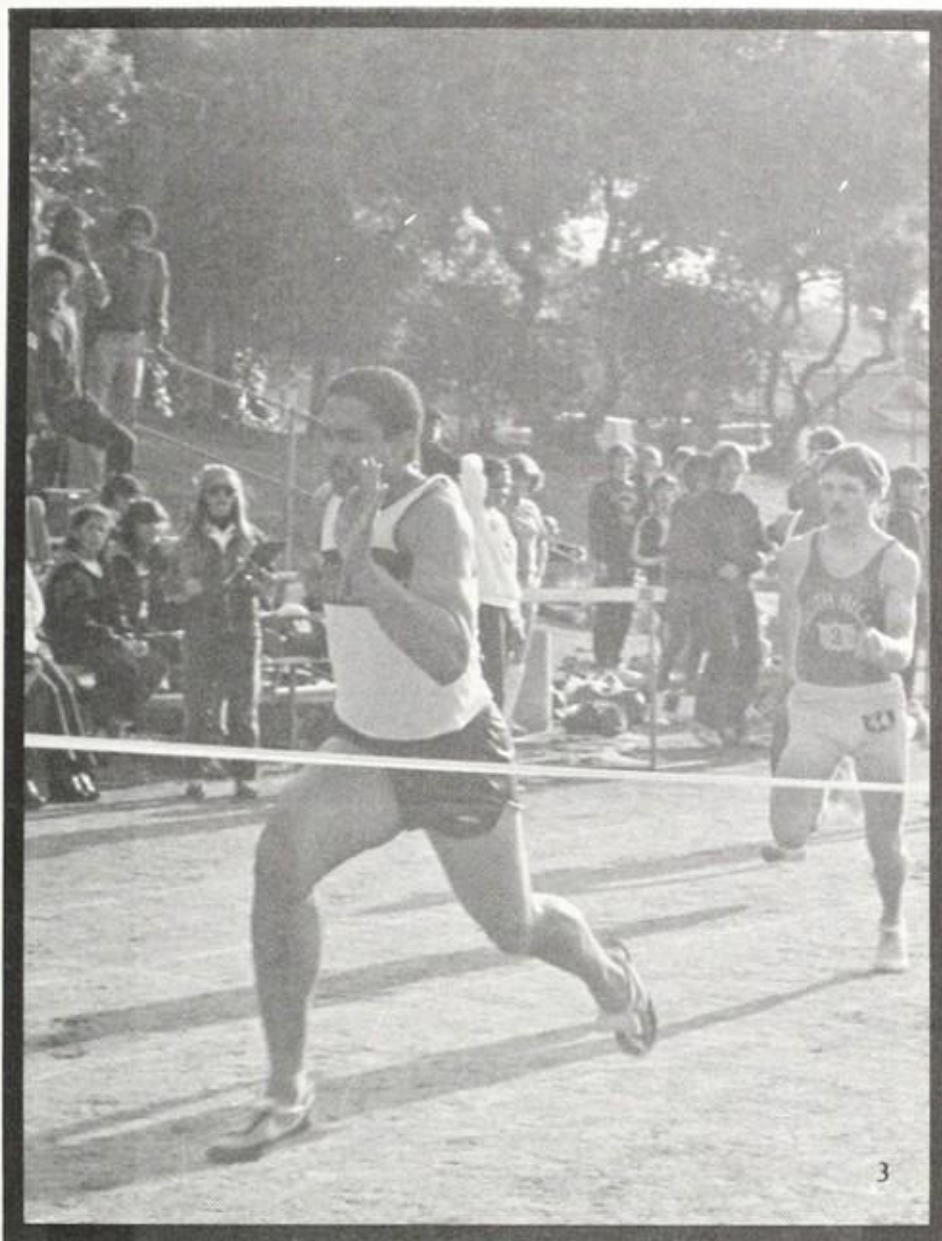

The second year of coed badminton created changes in the balance of players. More boys went out for the team and sometimes proved to be the stronger players. Barbara Grund, team coach, commented: "The girls are still strong, though, because of past years' experience." Top seeded for girls singles is Debbie Tardival, who started her league season with all wins against Los Altos and Wilson. Outstanding girls doubles are Lily Lemos and Renee Ruiz. While the boys are new and have needed time to develop their talents, Kirk Mustain and John Zabola have shown their ability by becoming top boys in doubles. Optimism is a key word for the team as they try for a higher standing in league play.

1. Coach Grund explains the day's strategy to the team. 2. Outstanding singles player Debbie Tardival returns the birdie. 3. Boys outstanding doubles, John Zabala and Kirk Mustain, get ready to play. 4. Varsity Team. Row 1: Carol Wallace, Sheri Broyles. Row 3: Keli Butler, Dorinda Lindsey, Cathy Allen.

FOR A WIN . . .

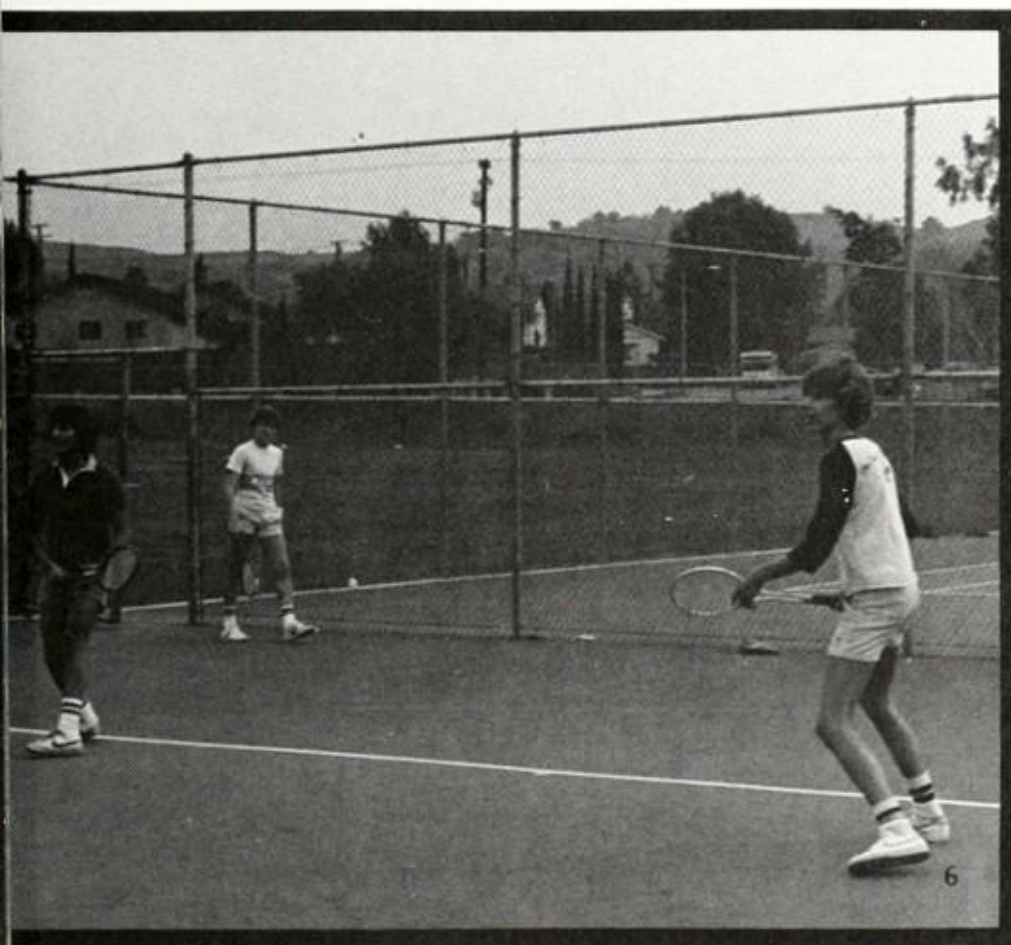

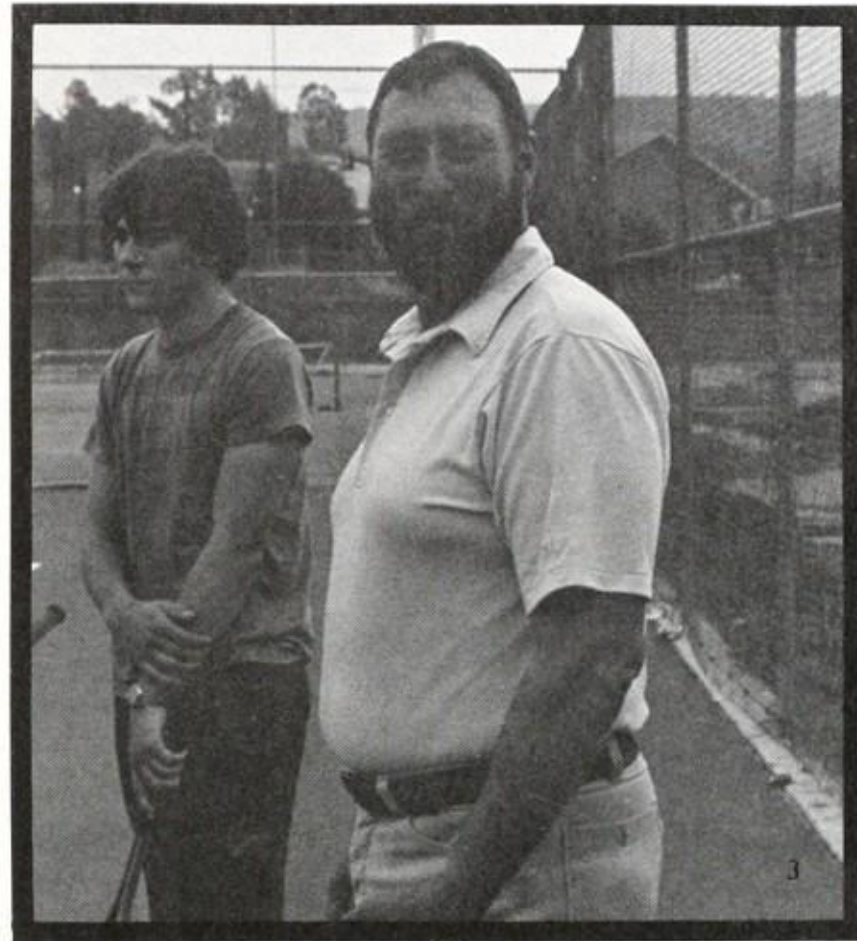

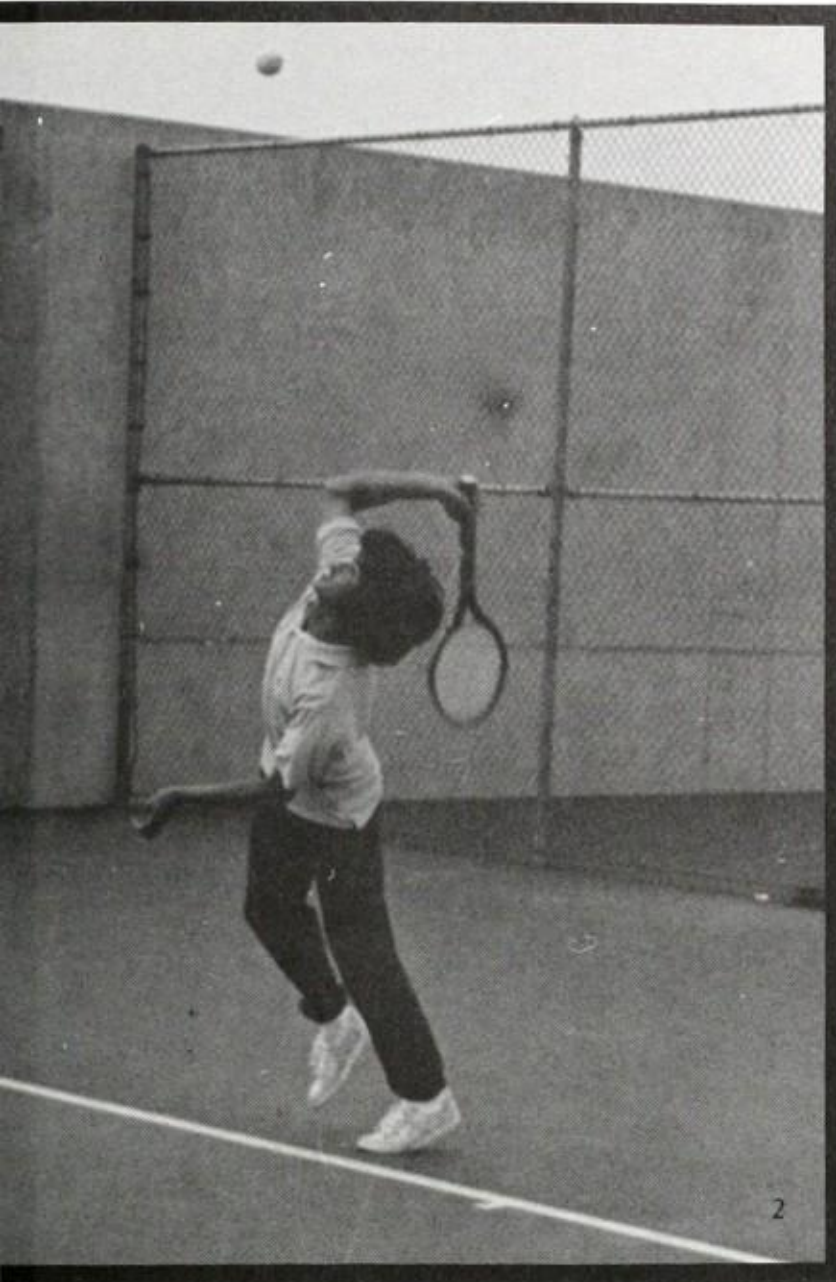

The most obvious difference between this year's track and last at Rowland is the events became coed. Races were still run separately, but all meets and all practices were combined. The boys track coach, Coach Brown, said of his team, "They were much more well rounded this year - better in field events than last year." Outstanding players for the boys were graduating seniors Sean Armstrong, with 2 school records, and Steve Perez, with 4 school records. In girls track the strong contenders were Erin Eicher, Denise Burton, Cindy Haye, and Tiffany Maturo. Their coach, Jeanne Koerner felt that the team grew in ability this year, with many strong distance runners and fine hurdlers added to the team. She emphasises, however, that although "strong players help win points, it is the entire effort of the team that puts it all together for a win."

"THE FUZZBALLERS . . ."

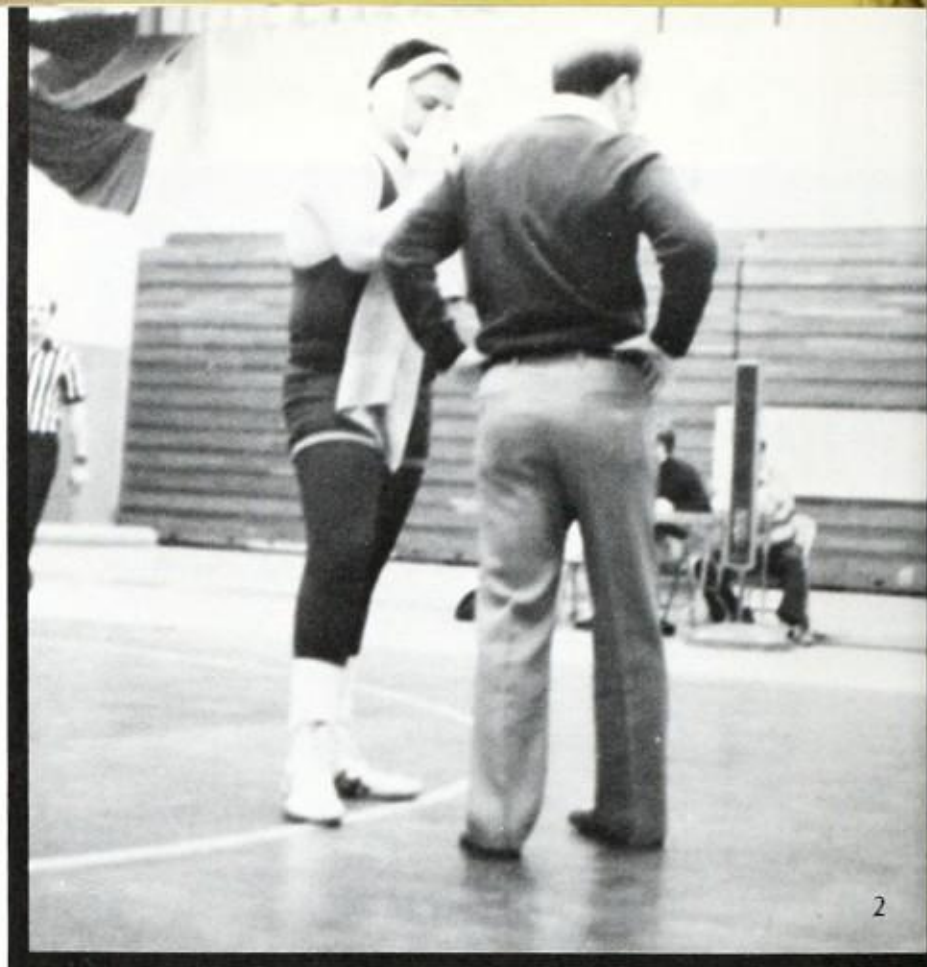

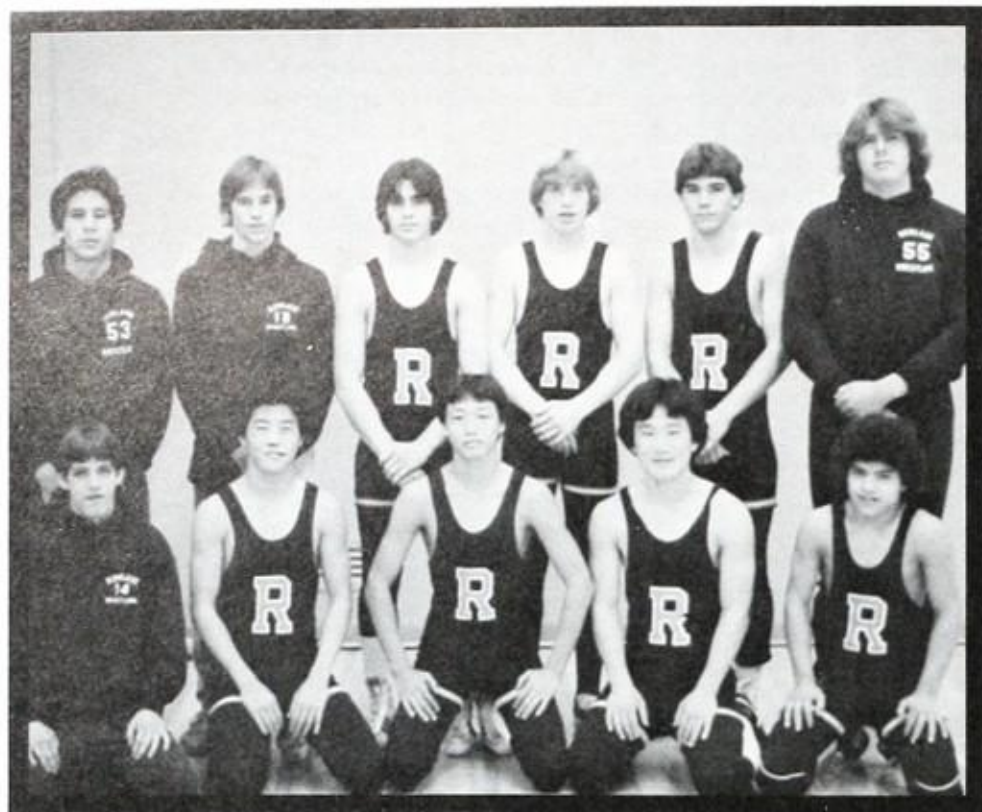

"Man the nets" was heard each day this year, as Rowland's tennis team took to the courts every day to hone to perfection their backhands, forehands, and lobs. Departing seniors left this year's Tennis team somewhat weaker, but the team is so competitive, this edge should disappear. Coach Livingston stated: "Realistically our goal was to place 3rd, and we were hoping for a 2nd place in league." The goal of most team members, though, was to beat Walnut. Outstanding players on the team this year were all returning lettermen. They include Jose Sambas, Steve Taw and Marty Silva.

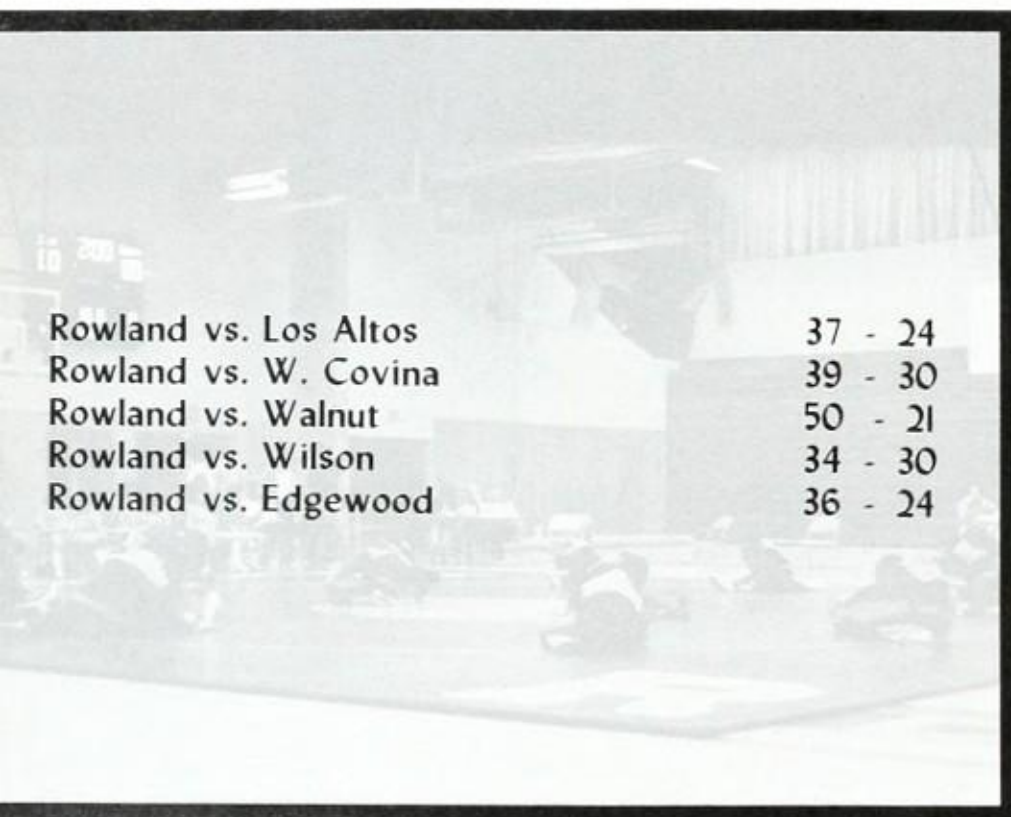

1. Varsity Tennis Team: Row 1: Steve Taw, Marty Silva, Robert Roda. Row 2: Jose Sambas, Jim Nicola, Chris Koch, Troy Kelley, David Bencomo. 2. Steve Taw's powerful serve is an example of how good the "Fuzzballers" can smack the ball. 3. Coach Livingston and Bill McNamara, observe the tennis players with interest? 4. Robert Roda gets ready for a backhand. 5. Marty Silva goes to his assigned court. 6. The doubles team of Larry Alcorn and Robert Gavela are an awesome team. 7. JV Team: Row 1: Mark Moscal, Greg Kelly, Scott Zavala, Andy Fahmy, Mike Brizendine. Row 2: Rick Iwig, Larry Alcorn, Brian Hanlon, Robert Gavela, Craig Horie.

For the second year in a row, Rowland High School's Wrestling Team became Sierra League Champions. While their overall score was 19 wins and 4 losses, they were able to sweep every team in the league. Coach Harris stated, "This year's team worked very hard, and all of their accomplishments were well earned." Three of the varsity wrestlers that advanced to CIF were Chip Hall, Chris Victoria and Vince Mendoza. The other two teams also did a great job this year. The JV team placed second in the league with a 4 and 1 record, while the Frosh-Soph team defeated every team, becoming Sierra League Champs with a 9 and 0 record.

Most Valuable Player
Jose Salviati

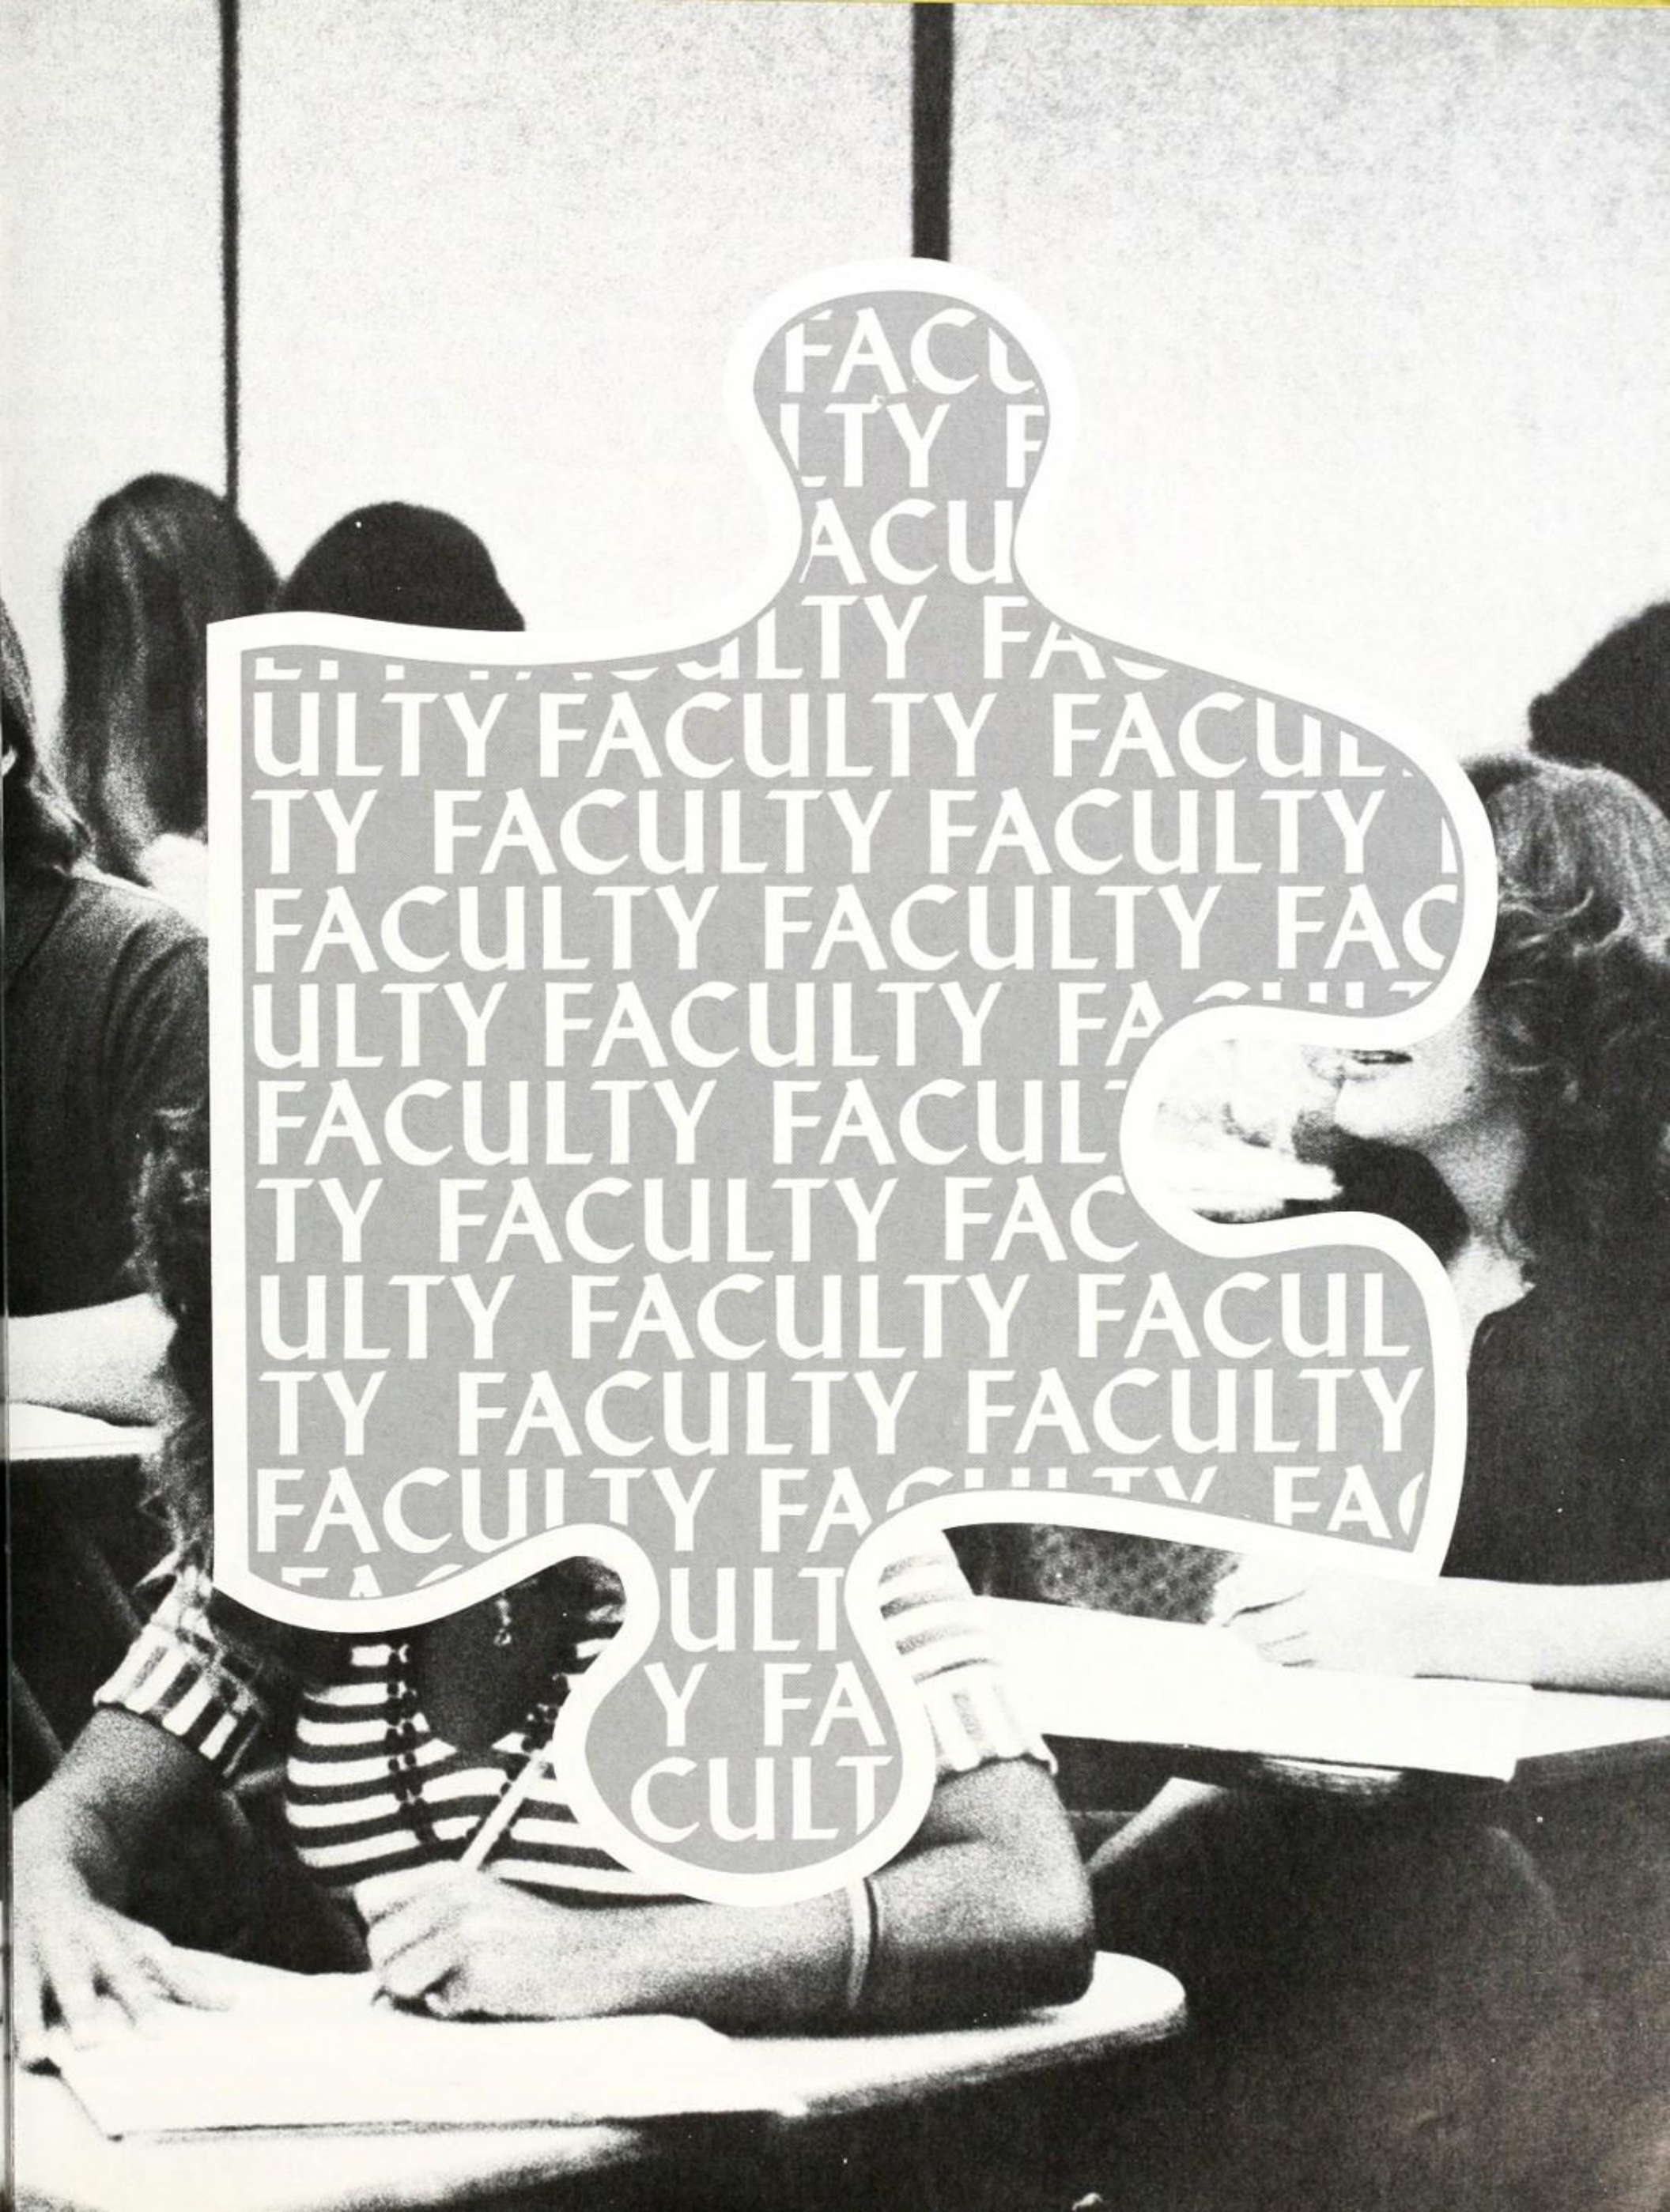

Rowland vs Walnut	0-3
Rowland vs West Covina	3-1
Rowland vs Edgewood	2-1
Rowland vs Los Altos	2-6
Rowland vs Wilson	2-5
Rowland vs Walnut	0-3
Rowland vs West Covina	0-2
Rowland vs Edgewood	1-2

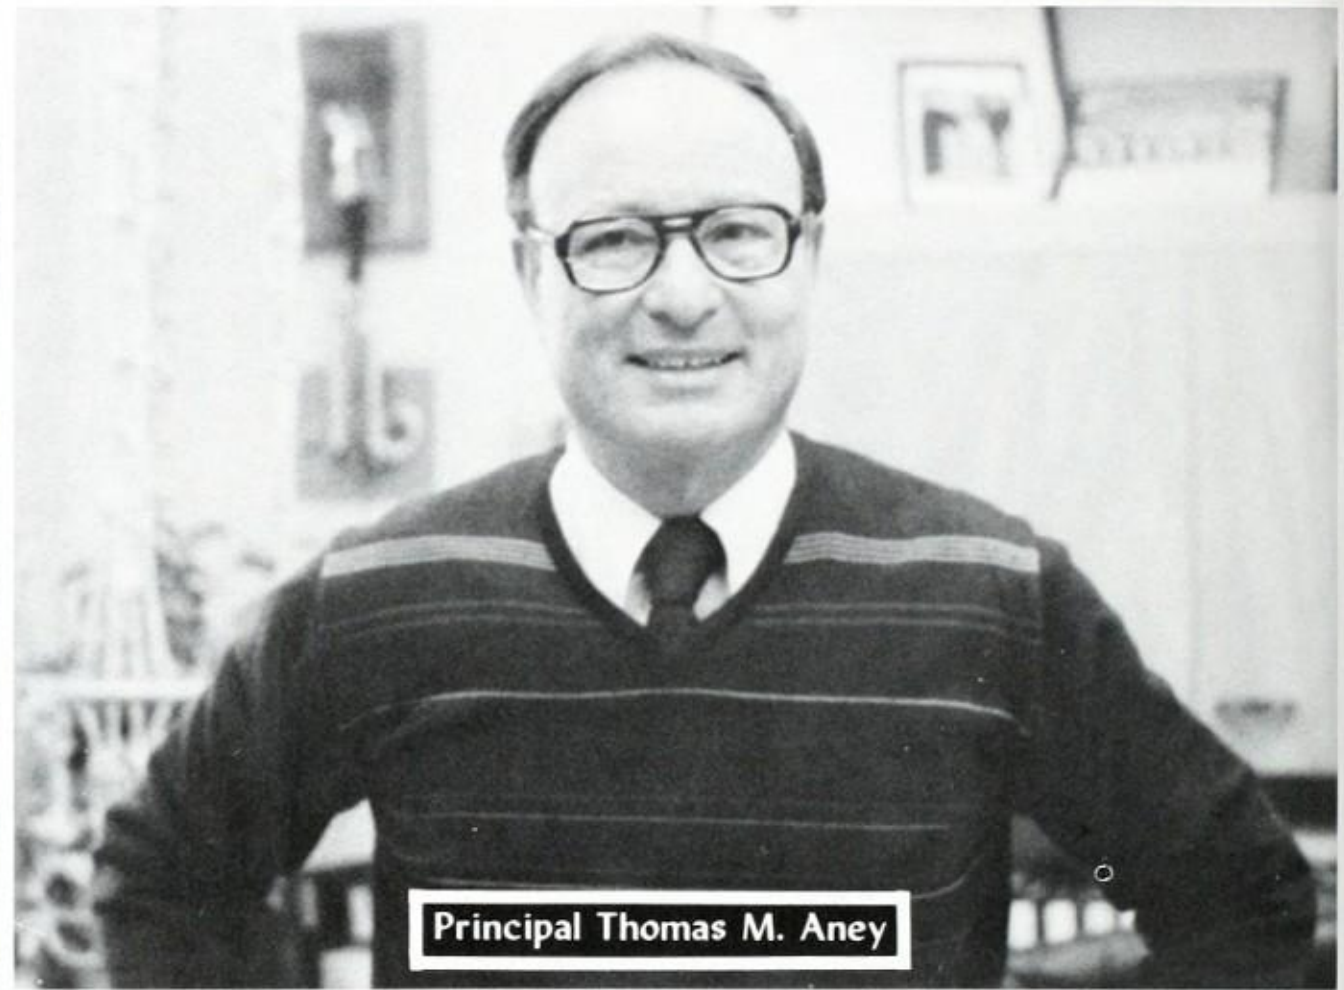

"The team this year was much better than in the past," stated Mr. Wentz, coach of the varsity team. "With the move of some of last year's players to varsity and further development of the returning varsity players, we were able to win easily a couple of times." The team also played very competitively, enabling them to win a few close games. The varsity league record was 2 wins and 8 losses. The Frosh-Soph team continued to improve throughout the season. Their league record was 2 ties, 5 wins and 3 losses. The varsity team will be able to draw some very good players from this team next year. Even though soccer is a relatively new sport at Rowland, the teams have made a good showing for themselves. The Most Valuable Player award this year went to Jose Salviati, while Most Improved honors was given to Rich Saunders. The Coaches Award, a most sought-after award, went to Rich Jaramillo.

For years students have looked upon teachers as authoritative figures that don't seem quite human. So we have decided to find out whether or not the stereotype put upon teachers are accurate. In our search, many interesting facts have been discovered about our staff, and we want to share them with you. Then you may draw your own conclusion about our faculty. Are they human-or not?

MANY TEACHERS SPEND TIME WITH FAMILIES...

1. Mr. Beeson and children - Josh and Danica. 2. Mrs. Hynes and her husband, Danny. 3. Mr. Catanzaro and wife, Linda. 4. Pam Ford and daughter, Erin. 5. Mr. Gardner with his wife, Brigitte, and daughter Karen. 6. Rub a dub dub! Four men in a tub. Mr. Baumunk and Darren, Jeff, and Kelli.

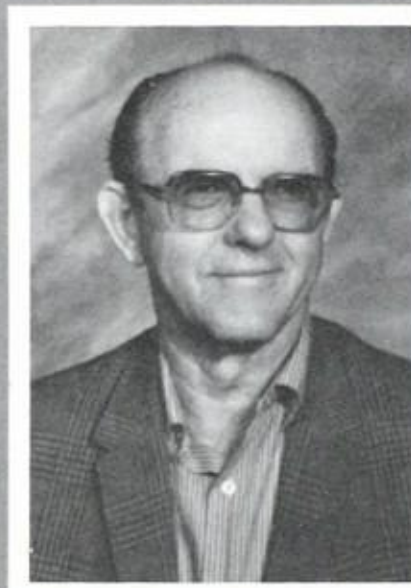

And drama teachers always dress up and play.

RATING TOPPED 9 . . .

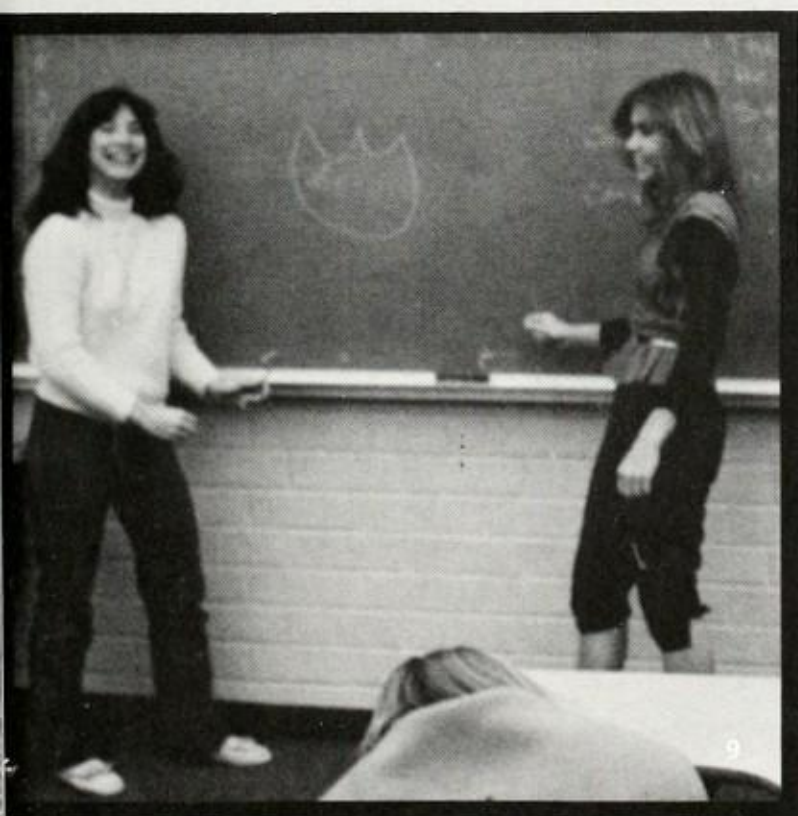

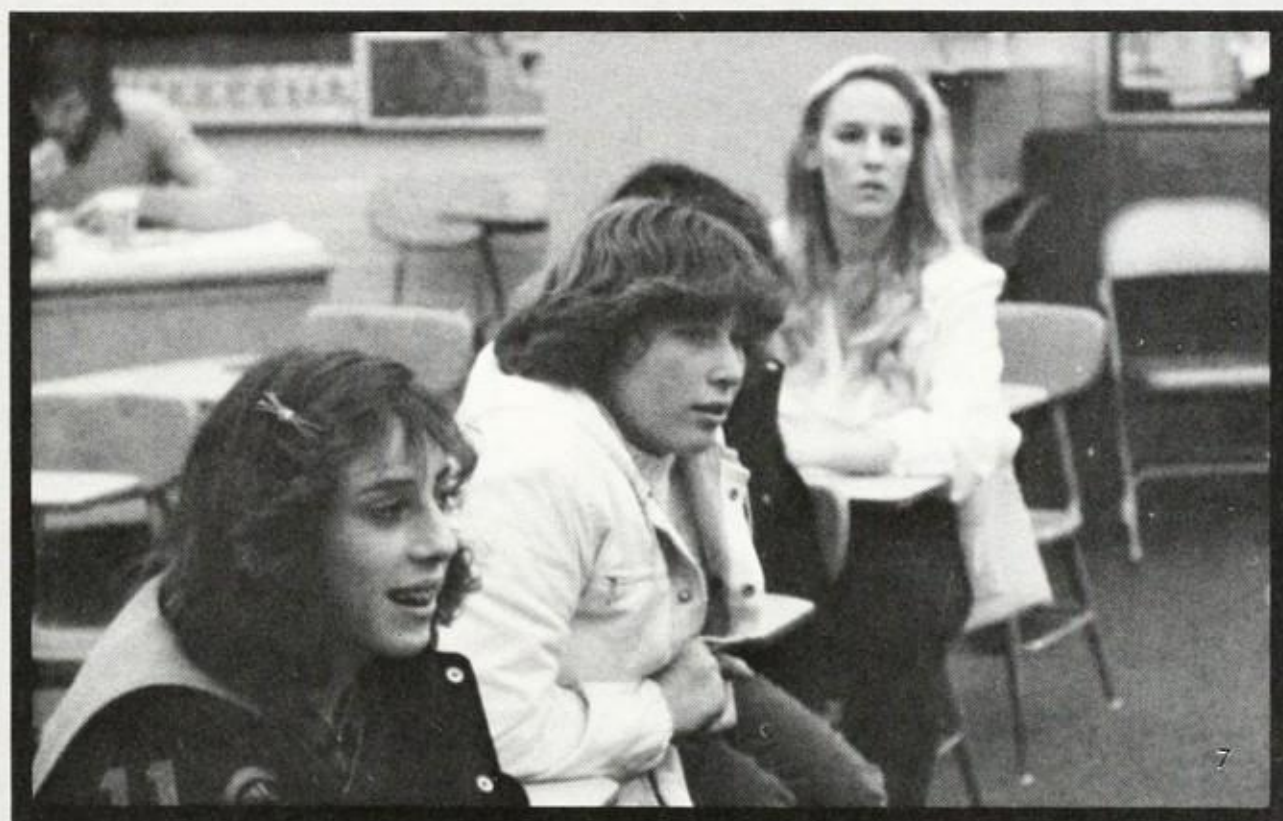

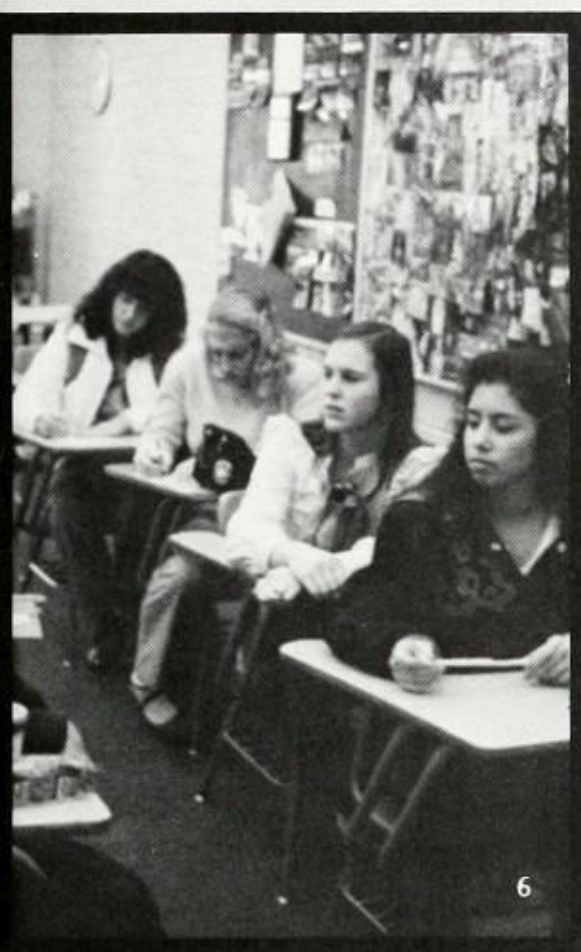

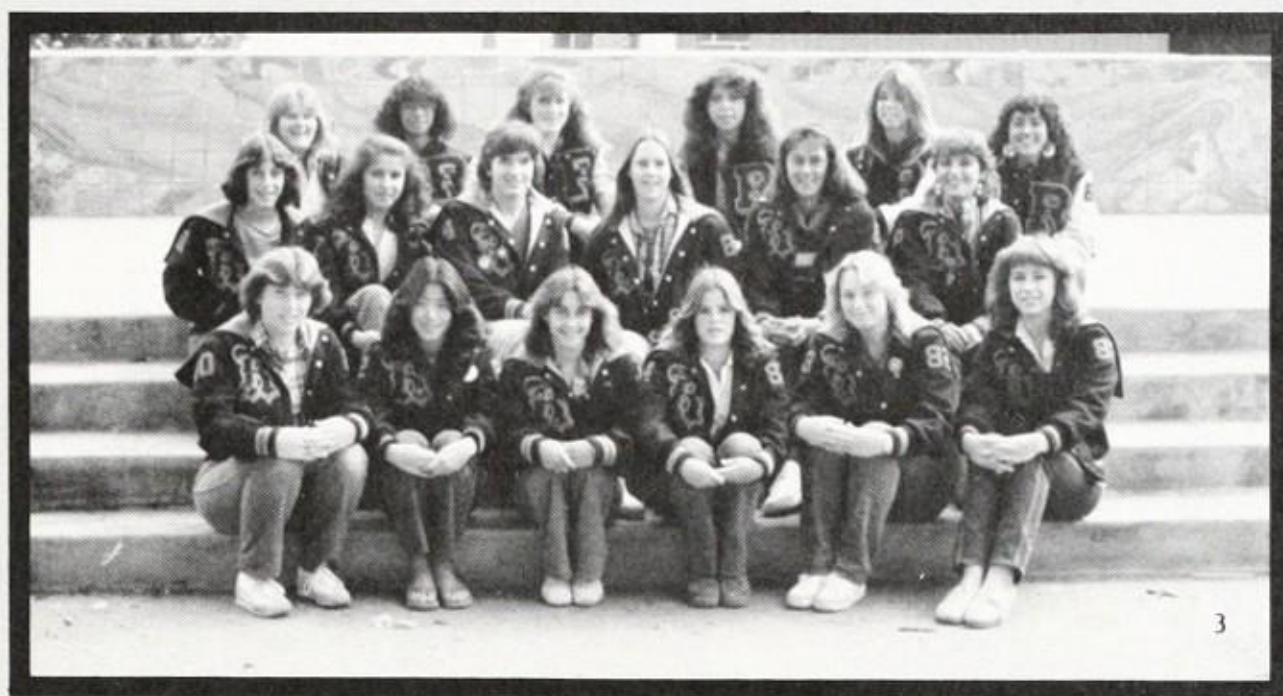

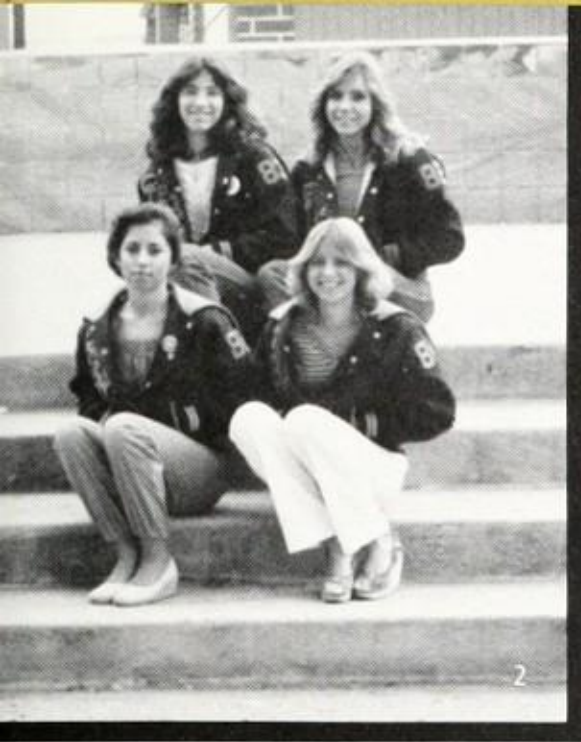

When A.S.B. totalled their achievements for the 1981-1982 year, the rating topped 9. A variety of reasons exist for this high rating. The largest number of students ever attended the Homecoming Dance — of course the Buck-aBuck had something to do with the crowd; over three hundred students were able to attend various conferences throughout the year; and the greatest number of students in the history of the school participated in clubs, organizations, and athletics. The most notable change for the better; however, was the scheduled assemblies. Due to problems the past few years assemblies had been curtailed. This was lifted this year when the addition to the gym was completed. A.S.B. scheduled seven assemblies throughout the year, much to the delight of the students. These assemblies included an Electric Show, the singer Jim Bolden, the hypnotist Joyce Sharpe, and a Stuntman Show. The gym enlargement also made it possible for the entire student body to attend an assembly together for the first time. All of this was possible because of an excellent A.S.B. Cabinet led by Andy Casana, president. Mr. Revis, Director of Student Activities stated, "The 1981-1982 Cabinet would like to thank all of students for giving us your support and allowing us to serve you."

A VERY GOOD YEAR . . .

1. Lettermen: Row 1: Sean Armstrong, Jose Salviati, Greg Espinoza, Jim Riutta, Andy Casana, Randy DeAnda, Fernando Ortega. Row 2: Ken Ikari, Darren Blankenship, Phil Estrada, Armando Rosas and Tom Young. 2. Letter Club Officers: Row 1: Tom Mortimer, Chip Hall, Cindy Morrell and Debbie Gruner. Row 2: Gary Gray, Mark Harrison, Linda Barajas and Erin Eicher. 3. Letter Girls: Sandy Clapp, Lynette Wilcay, Cindy Parker, Jackie Gonzales, Sherri Williams and Virginia Gonzales. Row 2: Susan Scotto, Liz Loya, Corrie Kaspardlov, Jamie Carroll, Virginia VanHerwaarden and Herlinda Garcia. Row 3: Toni Scotto, Claire Kawagishi, Sherri Broyles, Tracy Hakala, Sharon Chaney and Caroline Willard. 4. The Lettermen all listen in a meeting. 5. Mark Harrison expresses his opinion. 6. The Letter Girls wait for the meeting to begin. 7. Samantha Brooks' mind wanders off, while supposedly listening. 8. Chip Hall and Gary Gray conduct a meeting during lunch. 9. Cindy Morrell and Debbie Gruner conduct a meeting during lunch.

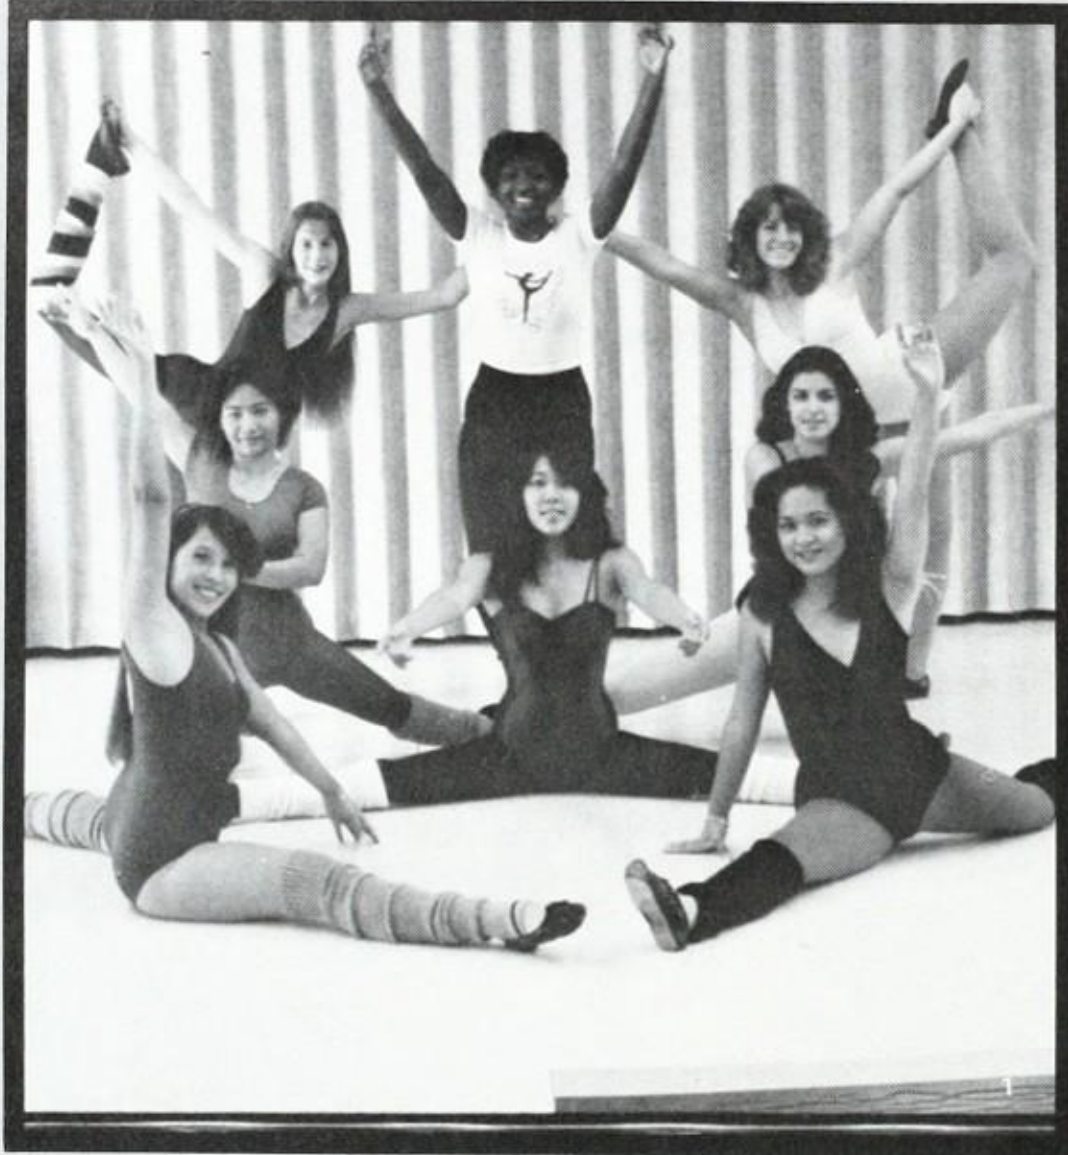

In the past, the letter clubs have been best known on the Rowland campus for their unique and "interesting" new member initiations. This year, however, proved to be an exception, because there was not even one shocking rumor spread, and the new members just appeared quietly in their jackets, ready to participate in the club activities.

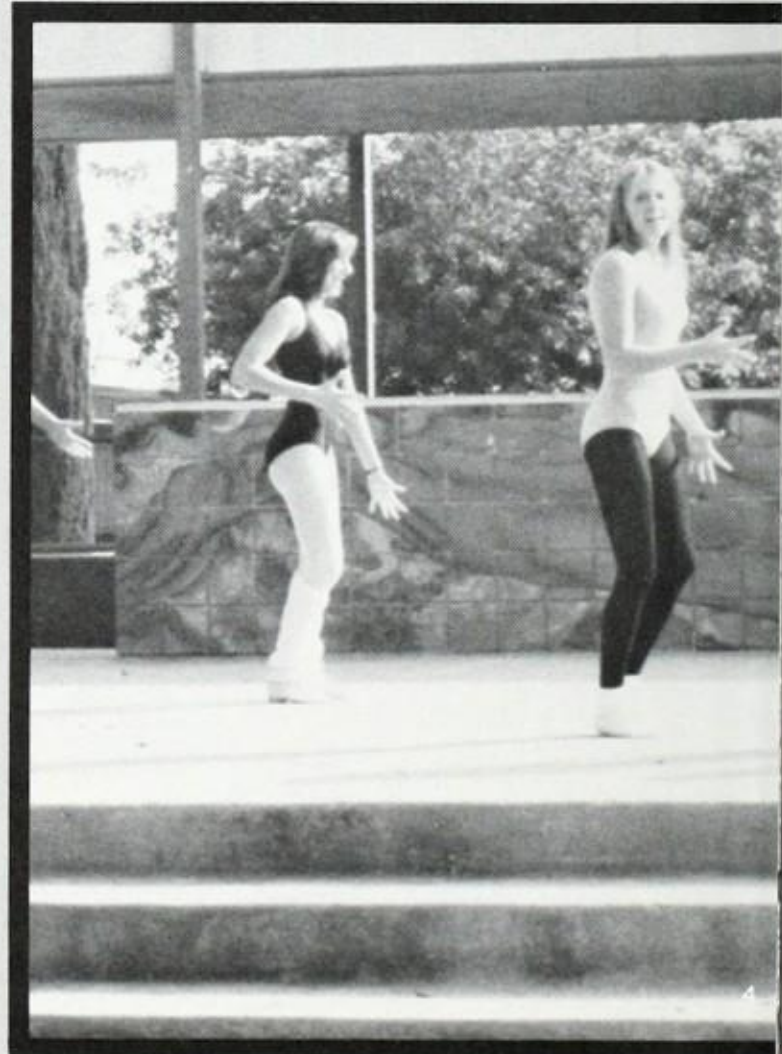

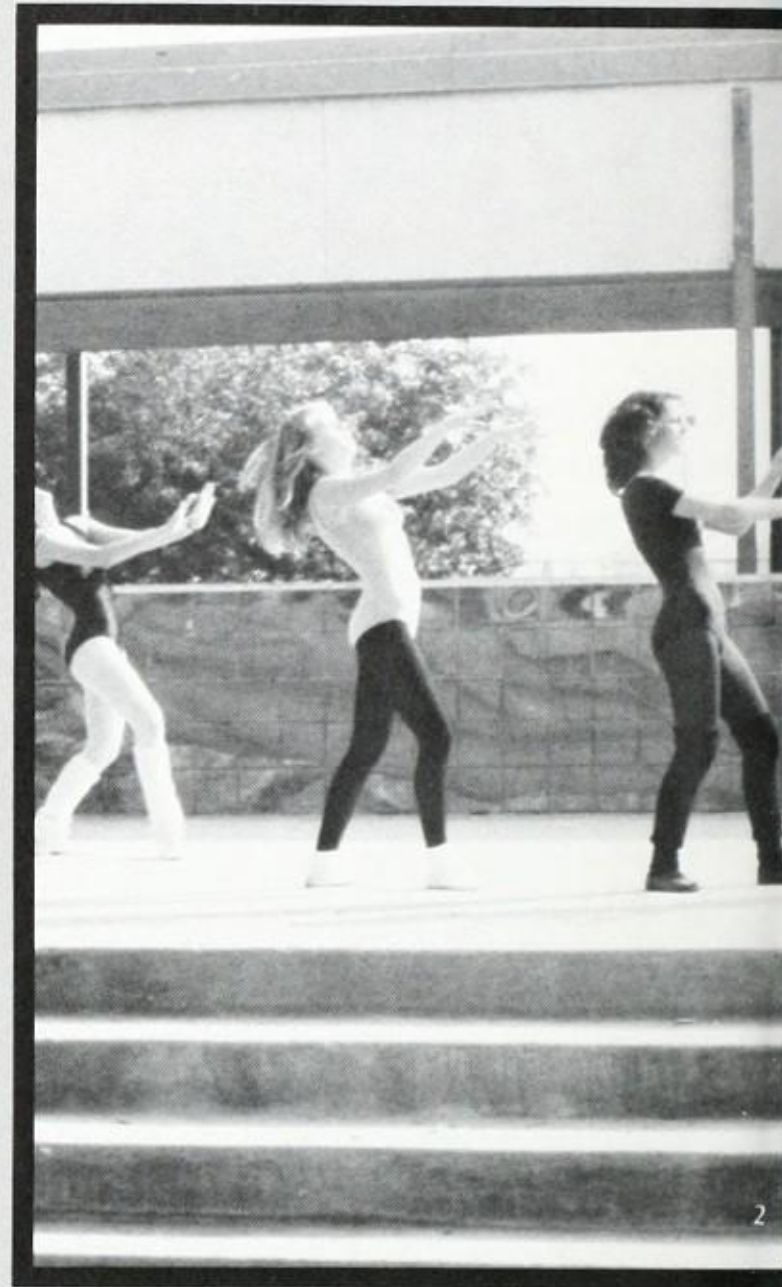

These activities included the selection of the athlete of the month, coach of the year, and all sports awards. They also sponsored the popular Donkey Basketball game. Because of the rescheduling of assemblies, the letterclubs were able to again play Keystone Cops, minus the hats. And as usual, they took care of the trophy case.

EXCELLENCE IN DANCE . . .

Modern Dance, which is one of the newer clubs on campus, is also a class that any student can take. "It is open to all girls and boys interested in performance," stated Mrs. Sandra Gurney, the sponsor and teacher of the group. "The class provides an outlet for creativity and excellence in dance." Another function of the class is to provide choreography for the school. Mrs. Gurney, who is in charge of the choreography for the musicals, urges her students to try out for these performances.

In order to get the students used to performing in front of people, the class exchanges performances with the Chamber Singers. This year additional instruction was given to the advanced class by Joyce VanZant, a semi-professional dancer. To further their knowledge of dance, the class attends Ballet and jazz and modern dance events in Los Angeles. The expertise of the girls was displayed at their Advance Dance Concert in the spring. Outstanding dancers in the group are Evelyn Amimoto, Ella Bosrock, Jennifer Flores, Lita Jaffe and Beverly Wolf.

ANOTHER CULTURE . . .

1. German Club: Row 1: Mia Gail, Lynne Rogers, Cindy Peacock, Carlos Sarmiento, Scott Turner, Mark Hanlon. Row 2: Robert Skaggs, Caroline Heinrich, Mario Apodaca, Ginnette Schreinbeck, Joey Zoba, Roger Hanger. Row 3: Gary Tardivel, Alex Bentley, Jun Lee, Kyung Kim, Sharon McCall, Brian Hastings, Shellie Despatis, Janet Kongaika. 2. Soo Shin and Robert Skaggs discuss Soo's trip to Germany. 3. Is Mark Hanlon really taking suggestions from the club? 4. A common lunch day with the German Club students.

Learning about the German culture is an important aspect of the German Club. In order to do this, the club sponsors a variety of events that would lead to more knowledge of the German Culture. They discovered many German traits when they visited Alpine Village and Solvang. However, one of the most memorable occasions was the German Christmas party where they tried to recreate an authentic German Christmas feast. To become better acquainted with their counterparts in Germany, many of the club members have pen pals in West Germany with whom they correspond on a regular basis, while some of the German II students attended a German Camp to learn more about Germany. The star member of the club this year was Soo Shin. Soo spent last summer in Germany where she studied and toured various areas of Germany. Mrs. Grabler, the club advisor, feels that students always benefit from a knowledge of other cultures that exist in our world.

DIFFERENT CULTURES . . .

The International Club not only seems to bring students of different cultures and backgrounds together within the club, but it also shares its special membership with the rest of the school. The most obvious example of the club's special place on campus is International Day, which was held in February this year. International Day brought exchange students from surrounding high schools in the area to Rowland where they joined forces with our own exchange students to hold discussions in various classrooms on campus. All sorts of topics were presented, from life in a foreign country to current world situations and issues. Everyone involved felt the experience was educational and very enjoyable. The club also held several fundraisers this year, among these were a car wash, skate night and game shows. A trip to Disneyland ended the year.

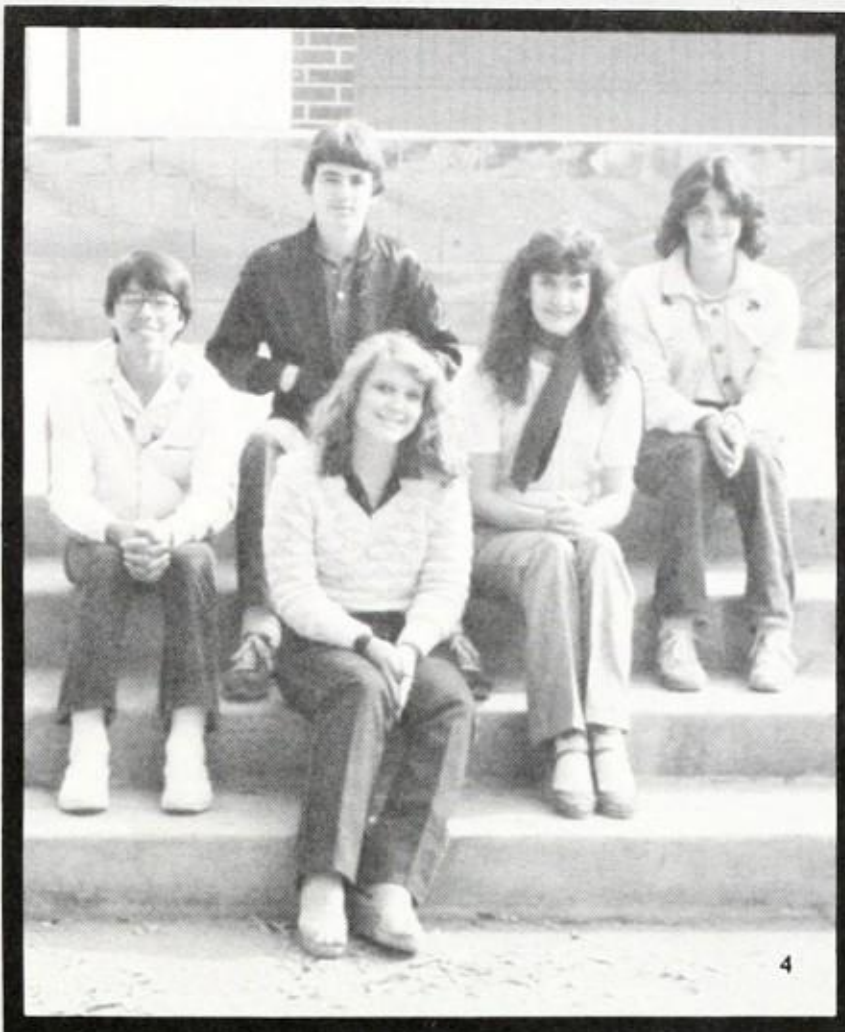

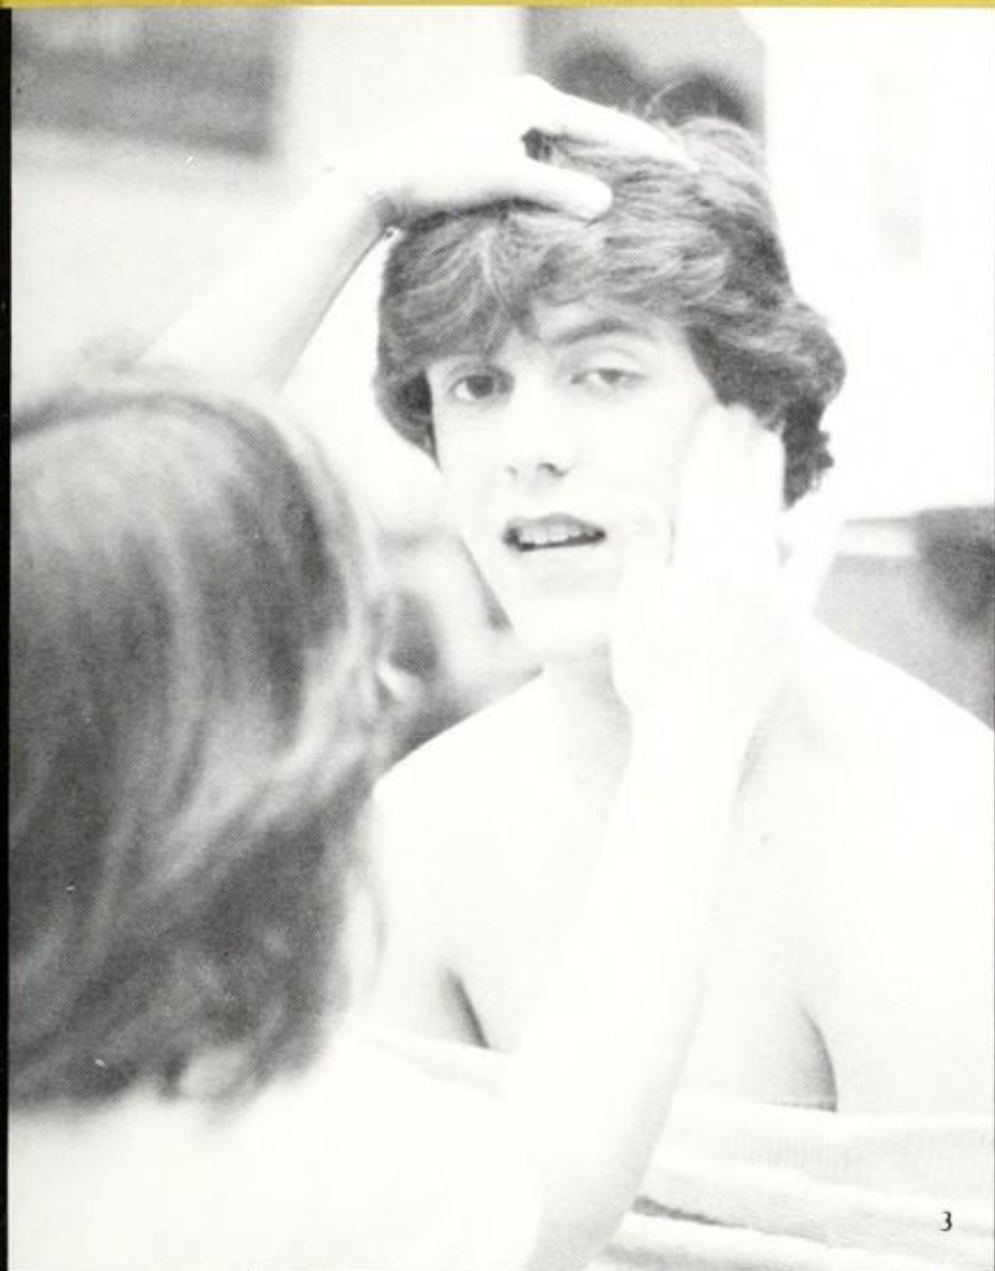

YEAR OF SUCCESS . . .

The Drama Club and Thespians rang up another year of success in this school year. You Can't Take It With You, the fall play they produced, was an enormous success at the box office. The play demanded a considerable amount of effort, as the Drama Club was responsible for make-up and staging of the play. They also assisted the choir in producing the musical Mame.

The Thespians, the drama honor society, hosted the Conference of Thespians of California this year. The conference was held at Chapman College in Orange and had as the guest speaker Jerome Lawrence, the author of the musical Mame. The school year doesn't end the activities though, for several of the Thespians are planning to attend the International Conference in Muncie, Indiana in June after school is out. At the banquet this year many of the members were given awards for their achievements throughout the year. Some of the outstanding performers in the group are Darren Boyett, Reva Curran, Darren Hammers, Jean Swift, and Darryl Tidwell. At the end of the year Mr. Jordan appeared pleased as he tucked another successful year away in his memory book.

Advisor Mr. Cappuccilli, officers: Susan Verdugo, Kim Cuadill and Tanya Cox.

"Buy your sweaters here" was a familiar phrase the beginning of the year, as SSR worked to make the entire staff and student body get spirited on Fridays. Under the sponsorship of Jim Cappuccilli, this group aided spirit rallies and games, sold all sorts of items to raise money, and held a sensational Swap Meet in the parking lot of the school. While Mr. Cappuccilli received a few grey hairs, the girls basked under his antics, beratings and general guidance. "Meet on the baseball field" became a favorite phrase for the girls in the group, and all secretly hoped he would be their exalted leader next year.

MANY CHANGES . . .

Many changes took place in Girls League activities this year. Under advisor Donna Malbon the girls changed many traditional activities with a great deal of success. Their Christmas Formal was held in January this year, and instead of having a Winter Queen only, a Winter King was chosen. At the same time class princesses were matched with class princes also. The Slumber Party was revived, but was held in the spring instead of the fall. The girls also provided their traditional activities, such as guides at Open House and Honor Guards at graduation. Patricia SanRoman stated: "We are very pleased with our activities this year. It was a successful year."

THE STUDENT FORUM . . .

1. Kim Carter, Julie Carpenter and Patricia San Roman, student editors, stop and think about what they're going to do next. 2. Raider Express: Row 1: Bill Wolfrum, Greg Jones, Craig Mason, Stephanie Gallegos, Denys Rodriguez, Becky Saller, Julie Carpenter, Pat Mathews, Kim Carter, Virginia Gonzales, Advisor Cathy Hynes. Row 2: Robert Guerra, Michelle Grow, Mindy Chong, Becky San Roman, Patricia San Roman, Charity Lambert, Teresa Timmins, Richard Hawk. 3. The class looks like journalism is a lot of fun. 4. Come on, relax a little bit, Pat Mathews.

The student forum, the Raider Express, completed their second successful year on campus. Mrs. Hynes, the advisor for these two years, feels the newspaper has been very successful in presenting the news of the school to the student body. The paper has also provided a forum for the students. Many students have used the paper to express their views concerning various aspects of school life.

Student leadership for the paper this year has been spread among several editors. These student editors are Julie Carpenter, Kim Carter, Pat Mathews, Becky Saller, and Patricia SanRoman. Once the editors have the paper ready for print, it is sent to Courier Graphics in Claremont. The paper is then assembled, proofed, and printed on newsprint so it more resembles a professional newspaper. Many improvements were evident in the publication this year, the main one being that it came out more often and was more regular. Mrs. Hynes stated that it was a pleasure to serve the student body in this manner. A well informed student body becomes a student body who participates more in school life.

PROVIDES PRINTING . . .

Provided printed matter when needed is the most important contribution Raider Press makes to the school and the community. Whenever a program, a booklet, flyers or any other material is needed, Mr. Gonzalves oversees the typewriting and the running of the presses as the students learn the rudiments of the printing business. There is, however, time enough for individual products as can be seen by the picture of the boys holding up a shirt imprinted with a skull and cross bones. While the class entails a lot of hard work, there are moments that make the class enjoyable as well. However the most important aspect of taking this class is that many graduates find that they are able to obtain a job in the printing profession.

The musically inclined and vocally gifted meet in H-I every school day to practice, improve, and sharpen their vocal skills. These students make up the Rowland High School Choirs. Under the direction of Mr. John Catanzaro, they have again completed a successful year of concerts, festivals, competitions, and school productions.

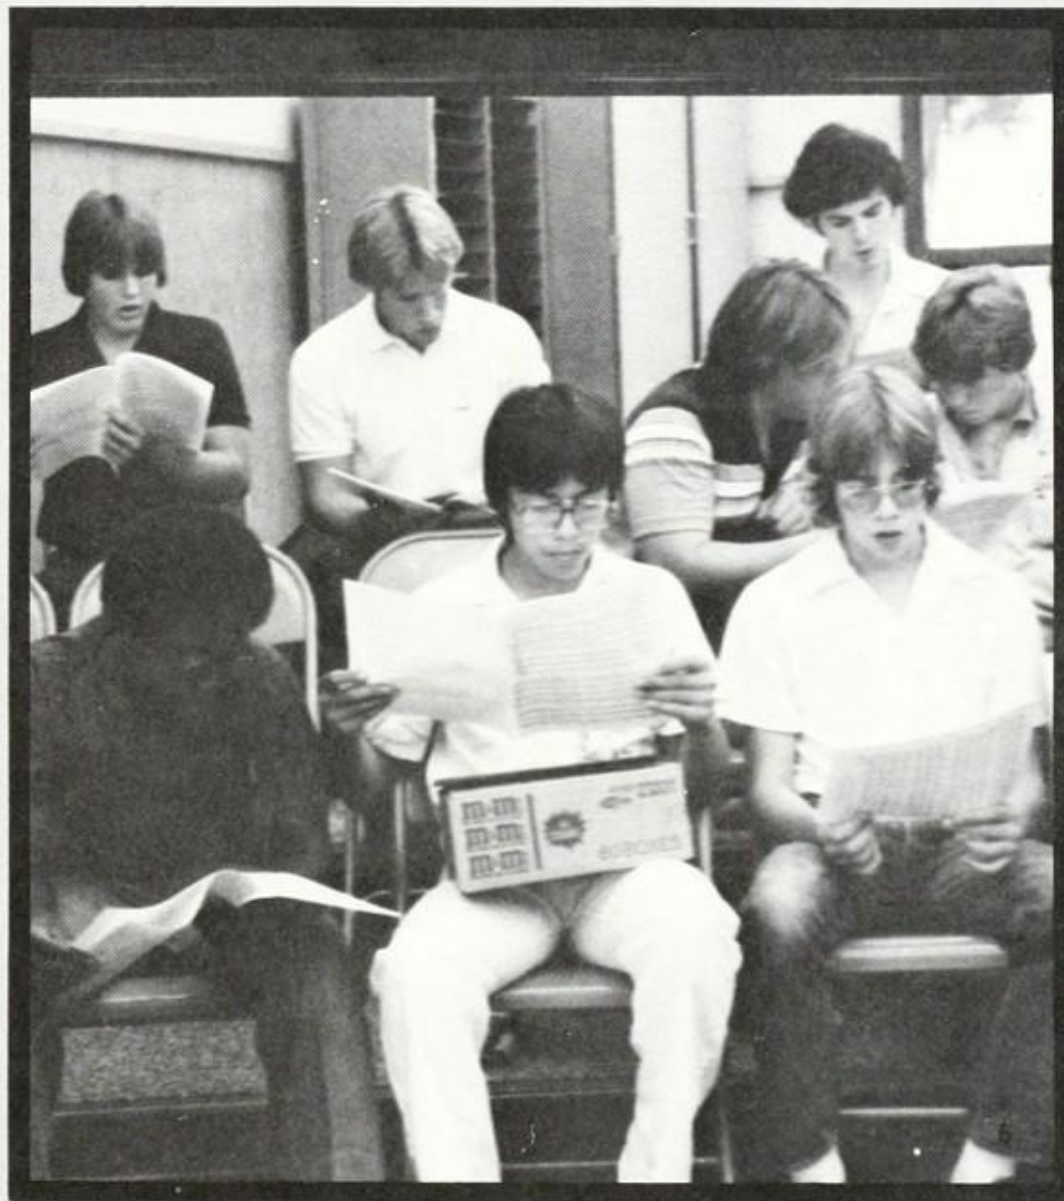

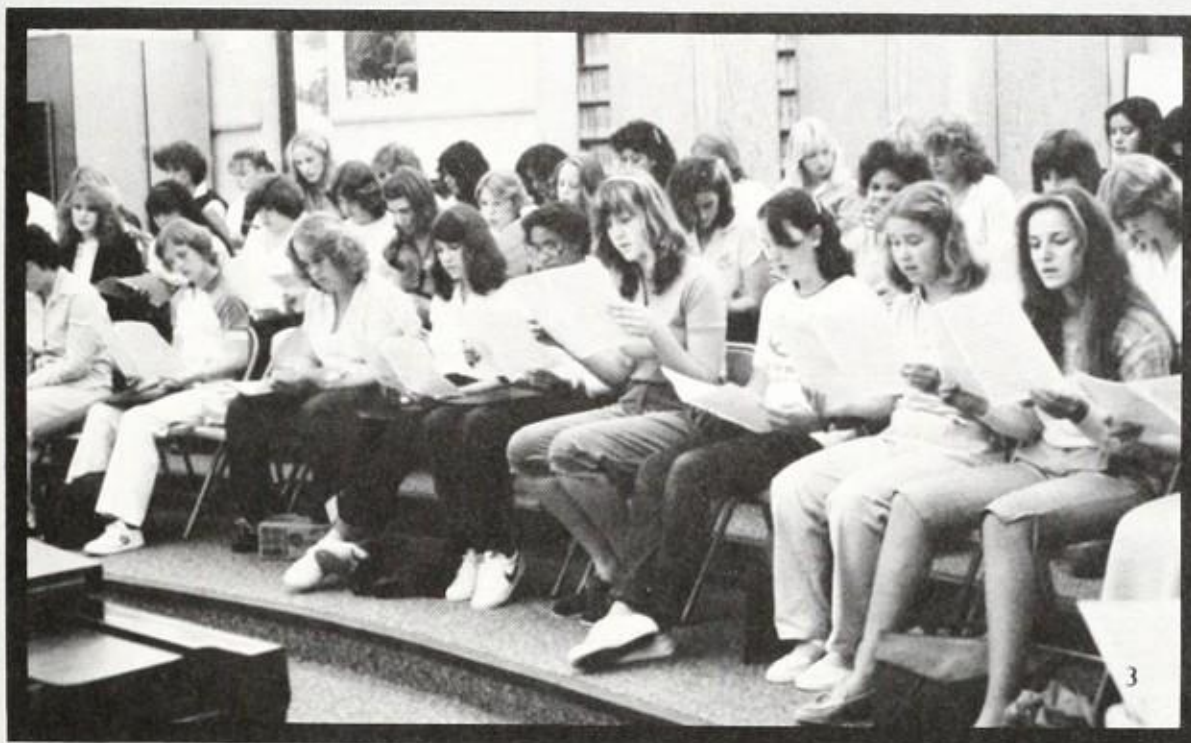

Support for the choirs was derived from a variety of ways. One of the major events was the Second Annual Fashion Show and Spaghetti Dinner. After the dinner, students, parents, and faculty members modeled the latest fashions. The high point and conclusion to the show was a full scale wedding party. Singing Christmas cards were again a popular Christmas event. For 50¢ students could send a singing Christmas carol to any of their friends-via the choirs. This year the choir sponsored the Student-Faculty Talent Show, called "Rowland on Broadway." It played to sell-out crowds both nights it was presented. "Mame," the spring musical, was their biggest endeavor and largest success of the year. It was presented in the new facilities of the gym and was warmly received by the large audiences that attended the performances. Again as the past, a tribute to Mr. Catanzaro.

A TRIBUTE . . .

CHAMBER SINGERS ...

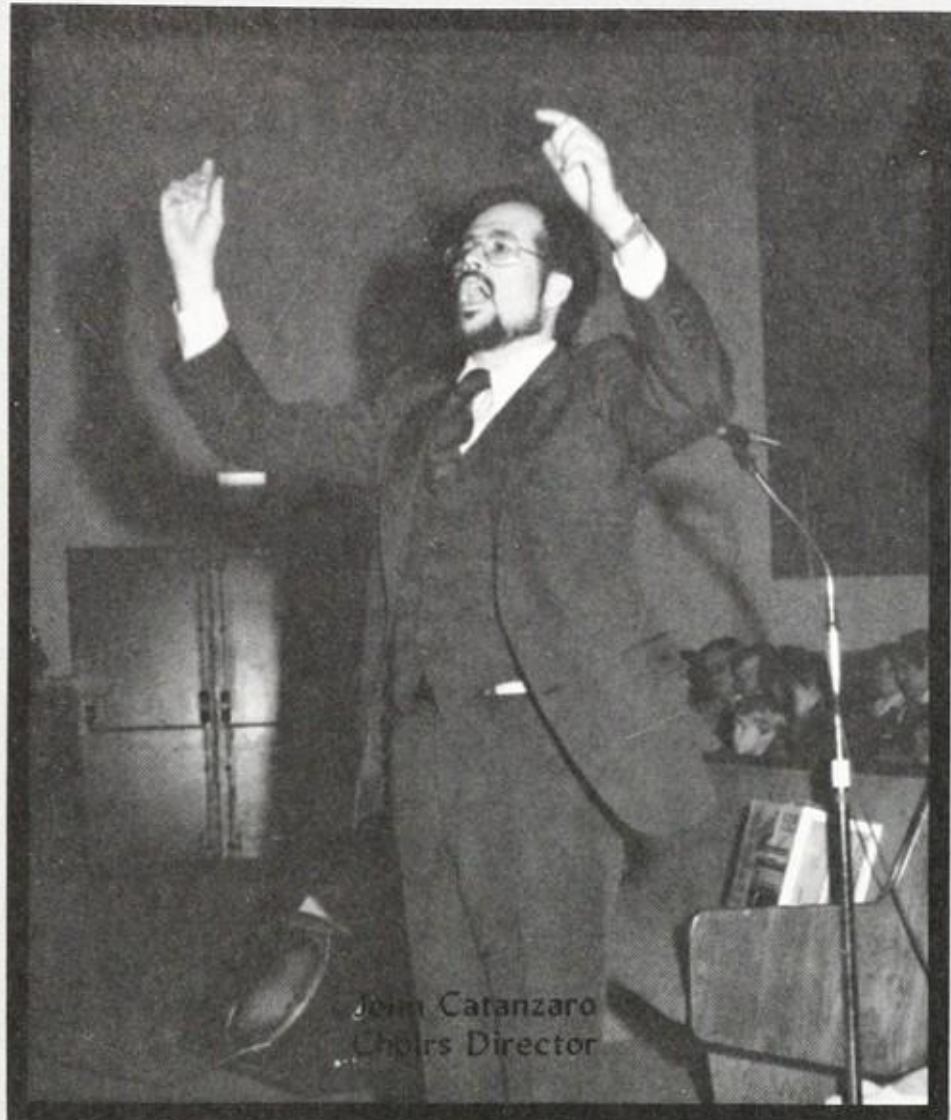

Mr. Catanzaro

Round, as open arms united Lasso of time and love
Circle of belonging
Spun and led through the hands
Of one single man.

As the rope twisting and encircling
Separating nothing
Together whirling, spinning
Soaring through song, yet tied
By one single man.

Lasso ever-widening Encompassing all
Perfection shields pitfalls
Protection prevents wandering
A musical bond made, twirled and guided
By this one single man.

Excitement prevailed when it was announced that Susan Emerich and Susan Morrell were chosen as members of the Tournament of Roses Parade Band Flag Corp. for 1982. This was just one of the awards that was brought home by members of the Bandettes, the performing auxiliary units to band. Other individual awards were won by Jennifer Wilson, 1st out of 200 in marching elimination; Denise HIPPIN, Young Americans Dance Team Tryouts; and Karen Cook and Ginny Schierenbeck, second in high school solo twirling. The Tall Flag group has won 4 firsts and 2 thirds in festival and parade competition this year, and the groups as a whole won 2 firsts at camp and received the coveted Spirit Award while garnering the Sweepstakes for the school with the most awards. The advisor, Patt Carnevale is very pleased with the girls' performances. However, behind the awards can be found a dedicated group of students who brave rain, sleet, fog, and student drivers early each morning in the parking lot in order to practice for these award-winning performances.

THEY WORK TOGETHER . . .

A new advisor and a new method of choosing the pep squads came into being this year. This year the girls were chosen by panels of teachers who judged the girls on poise, routines, and spirit. This method of judging led to a more representative squad than in previous years. the new advisor, Vera Benoit, has also instigated many changes. The rules governing the squads are more strict, which has improved the attitudes of the girls. Also the squads feel they work together better than before. Altogether the changes have brought a more positive attitude by both the girls and the school as a whole.

EAGER TO DO WELL . . .

The Raider Band is filled with bright, energetic students eager to do well in all aspects of performance. This quality has been observed and appreciated by all who attend their performances. Many traditional performances of the Raider Marching Musicians continues this year. Some of these were the Disneyland Parade, the Annual Spring Concert, the Christmas Lane Parade and the parade competitions in the fall. Something new this year is the Dancing Tuba Line. This line performed at various functions during the year. The Raider Band continues to grow in number and expertise, while their collection of rewards and trophies for their musical ability has also grown. They have become an important asset to the school.

AN OLD FASHIONED TOUCH . . .

An Old Fashioned Touch was awaiting everyone who attended Homecoming this year. Not only was the turnout for the football game against Wilson large, but the spirit and enthusiasm displayed by the crowd of Raiders and alumni was high and constant. The half-time show presented by the band was impressive, but the highlight of the evening was the announcement of the 1981-1982 Homecoming court. Tracy Perry was crowned queen to the delight of the crowd and rode from the stands in a horse-drawn carriage. After the game there was a dance at the Pomona National Golf Course and the turnout was so large that many were turned away from the door. Those inside danced to the music of Schu-Roberts Audio and had the opportunity to ride a mechanical bull. The school spirit expressed by the current Raiders and alumni made this year's Homecoming a very special and a very memorable old fashioned touch.

Bruce Vincent plays an outrageous Limbo game.

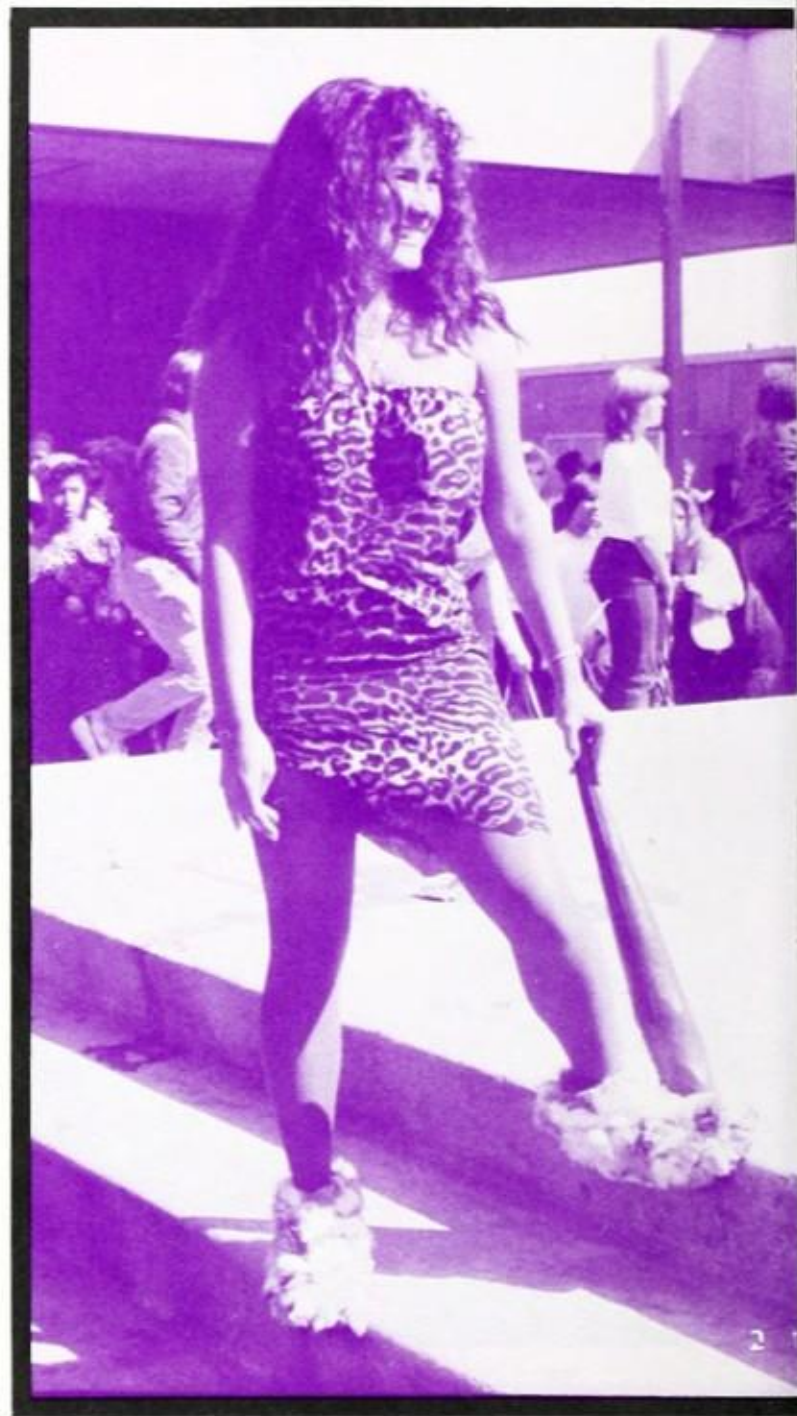

A SPECIAL WEEK . . .

Spirit Week was a special week this year. While the format of dress-up days and noon contests remained the same, the correlating of Friday's Western theme, Homecoming activities, and the Homecoming Dance was new. Participation in the noon time activities was at an all time high. Pie Eating, Rootbeer Chug-a-lug, Tarzan Call, Ice Blocking, Limbo, Hoola Hoop, and Bubble Gum Blowing were some of the contests students could enter. While the root beer and pies were delicious, the bubble gum turned out to be a sticky affair. The athletic prowess of many was discovered as they raced across the grass in the Ice Blocking or twirled the hoop on their waist or bent over backwards to slip under the Limbo stick. The Tarzan call was in a class all its own, though. For it gave some students the chance to relieve their frustrations at school by yelling. When the week was finally pieced together, a picture of a spirited, fun-filled week emerged, one that will be remembered for a long time.

A THEME A DAY . . .

Each day of Spirit Week was given a dress-up theme. The week began with 50's Day, a favorite theme since grade school. Safari Day was new to most students, but somehow everyone who dressed up managed to get khaki and leopard skins together to make this day most memorable. Hawaiian Day was the coldest day, but the temperature didn't stop the intrepid Raiders from wearing grass skirts and flowers. Crazy Day must have set the community wondering, as some strange outfits, indeed, walked down Otterbein on the way to school. Friday was a little bit tamer than the other days because it was Western Day. Students who had not dressed for the other days found the courage to wear a cowboy hat for this one.

While the clothes worn during Spirit Week may not have come out of Vogue Magazine, the students who dressed proved to the rest of the student body that Rowland does have a certain amount of spirit; all that is needed is a little coaxing, and it will come out (all over the place).

1. Just who is the first runner-up? Shelly Murphy, Tina West, Melody Reyes, Becky SanRoman or Chris Hakala? 2. Renee Reiz looks for her mate. 3. What are Jami Kemp and Valerie Johnson up to now? 4. Lisa Shreffler loves school, the Dodgers, rain, and what else? 5. What are Dawn Lebman, Bobbie Mills and Heide Vanderpool munching out with on 50's Day? 6. Yvette Aguilera and Ginette Schierenbeck model Hawaiian for Seventeen magazine. 7. Tiffany Maturo, Pam Windfelder, and Alison Wardleigh await the kill.

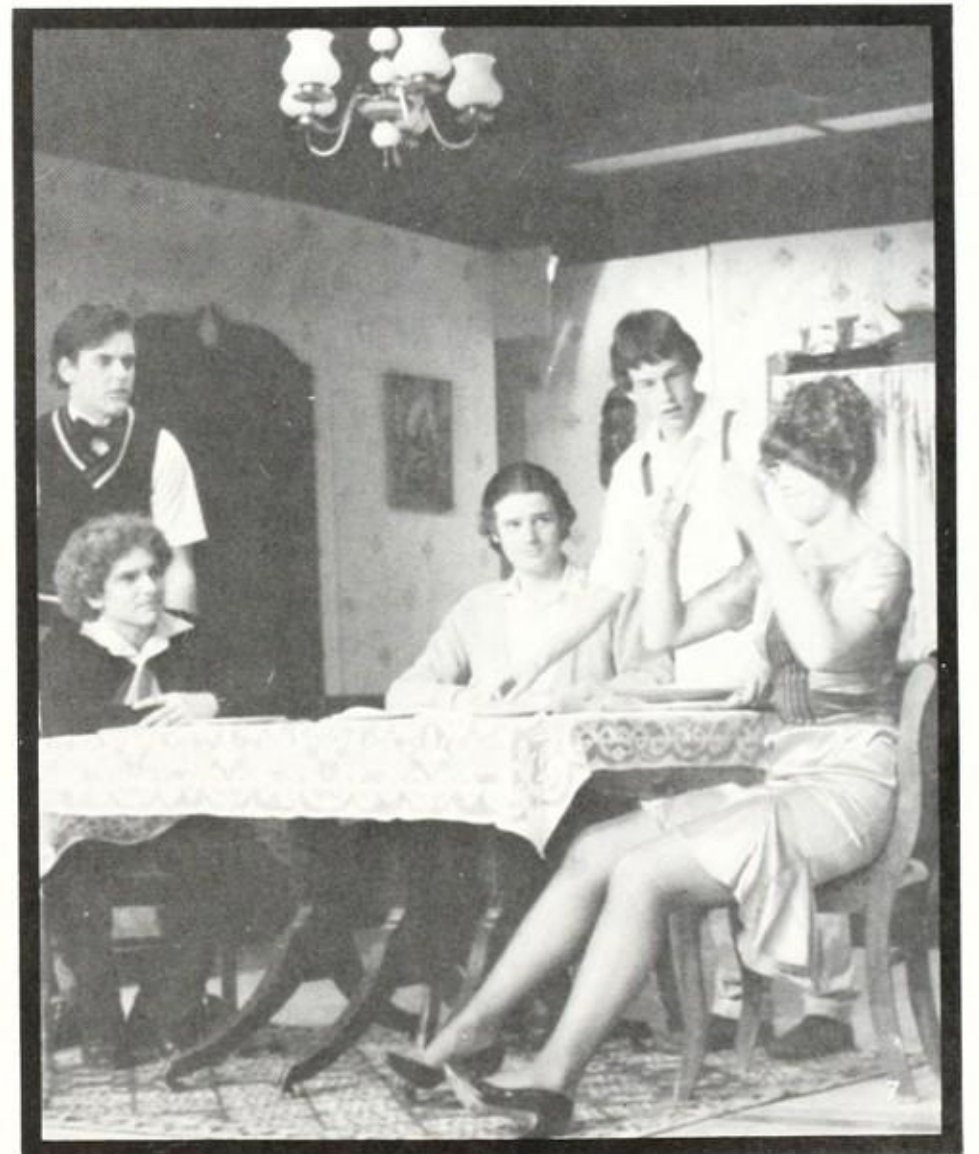

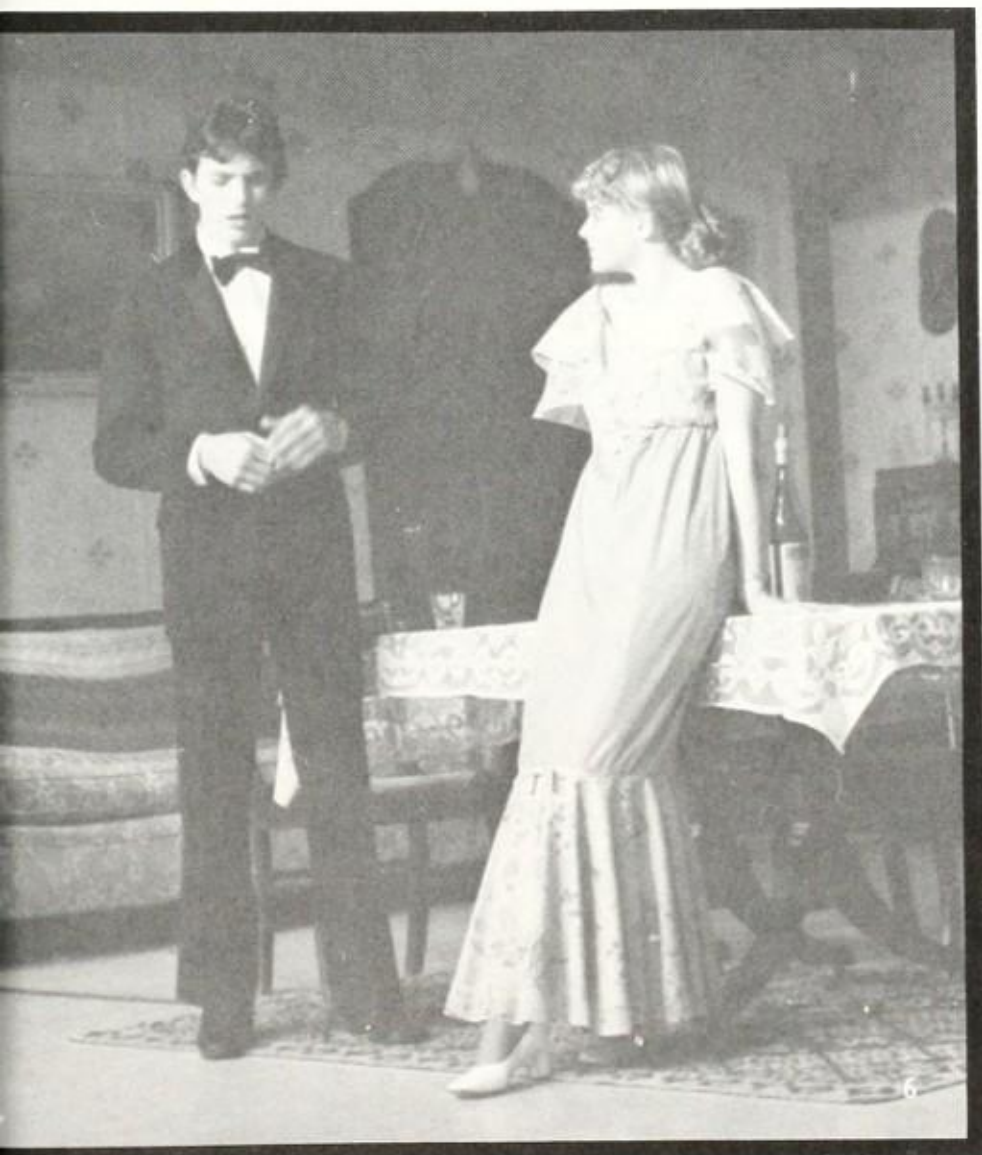

ANTICS PLEASE CROWDS . . .

"You Can't Take With You" turned out to be one of the most successful plays put on by the Drama Dept. The zany antics of grandpa and the Sycamore family amused and delighted the sold out crowds that attended all performances. Grandpa's tolerance towards his family and his attitude towards money enabled his family to pursue their desires and dreams no matter how ridiculous they seemed. The strange, different type of family life proved to be very embarrassing for Alice Sycamore, who wanted to marry Tony Kirby, the son of a very rich, but very proper family. A night in jail reconciles the Kirby's and the Sycamores and everyone lives happily ever after. Many outstanding performances were given by the cast. Among them was Lynn Rogers who played Gay Wellington, a lush. Her performance brought down the house at every performance. Mr. Jordan, the teacher advisor, was very pleased with the success of the play.

1- Darren Hammers (Mr. Carmichael) plays while Christine Charles (Esse) dances. 2- Jim Burkhart (Tony Kirby) and Reva Curran (Alice Sycamore), together again 3- Jean Swift (Mrs. Sycamore) paints while Richard Sanchez (Mr. DePeena) poses. 4- Vince Chavez (Grandpa) expounds to Darryl Tidwell (Mr. Kolenkov) 5- Donna Harrison (Mrs. Sycamore) concentrates on her art. 6- Jim Burkhart (Tony Kirby) and Amber Boone (Alice Sycamore) discover their love. 7- Lynne Rogers (Gay Wellington) plays a magnificent drunk.

"I do." "I do." were the words heard as the quiet audience made up of Marriage and Family students witnessed the marriage of the year. The marriage took place in a flower bedecked dimly lighted Hideout on January 13, 1982. The guests had been ushered to their seats at 11:30 A.M., while soft music played in the background. They had gathered together to witness the marriage of Judi Prussak and David Ruiz. Reggie Thomas officiated at the ceremony. Others in the ceremony were: Melanie Leigh, Maid of Honor; Mike Hernandez, Best Man; Brides Maids: Thresa Sarrategui, Myra Galvan, Marci McEwen, Dayna Mullins. Ushers: Jerry Munoz, Randy Ivey, Gabriel Murillo, Allen Picard. After the ceremony, a receiving line was formed, and the guests were able to congratulate the couple. At the reception, Judi and David cut a traditional wedding cake and exchanged a tradition bite, after which they took the traditional turn around the dance floor. The guests were then served refreshments and encouraged to join in the dancing. While everyone enjoyed the events, Judi and David have something special to place in their Memory Books.

Mr. Aney crowns King Sean Armstrong.

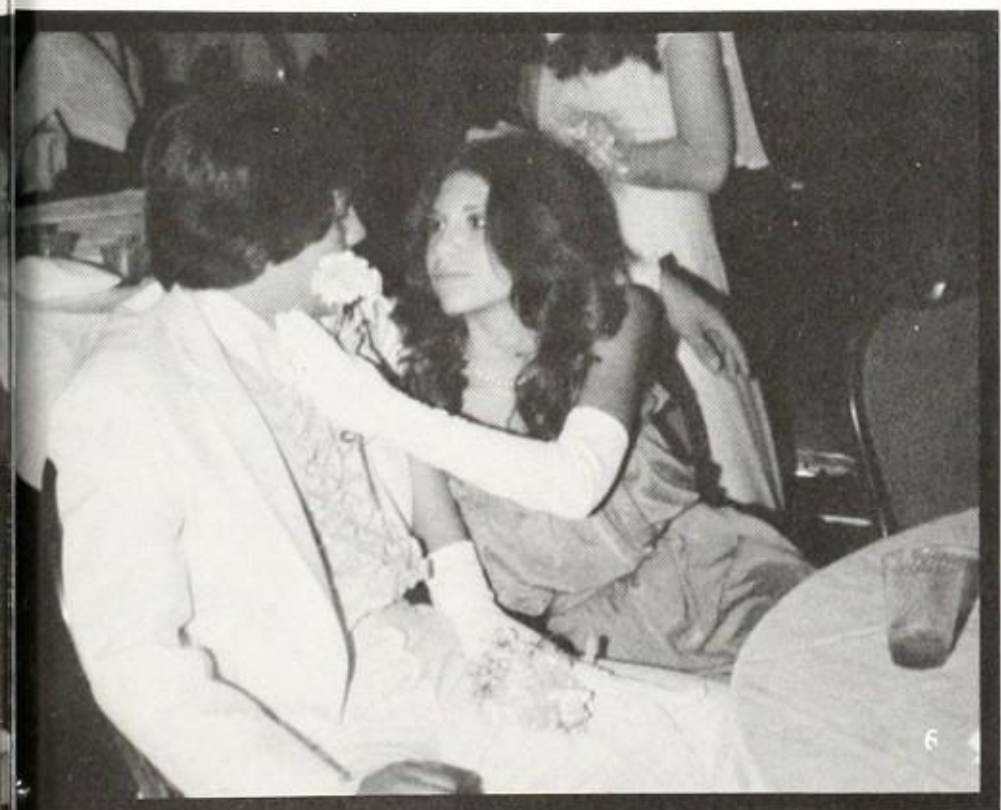

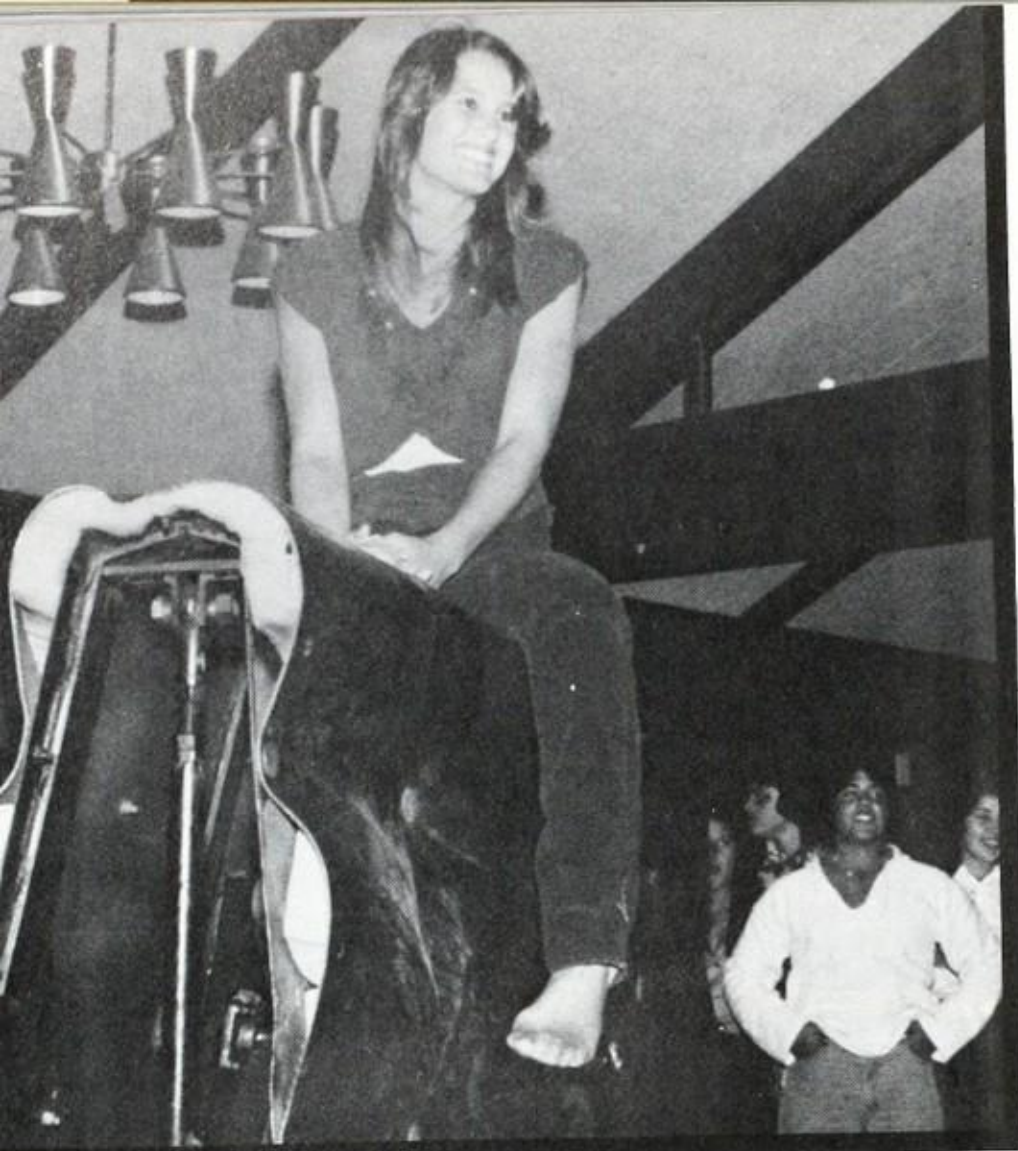

Becky SanRoman receives her crown from Mr. Aney.

Crystal Evening was the theme chosen for this year's Winter Formal, which was held at the Disneyland Hotel in the Embassy Room on January 9th. The music for the evening was provided by Scandal. The music was excellent, an opinion held by the students and chaperones alike. The dance floor was spacious, enabling plenty of room for the dancing.

This year's dance began a new tradition for Rowland High School. Instead of just a queen, a king and a queen were chosen to reign over the festivities, and a prince and princess for each class were chosen. Sean Armstrong became the first king in the history of the school, and Rebecca SanRoman was chosen as queen. The royal couples for the classes were: Freshmen Prince Chris Gallego, Princess Heidi Ventura; Sophomore Prince Bobby Markowski, Princess Erin Fausone; Junior Prince Craig Tippings, Princess Ella Bosrock; Senior Prince Andy Casana, Princess Mary Schlichting. At the stroke of twelve, the crystal shattered and royalty changed back to students again.

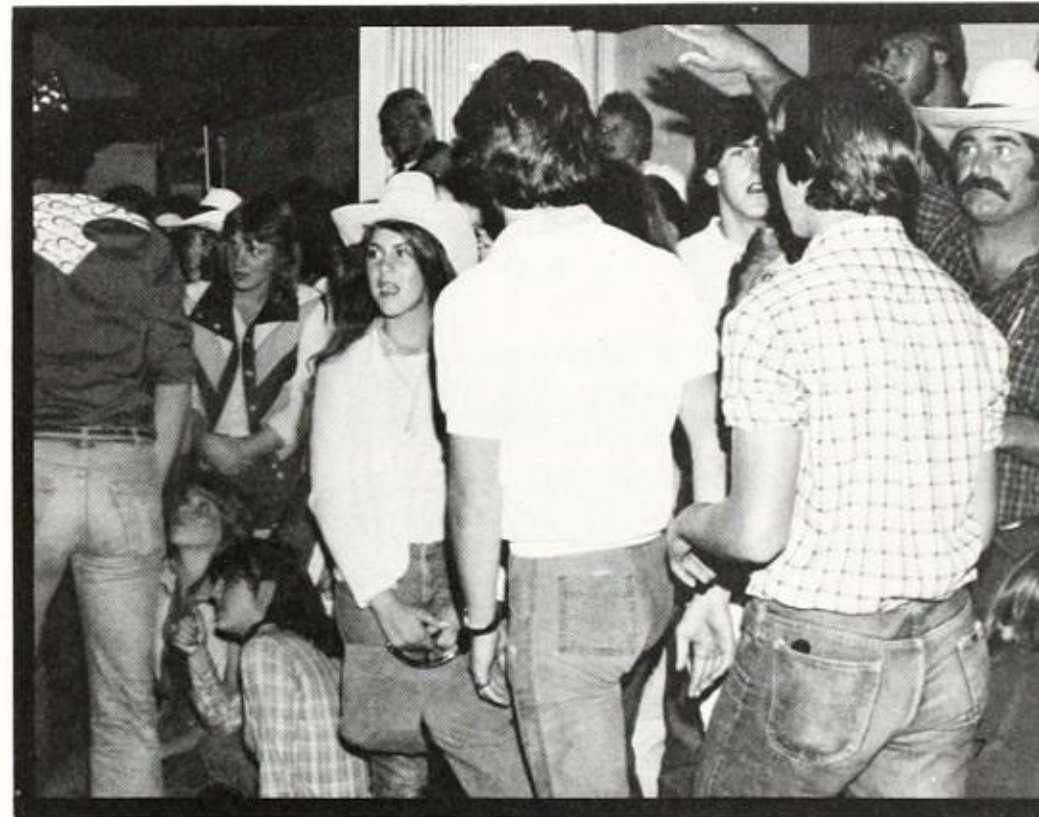

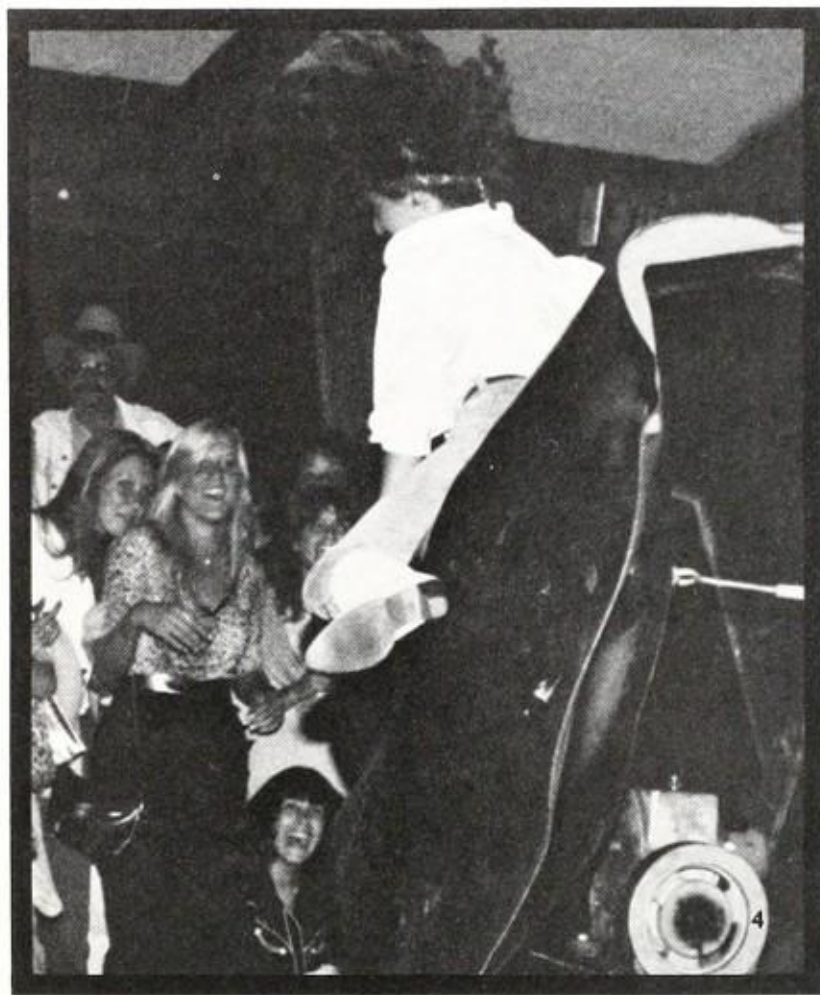

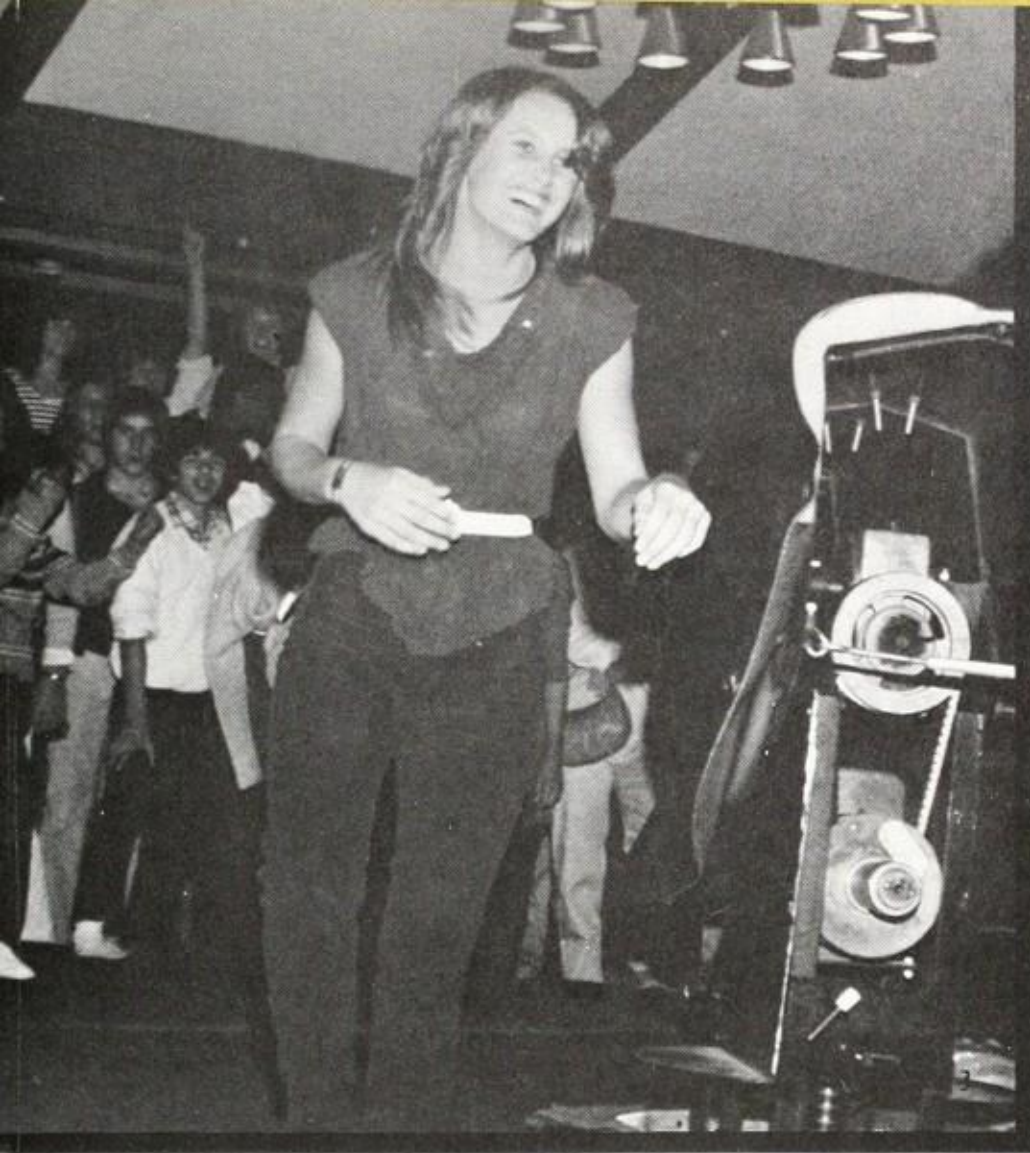

BUCKED & SNORTED . . .

The Homecoming Dance was a far greater success than anticipated, so much so that the room in which the dance was held could not accomodate the overflow crowd. The Western theme and the Mechanical Bull added excitement and fun to the dance. The bull was set up on the dance floor, and any would-be cowboy or cowgirl could plunk down their dollar and challenge the bull. The bull, being so popular, monopolized the crowd the entire evening. Crowds surrounded the roped off area to watch the bull do its stuff. It bucked and snorted, gently to some, but also throwing the oft unwary rider to the mat below, much to the delight of the audience. The D.J., Ronnie Roberts, held court at the opposite end of the floor, with a small area inbetween that proved far too small for the huge crowd that had come to the dance. The evening began winding down at 11:30 when the bull bucked his last, and saddle-sore cowboys and cowgirls gingerly left for home, spurning the round dance that ends all Western dances.

1-3. Shelly Murphy goes UP - AWAY - DOWN. 4. Yolanda Flores is just about to get bucked off. 5. Greg Espinoza says, "Ride 'em, Cowboy!" 6. Cindy Valdez rides them high. 7. Norm Revis directs the crowd that attended the dance.

FROLIC AT HALLOWEEN . . .

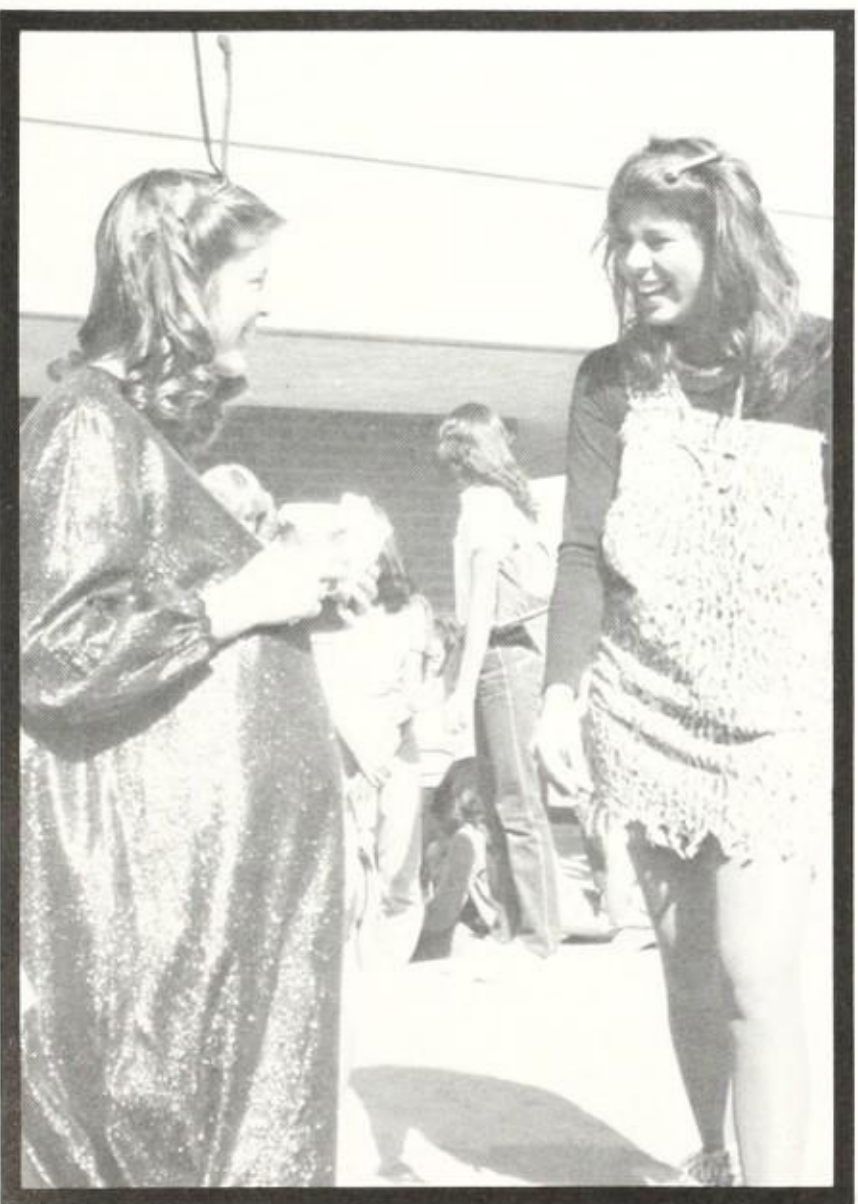

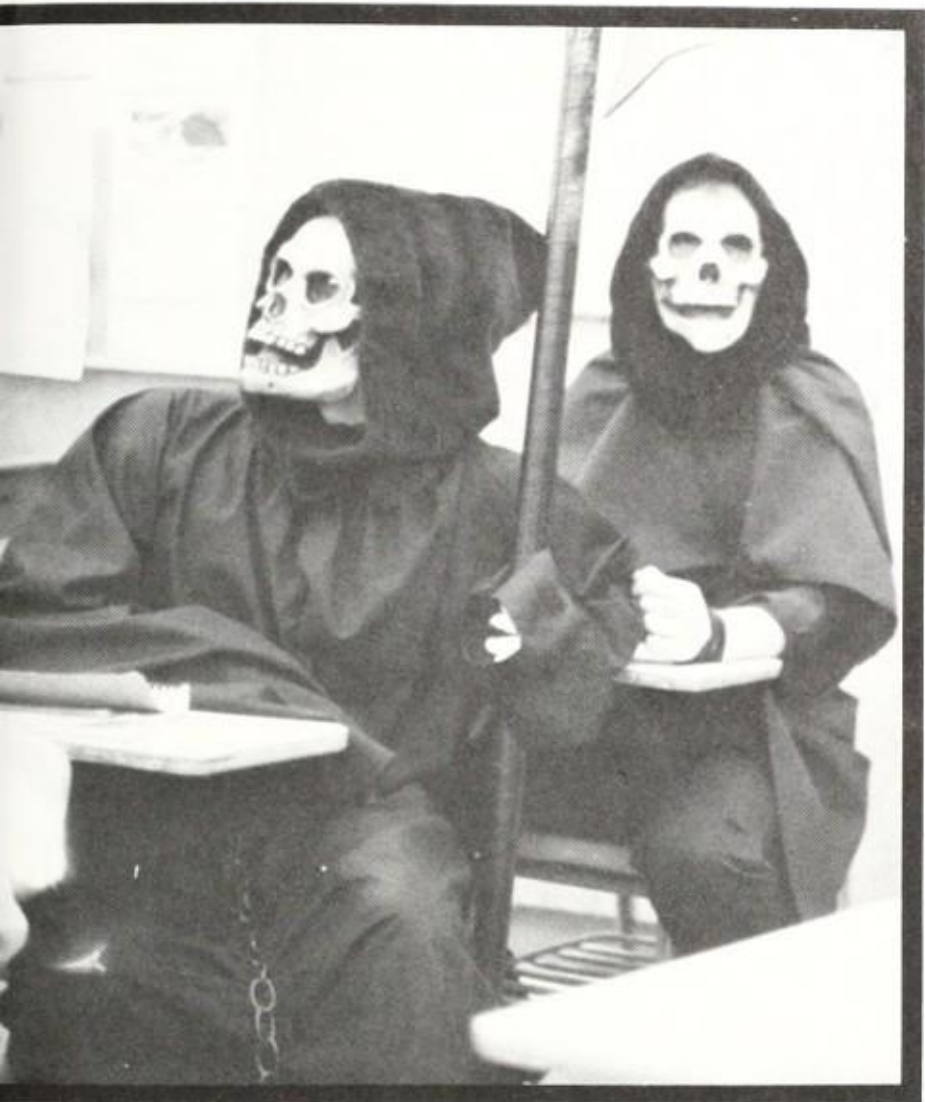

Halloween was celebrated Friday, Oct. 30 at Rowland this year. A costume contest was put on by A.S.B. at lunch time, and the judges were Mr. Aney, Mr. Robinson, and Mr. Mathers. Prizes were given to the best dressed teacher and the best dressed student. The competition was fierce as participation was at an all time high.

Mr. Gullet was dressed as a sheik with a harem of four exotic looking girls. The sheik and his harem won the teachers prize; it was a plastic pumpkin filled with candy.

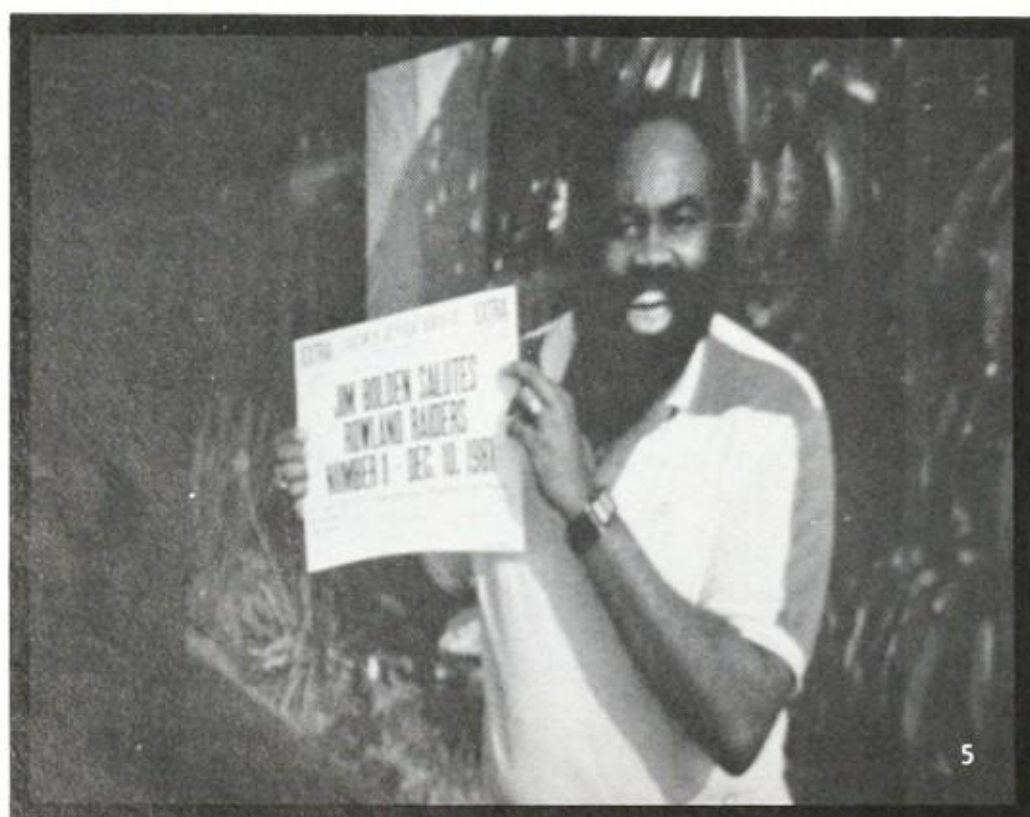

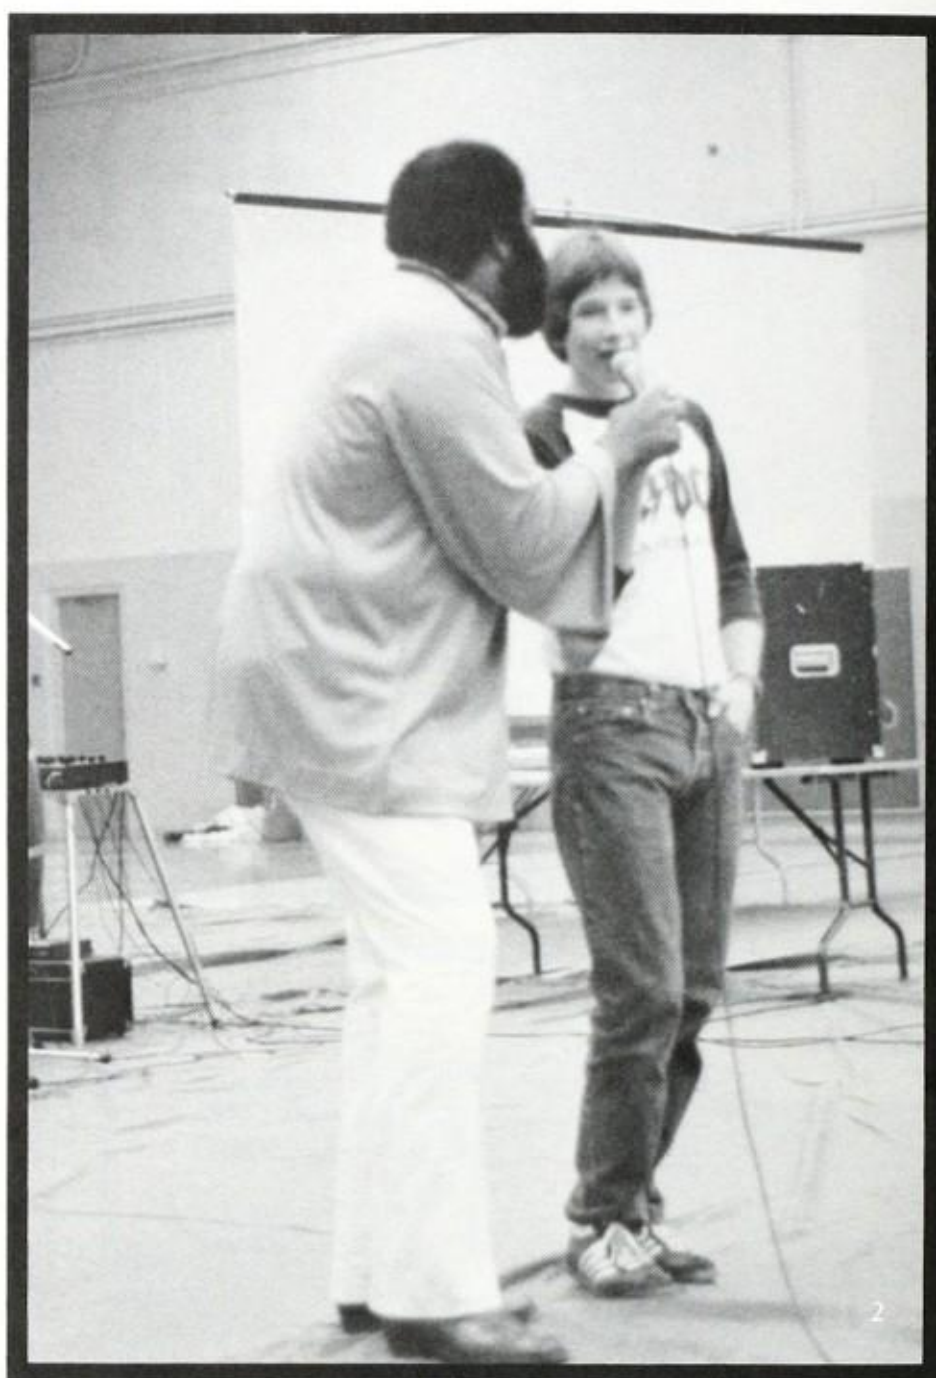

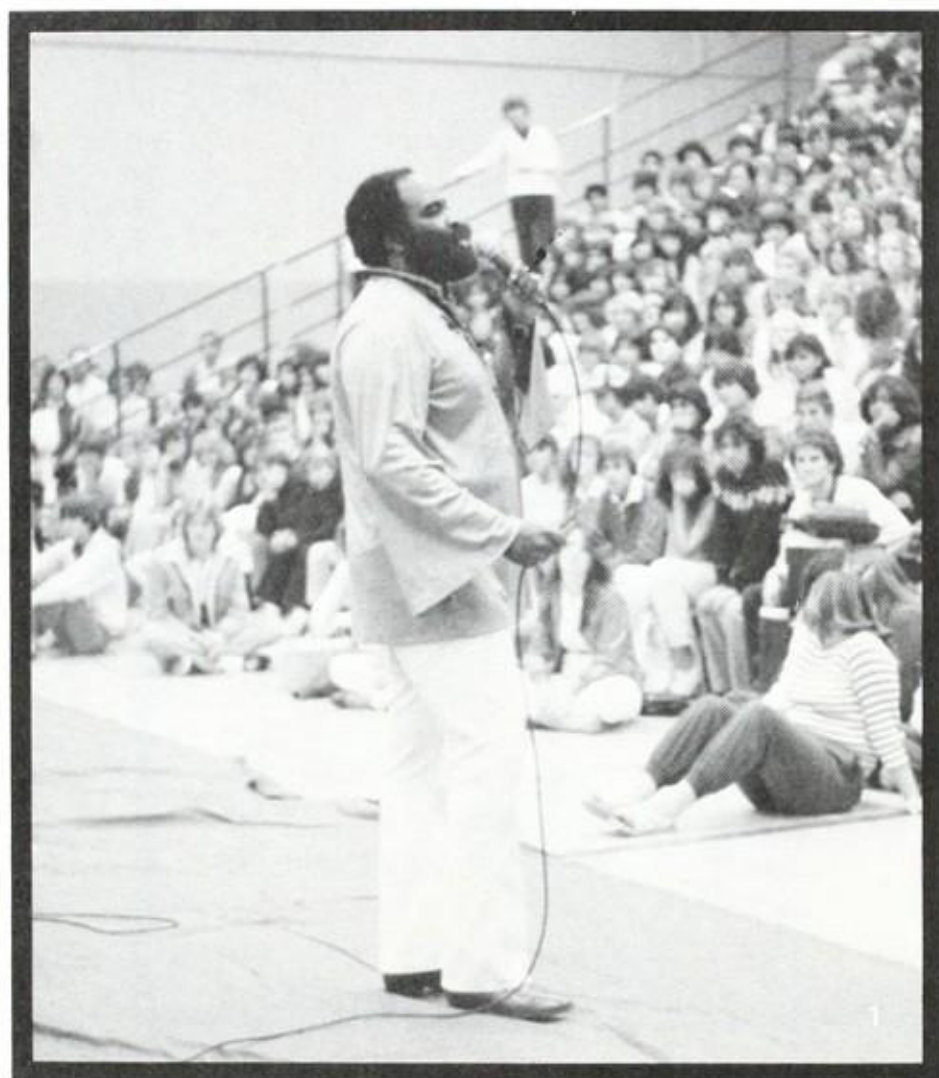

The winners of the student prize were Mark Van Patten and his friend Mark Guzman. They were dressed in red and black cloaks with skeleton masks. They won a large bag of halloween candy. All of the students enjoyed the fun and frolic at halloween this year.

1. Carla McDonald and Dona Under say "Whats up doc?" 2. Does Jean Swift and Susan Ford think they're cute or what? 3. Mark VanPatten and Jerry Kroger discuss "Who's next"! 4. Charity Lambert says, "I think I'm turning Japanese." 5. Jenny Volmer- "Sweet and Innocent". 6. Is Julie Villalovos and Deanne Hager laughing at each other or with each other? 7. Could this be Penny Walters before her first cup of coffee in the morning?

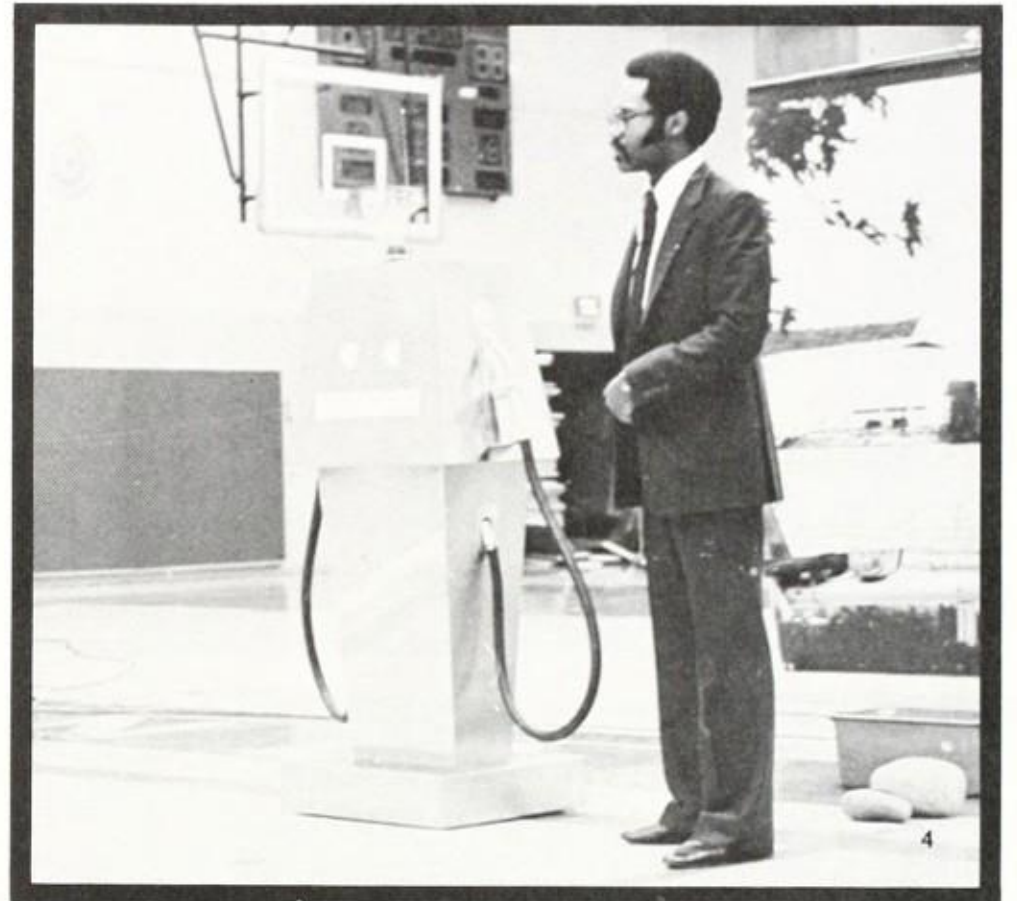

POTPOURRI . . .

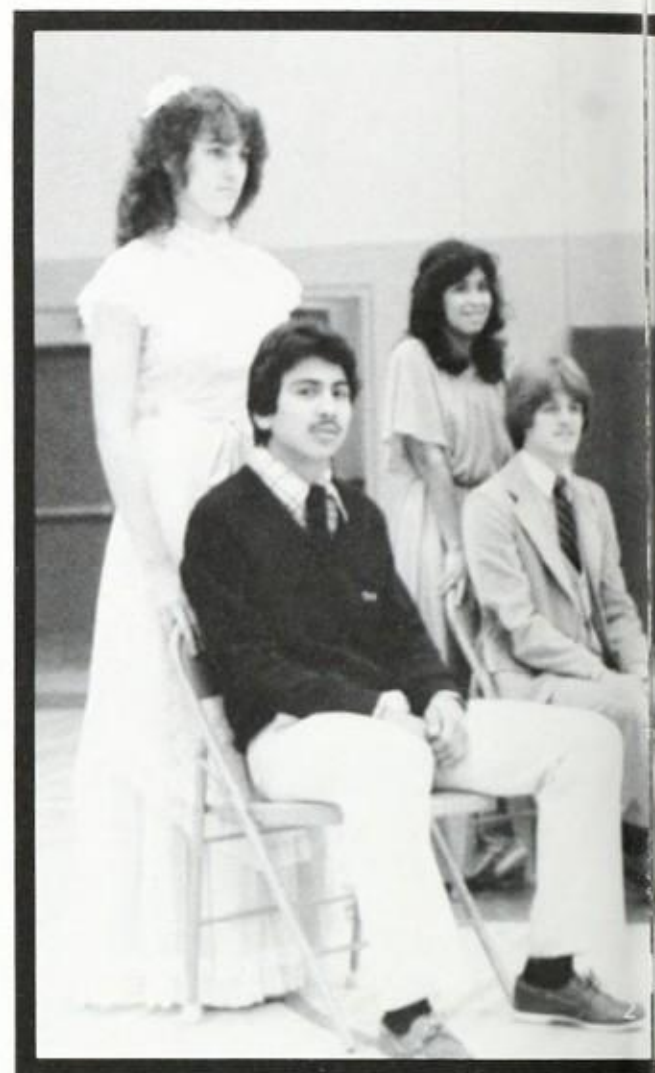

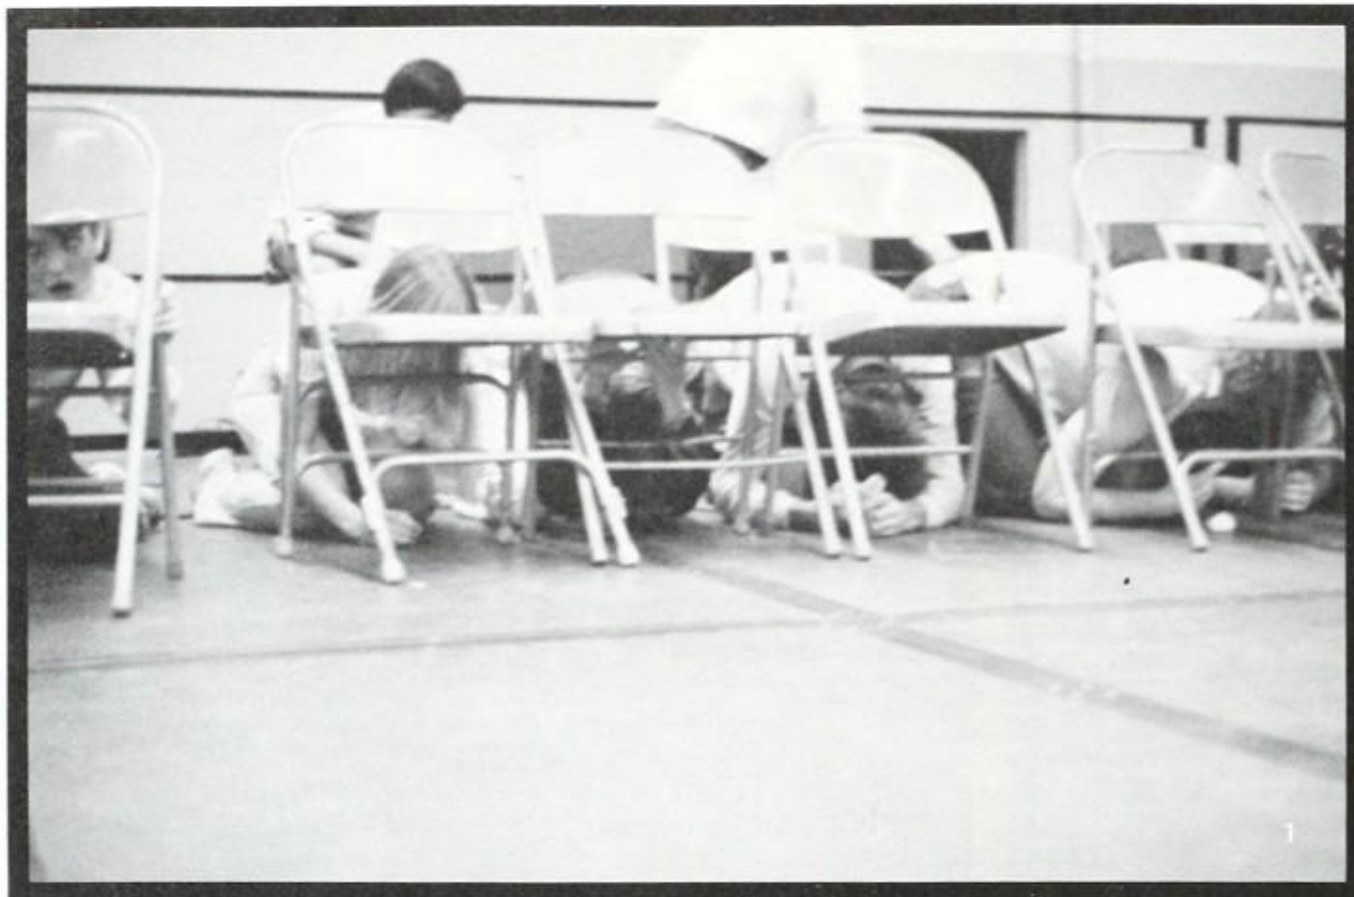

1. An inspiring solo by Jim Bolden. 2. Mark Emerson sings a duet with Jim Bolden. 3. Eric Booker shows Jim Bolden how it's done. 4. AC/DC in the form of a gas pump. 5. Is this headline for something in the future? 6. Jim Bolden's back-up band was sure cute! 7. A student cranks Phyllis Martinez into the air.

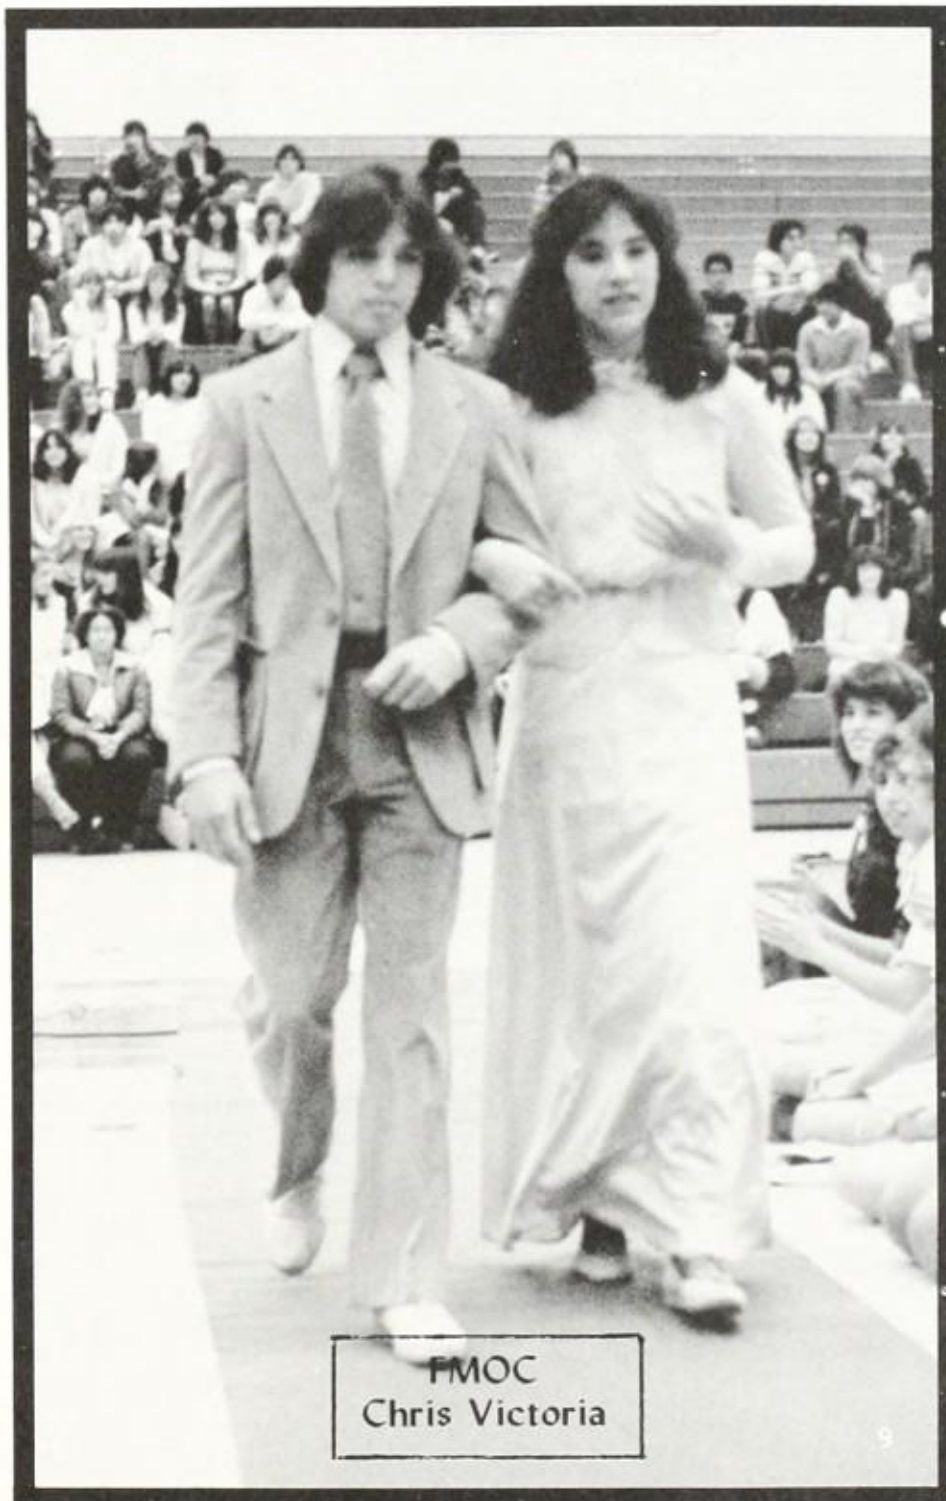

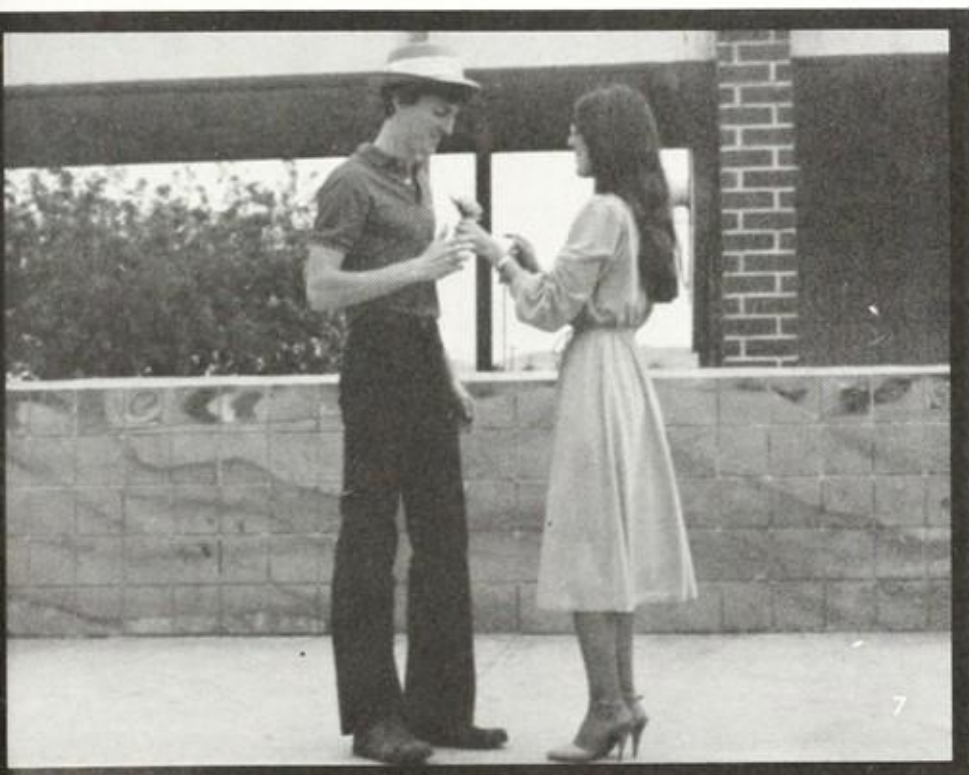

The completion of the gym enabled the school to hold assemblies once again, and how nice it was. For the first time in years all of the students could come to one assembly, and there was a stage and curtains and lights: almost as good as a real auditorium. The first assembly was an Energy Assembly. It didn't sound exciting, but once it started, everyone was interested. The second assembly was a return of the famous Jim Bolden. He was, as usual, outstanding. His rendition of "One Tin Soldier" will be remembered for a long time. Joyce Sharpe then brought her talents to school in January, when she put a group of students through some very unusual actions. One major noon-time assembly was the FMOC assembly. The gym was packed with students who were awaiting the results of a very close election. All in all the assemblies certainly added spice to a very bland diet of school.

AND MORE . . .

1. Why are you hiding behind a chair? 2. Armando Rosas and Merritt Peterson with escorts Kim Caudill and Chris Rodriguez. 3. Patricia SanRoman escorts Kenton Baker off of the stage. 4. The FMOC line-up. 5. Only they will know who they are shooting at. 6. Pose prettily-Stan Hunt, Todd Reagan, Dave Verdouw and Tracy Patten. 7. Kenneth Mayhue receives a rose from Patricia SanRoman. 8. Jim Williams gets his hat from Kim Phillips. 9. FMOC Chris Victoria and escort Cindy Morrell.

 my arm for no reason
 at all, I hope you're all I thought you were when I first got to know you, I was so nice and quiet -- oh, you're not well,
 I guess
 that's bad.
 I have next year.

AND COMES
THE LAST PIECE . . .

And a picture of games and dates and people and friends and work and play came forth on the pages of this book.

1. Monica Courtney, Kary Dunn, Kelly Gallagher, Marci McEwen, and Julie Jensen can't wait to be Seniors! 2. Anything's an improvement, Jim Burkhart. 3. Sometimes you feel like a nut, sometimes you don't, don't YOU, Annette Castro? 4. Denice Fox and Ceci Jauregui have to show-off what little Seniority they have. 5. Michael Lantz, now all you need is the outside of the car. 6. At times the Rowland campus is quiet and empty. 7. Richard Hawk and Carmen Uriarde, did cupid strike again? 8. Andy Barta wants you! 9. What's behind the smile Lisa Hilbreath?

Alma Mater hear our song,
Let all the world be told,
That we are proud to raise on high,
Our colors blue and gold,
And when the years have hurtled by,
And life we do review,
We'll not forget to give our thanks,
Dear Rowland High to you.

Erick,

I'm so glad I met you in math. You are a very sweet and crapy guy. Stay that way.
I hope we can always stay good friends. Maybe we will have math or another class together next year. Have a nice hot summer. See ya next year.

Erick,

It was great havin ya in Beeson's class. This class really sucked but we made it interesting.
Have a great summer and try to forget Beeson, but who could.
Friends Always

Love always

ALMA MATER

we may know each other.
I'm glad I met you cuz you such a sweet
 guy. Have a bitchin summer. I hope I see ya over the summer
 and next year.

Lots of Love,
Your Sister,
Fran

to Erik (Porty)
I'm glad we've met this year and have biology together. you are a funny nuc, mean sometimes, but other wise, you're a great guy. Have a super radical summer with all the gils o.k. See ya next year. Good lucks!

ERICK
your philosophies are good but you must know mine. (Don't get out of shape) (hicken and leave em)
and Don't get Andrea before I do,

I beg me alot. But can live with it, only for while. You lucky I never Doug about you begging me cause heard I was serious about knocking u off. But now its about you keep begging me Billy is going to kick u so stay cool because I hate blood. even if u yell. Just cool down and yell stay out of

Hi Erick,
Well im glad we met you in Biology! (and we are really direct (leftmost of the terminal way). Just be careful as the teacher! I hope we will see you next year in cell or a seminar! Hope
K.I.T. (W) 594-8830 Smile
